Will Rogers Remarks:

NEW YORK, March 26.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Hoover gets rid of something useless every day. Wait till he sees the Senate and Congress. He sunk the Mayflower without warning, took the White House stables and made a garage for fishing poles out of it, sent six horses that had never been able to be ridden since Taft got through with them to museums, traded the mechanical horse for a medicine ball and makes everybody catch it before they can get any breakfast. That's to discourage Senators eating there. Imagine Heflin and Blease throwing that thing at Moses and Reed of Pennsylvania.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

P.S.—Federal Reserve sunk the stock market after two weeks of warning and brought the sucker crew in destitute and manacled tonight.

AIR MAIL TO BE SPEEDED

East Half Day Nearer Soon

Twelve Hours to be Lopped from Schedule With New Night Flying

Double-Daily Service to be Provided on Laterals West of Chicago

WASHINGTON, March 26. (Exclusive)—Air mail time between New York and Los Angeles as well as San Francisco will be reduced by twelve hours or more with the inauguration during the next thirty days of an additional service between the two coasts on a schedule designed to eliminate the overnight layover of incoming mail at both terminals.

This service already is in operation from New York as far west as Lincoln, Neb. The new feature is its extension to California, made possible by the completion of the lighted airway in the sector between Salt Lake City and San Francisco. Coincident with the beginning of this service there also will go into operation service on a new route between Omaha and St. Louis via Kansas City.

CRISIS RIPS EXCHANGE

Stock Frenzies Break Records

Sales Go to 8,246,740 When Call Loan Rate Mounts to 18 and 20 Per Cent

Values Collapse But Regain Most of Losses During Wild Day of Trading

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—The worst credit crisis in nine years, in which the official rate on call loans was jacked up from 15 to 20 per cent, and as high as 25 per cent was demanded in the "outside market," today brought about one of the most turbulent sessions in the history of the New York Stock Exchange when prices crashed $5 to nearly $35 a share, and then rebounded in almost as spectacular fashion, on a record-breaking turnover of 8,246,740 shares.

The previous record was 6,942,500 shares on November 23, 1928.

The credit stringency was the indirect result of the Federal Reserve Board's policy in seeking the cooperation of member banks in curtailing the volume of credit on speculative collateral. This has resulted in the heavy withdrawal of funds from New York by out-of-town banks during the past week, and the disinclination of New York bankers to meet the deficiency.

TERRIBLE SCARE

Call money renewed today at 12 per cent, jumped to 15, then 17 and finally 20, with only a nominal amount of loans called. New York bankers are reported to have supplied some funds at the 20 per cent level to keep the rate from going higher, although they shortly will be called on to meet unusually large April 1 dividend and interest disbursements.

The sharp rise in money threw a terrible scare into thousands of small speculators, most of whom never before experienced a credit crisis, and into some of the large traders as well, with the result that large blocks of stocks were dumped overboard "at the market" in order to conserve rapidly vanishing paper profits or limit the steadily mounting losses.

INDICES GIVEN

The late rally of $5 to $26 a share in some of the high-priced stocks resulted in relatively little change being shown by the stock market indices. The Associated Press figure for fifty leading industrials fell only 1.2 points, as against 6.6 yesterday, while the index of twenty rails dropped only 3-10 of a point, although it set a new low level for the year as a group. The public utilities were the hardest hit, the index of twenty leading issues dropping 4.8 points as against 5.3 points yesterday.

The market opened fairly steady, with opening prices irregular. A rally started soon after the opening, but this was checked when the call money renewal rate was posted at 12 per cent. Large offerings then began to appear and prices rapidly melted away, with the selling movement gaining increased impetus from each advance in the rate.

TICKER LATE

Such a gigantic accumulation of orders poured over the brokerage wires from all sections of the country and by radio and cables from abroad that the ticker fell hopelessly behind the market. Word came back from the floor around 11 o'clock that the ticker was nearly twenty-five minutes late. The delay increased to forty minutes at noon, fifty-five minutes at 1:30, sixty-four minutes at 2 o'clock and ninety-three minutes at 2:50, with the usual last-minute rush of buying and selling delaying the printing of the final quotation until two hours and fourteen minutes after the market had closed.

This was the longest delay on record, the previous record of two hours and three minutes having been established on November 16, 1928.

COTTON PRICES FALL IN SYMPATHY WITH SLUMP

NEW ORLEANS (La.) March 26. (AP)—Cotton prices broke sharply here today in sympathy with the slump in stocks and the raising of the call money rate. Values had gained 14 to 16 points in early trading, but the subsequent break carried May contracts off to 19.37, July, 19.49, and October, 19.31, or 62 to 69 points down from the highs and 47 to 55 points below yesterday's close. Later, however, trading interests absorbed contracts at the lower levels and active positions rallied 14 to 22 points from the lows.

WHEAT AND CORN PRICES TAKE TUMBLE

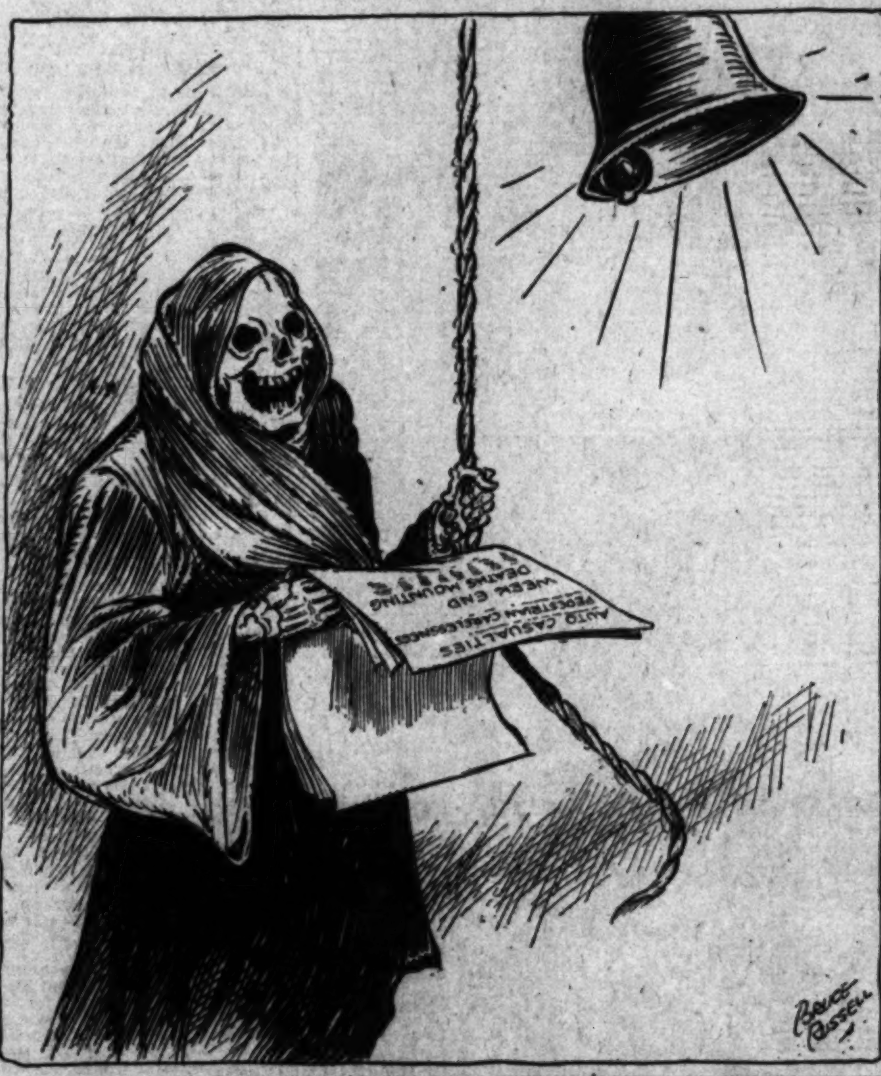
CHICAGO, March 26. (AP)—Grain prices underwent a big tumble today as a result of heavy selling in connection with stock market weakness. Wheat fell as much as 6 1-8 cents a bushel and corn 5 1-8 cents compared with earlier quotations today. The break carried wheat 5 1-4 cents and corn 4 3-4 cents to below yesterday's finish.

A sharp rally forced the downward swing of the grain markets.

OHIO FARM LEADER DIES

XENIA (O.) March 26. (AP)—Oscar E. Bradfute, 67 years of age, prominent Ohio farm leader, is dead here. The late President Wilson appointed him to membership of his industrial commission and in 1925 President Coolidge named him the American delegate to the world conference on agriculture in Rome.

The Toll of Traffic



SHORN LAMBS ALL IN STEW

They'll Beef About It Today But Yesterday's Stock Dive Was Just Nightmare to Small Fry

BY HICKMAN POWELL

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, March 26. (Exclusive)—Worried thousands of stock market speculators crowded into brokers' offices during the collapse of prices in Wall street today and experienced the familiar nightmarish sensation of falling through dark and limitless space.

The lateness of the ticker made the darkness. During the grim, sad hour after noon its luminous projection was an hour behind, out of all relation to the current prices; the market's mechanical eyes had gone blind.

The tape had been later, back in the days before its stringent abbreviation. But that was in the bull movement in November, when a man could sit back and wonder how much his profits had grown. Today it was a matter of paper profits dropping into a black well of ignorance.

THOUSANDS LOSE

The nightmarish simile carries further, for a host of operators awoke clutching at the bedclothes, only to find the blankets securely wrapped around their bedfellows. Thousands of small fry were closed out without the opportunity to increase their margins, and tomorrow will be angrily demanding from their brokers why they were denied the benefit of the market's comeback. Tomorrow probably there will be many specific stories of individual misfortune; today the shorn lambs were lumped together in a mass of misery.

The financial district showed almost none of the traditional signs of individual panic. Hundreds of brokerage offices were jammed with what their owners fondly thought were poker faces. The customers' rooms were as silent as was street traffic in Saturday night's fog.

Some of these customers gazed with academic, historic interest at the moving ticker tape, which, far behind the market, did not finish its work until 5:13 p.m. More crowded around the Dow-Jones news ticker, which had leaped into the breach with an attempt to give prices ahead of the belated ticker.

BUSINESS KEYED UP

Some brokerage offices kept a clerk at a telephone, calling out the late quotations from the floor. But even

ETHICS OF OIL OUSTER EXPLAINED

Removal of Stewart Due to Standards of Business, Declares Rockefeller

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., returning today from a three months' trip abroad characterized the removal of Col. Robert W. Stewart from the chairmanship of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana as "significant because it emphasizes the conviction that the highest ethical standards are as vital in business as they are in other relations of life."

"I heard the results and, expecting you would ask the question, I have prepared this brief statement," Mr. Rockefeller said when reporters asked if he would comment on the result of his proxy fight to remove Col. Stewart from the chairmanship of the Indiana company. "It is all I care to say on the subject. Please accept it as it is, and not place any interpretation upon it other than what it states."

The prepared statement said:

"The action taken requires no comment. It makes it clear, however, that the thoughtful investor estimates the permanent and underlying value of an investment not alone in terms of dividends, essential as they are, but quite as much in terms of the unquestioned integrity and singleness of purpose of management.

"The action is significant because it emphasizes the conviction that the highest ethical standards are as vital in business as they are in other relations of life."

TRACK LIFT RIGHT ASKED BY SANTA FE

Railroad Would Eliminate Six Grade Crossings With Project Costing $850,000

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (AP) The Santa Fe Railroad filed application with the State Railroad Commission today for permission to elevate tracks in the heart of Los Angeles, the project to cost in the neighborhood of $850,000.

The elimination of crossings planned by the project will be over Avenue 19, San Fernando Road, and Avenues 21, 22, 23 and 26, the application said.

A portion of the cost is to be borne by the city of Los Angeles, a portion by the Los Angeles Railroad Company and the remainder by the Santa Fe Railroad, it was stated. All work will be in the vicinity of the easterly approach to the North Broadway bridge, the application read.

Flight from Seville Ends at Bahia, Brazil, or 4100 Miles Without Stop, That Nears Record

BAHIA (Brazil) March 26. (AP)—Virtually unreported since leaving the coast of Africa, the Spanish airplane Jesus del Gran Poder with Capts. Ignacio Jiminez and Francisco Iglesias, ended a brilliant flight from Seville at 10:30 a.m. today on the Latecoere Field here wholly unexpectedly.

Only once since leaving the African coast were they reported. That was by an operator of the National Telegraph at Natal who said they had passed over that place at 2:55 a.m. So closely to schedule was this that it seemed to aviation experts a feat of outstanding brilliance.

The low level of the gasoline made it inadvisable to continue the flight, which lasted 43h. 48m., covering a distance without a stop of 4100 miles.

The extreme fatigue of the aviators caused them to decide to rest at Bahia for two days before starting on the 800-mile hop to Rio Janeiro, which had been the goal of their flight.

Shortly after landing at the Latecoere Field, the aviators were greeted by the Spanish Consul of Bahia and other officials. Both expressed disappointment that they had been unable to break the record established by Arturo Ferrarin and Carlo P. Delprette, the Italian flyers who flew from Rome to Brazil by way of the Cape Verde Islands, covering about 4600 miles, last year.

After greetings the men had luncheon and went to bed to recover from their fatigue.

HOOVER STARTS CLEAN-UP OF G. O. P. OVER SOUTH

Corrupt Leaders Must Go, He Says; Three State Bodies Scored; Plans for Upbuilding

WASHINGTON, March 26. (Exclusive)—The mining engineer in the White House touched off a charge of political dynamite today that shook the present Republican organization in the Southern States to its foundations.

Paving the way for the upbuilding of a white Republican party in the South Mr. Hoover repudiated on the ground of irresponsibility and corruption the negro Republican organizations in Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina and demanded their replacement by Republican leaders possessing integrity and the confidence of their communities.

In the case of Texas, Alabama, Florida and some other States, the President disclosed that the existing Republican leadership, which has fallen into ill repute, is to be compelled to divide authority with advisory committees acceptable to the administration.

The President placed his o.k. on the Republican leadership in Virginia and North Carolina and in Kentucky and other border States.

This leadership, he said, "has long since built up vigorous party organization which assures Republican representation in the Congress from those States."

STARTLES OLD GUARD

It was a long-heralded blast but nevertheless startling to Old Guard Republicans. The utterances of the President, confirmed dispatches of last October reporting the intention of Mr. Hoover to throw overboard the corrupt negro Republican organizations in the South and to appoint to Federal office only white men of high standing in their communities.

The President is believed to entertain hopes of attracting into the Republican party permanently a large proportion of the southern Democrats who voted for him in order to keep Al Smith out of the White House. It is possible that some of these outstanding "Hoovercrats" will be placed on the advisory committees to which is to be deputed the redemption of the Republican party in the South.

Mr. Hoover's repudiation of Republican leaders in the South is based on the results of the investigation of the Brookhart committee of the Senate into the sale of Federal appointments and other political irregularities in that region. The President has had several conferences recently with Senator Brookhart on this mater.

REPUDIATES TOLBERT

One of the leaders whose replacement Mr. Hoover demanded is Joe Tolbert of South Carolina, senior member of the Republican National Committee in length of service. Tolbert is a white man but his organization comprises mainly negroes. He was for Lowden at Kansas City. Tolbert is under fire in the Senate investigation.

Another Republican national committeeman whose political head Mr. Hoover demands is Perry Howard of Mississippi, a negro. He was acquitted several months ago on charges of selling appointments, but now is on trial under a similar indictment. The national committeewoman of Mississippi, Mrs. Mary C. Booze, also is colored. Howard flirted with Lowden but finally was compelled to sign up for Hoover at Kansas City.

In Georgia the position of national committeeman is vacant as the result of a contest of the election of Ben Davis, a negro. In Georgia, as in Mississippi, the Hoover campaign was taken out of the hands of the negro leadership and committed to white men who are now to be recognized as the de facto Republican leaders in these States. Mrs. George S. Williams, the Georgia national committeewoman, is colored.

HOOVER'S STATEMENT

The President's policy was expressed in this statement at today's press conference:

"It has been the aspiration of Republican Presidents over many years to build up a sound Republican organization in the Southern States of such character as would commend itself to the citizens of those States.

"This aspiration has arisen out of no narrow sense of partisanship but from the conviction shared in equally by the leaders of all parties that the basis of sound government must

WAR SCENE SHIFTING

Rebels Unite in North Mexico

Forces Congregate as New Aerial Raids on Jimenez Cause Several Deaths

Insurgents Also Prepare to Carry Struggle Into Air With American Pilots

By the Associated Press

Action in the Mexican revolution switched sharply yesterday from the west coast to North Central Mexico where the insurgents concentrated heavily as the Federals drove northward.

The town of Jiminez in Chihuahua, on the road to the American border, was bombed heavily by four Federal planes, four insurgents being killed and seventeen wounded.

Gen. Escobar, rebel commander-in-chief, left Juarez for Jimenez to take personal command of the main rebel army there.

Meanwhile the insurgents apparently were preparing for a counter-offensive in the air. One pursuit plane piloted by an American reached Jimenez and others are said to be on the way.

A rebel attack on Naco along the border seems imminent after many days of delay. The insurgents are reported only ten miles from the town which has been heavily intrenched by the loyal troops stationed there.

Squads of United States cavalry and infantry are deployed in the streets of Naco, across the border in Arizona, for police duty in the event of fighting.

Mazatlan, after several days of heavy fighting, still is in Federal possession. The defenders report that the attackers have fled northward, but the insurgents assert that the siege has not been lifted.

In Central Mexico the government forces under Gen. Calles are continuing preparations for a northward drive, to force the insurgents into Sonora where the Federals hope to bottle them up.

"BUZZ" MORRISON GIVEN HIS LIBERTY

NOGALES (Ariz.) March 26. (AP) G. K. "Buzz" Morrison, young American flyer, who for a few days piloted a plane for Mexican Federal forces and was taken prisoner by rebels last Friday when he made a forced landing at La Noria, Son., returned to United States soil today a free man.

Morrison said he had no intimation that he was to be released until noon today when Gen. Fausto Topete, rebel chief, put him on board a special train for Nogales in charge of a rebel officer, escorted him to the border at Nogales, Son., and sent him across the line with

TOPETE'S TYPEWRITER O.K.

Rebel Challenges Federal to Come Out and Fight, But Gonzalez Installs Machine Guns Instead

BY HARRY CARR
"Times" Staff Representative

NACO, March 26. (Exclusive)—Gen. Topete's typewriter has been repaired and is on the job again. This morning he sent in another challenge inviting Gen. Gonzales to bring his troops outside the trenches at Naco and fight.

"Don't be a coward and hide behind the walls," he said.

Gen. Gonzalez did not leap over the trenches as per invitation but installed twelve new Colt machine guns, which arrived by express yesterday.

This morning Gen. Lopez held a long-distance telephone conversation from the Mexican Consulate in the sharp sputtering Zacate Indian dialect. He read a long dispatch from President Portes Gil telling of the collapse of the rebel cause on the west coast. It would seem as though the only person to whom he could possibly be speaking would be the unhappy rebel, Gen. Yucupicio at Agua Prieta. It has been felt here for some time that this Mayo Indian warrior might be moved to slide over to the Federal side.

For three nights the garrison here has been enjoying an attack of hebee-jeebees in almost hourly expectation of an attack. Gen. Olachea wraps himself in a blanket and sleeps, in a machine-gun nest. Gen. Gonzalez has been roused by his orderly at 2 a.m. and spends the rest of the night in the trenches. These are the horrors of war.

Last night the searchlights spotted a dark and mysterious figure just beyond the trench lines. The squad on the machine guns leaped to the challenge and the thing began roaring shots across the trench. This morning it was discovered that a patient burro had gone to his eternal reward. He was in a fricasseed condition.

Travelers from Cananea report a Federal column trundling its way north toward Naco with three tractors and eleven trucks filled with soldiers. Personally, I don't believe he is coming to fight. Topete is probably just out for a ride. I think all the fight has oozed out of this fire-eating hotspur. If I knew his address I would send him an Easter bunny.

TORRID CHARGES NAME GOV. LONG

Nineteen Accusations Filed by Louisiana House

Plot to Murder Legislator Laid to Executive

"Scandalous" Conduct Said to Merit Impeachment

GOV. HUEY P. LONG

BATON ROUGE (La.) March 26. (AP)—Nineteen charges, ranging from a plot to murder a State Representative to malfeasance in office, were filed against Gov. Huey P. Long, 36-year-old executive of Louisiana, in an impeachment resolution read late today in the State House of Representatives.

The resolution was presented after efforts had been made by the Governor's friends to forestall it with a motion to adjourn sine die. The motion was lost by a vote of 38 to 55, after three hours' debate, in which the rule holding an adjournment motion nondebatable was disregarded.

PLOT CHARGED

Gov. Long is charged specifically with attempting "to hire and induce one H. A. Bozeman to kill and murder one J. Y. Sanders, Jr.," a member of the Louisiana House of Representatives.

The charge is based on a sworn affidavit of H. A. (Battling) Bozeman, former personal attendant of Gov. Long and former employee of the Louisiana Highway Commission.

In his affidavit Bozeman swore that about five weeks ago Gov. Long, with the odor of liquor on his breath, called him into his office and said he was planning to call an extra session of the Legislature and that Representative J. Y. Sanders, Jr., would oppose all of his measures.

"I have chosen you to do away with this (epithet,)" Bozeman quoted the Governor as saying. "I mean for you to kill the (epithet,) leave him in the ditch where nobody will know how or when he got there," the affidavit said.

"I'm Governor of this State and if you were to be found out, I would give you a full pardon and many gold dollars," the ex-prize fighter further quoted the Governor as saying.

OTHER CHARGES

The resolution of impeachment contained these additional charges:

That he has used the appointive power in an attempt to influence the judiciary and has boasted publicly that he controls the judiciary.

What while Governor he has bribed or attempted to bribe a member of the State Legislature.

That in violation of the constitution he habitually has required as a condition to appointment to public office, signatures of appointees to undated resignations.

That he has, through himself and through boards controlled by him, wasted, misused, misapplied and misappropriated funds and property of the State.

That in the same way he has contracted illegal loans for the State in violation of the constitution.

That he has "politicalized" the educational institutions of the State, including the public schools, by removing school officials and using his power to intimidate teachers and pupils and for the suppression of free thought.

MILITARY ASPECT

That he has subordinated civil authority to the military and as commander-in-chief, has attempted to impose his own will, through the militia, as superior to the courts without declaring martial law, causing the militia to loot and pillage private property, and to take from the person of certain individuals their private property and destroy private property without due process of law.

That as Governor he has attempted to force official bodies in the parishes to follow his dictation in regard to public litigation.

That he habitually carries concealed weapons on his person, both in his office and on the public streets and highways.

That he repeatedly has been guilty of violent abuse of officials of the State and private citizens visiting him on public business.

"SCANDALOUS" CONDUCT

That he, while Governor, has been guilty of gross misconduct in public places and particularly that on or about February 12, 1929, in New Orleans, he "did participate in an entertainment where intoxicating liquor was served, at which entertainment the said Huey P. Long . . . did deport himself in a scandalous and indecorous manner."

That he publicly has flouted the Constitution of the United States and of the State and has usurped to himself the powers of the Legislature and of the committees and on occasions has commanded the breaking of the quorum of committees with the purpose of preventing the consideration of legislation by these committees.

That he installed ice machines at $20,000 at the Angola penitentiary without competitive bidding.

That he intruded himself and attempted to intimidate Charles P. Manship, publisher of the Baton Rouge newspapers, and threatened to make known the infirmities of a member of Manship's family as a punishment.

MANSION DESTRUCTION

That he demolished and destroyed the Executive Mansion without legal authority.

That without legal authority and making no accounting he destroyed and disposed of the furniture and fixtures of the mansion and in a number of offices in the State House.

That he discharged a convict named Elmer Dunnington in November, 1928, Dunnington being ineligible for parole at the time and the discharge being granted over the objection of the Parole Board.

That he repeatedly has appeared within the bar of the House and the Senate attempting to impose his own views on the members, all of which is in violation of the constitution.

afternoon when the widow, two daughters, and Gen. Weygand were left to weep alone, there was unrolled the apotheosis which France has contrived for her dead commander, who took hold in the dark hours and forged victory out of what some thought sure defeat.

It seemed to fall in three episodes, one at Notre Dame, for Foch the man and Catholic, and a devout one; one for Foch the savior of his country in that astonishing cortege that crawled for hours through the haze like some strange wonderful vision seen in crystal, and the other for Foch, the soldier hero, marshal of the armies of France, England and Poland and commander-in-chief of others at the Invalides where the troops marched briskly, sabers flashing and bands blared unmuffled.

The scarred old facade of Notre Dame was hung with black and silver cloth with a great silver "F" over each of the three historic portals for Foch, the man and the Catholic.

When President Doumergue arived to take his place as chief mourner for the nation with Mme. Foch and the emissaries of foreign powers, Parliament and all notability had taken their places on the uneven flagstones that have seen seven turbulent centuries pass, the clergy brought the simple casket from the chapel where they have prayed beside it since Sunday night when they placed it aloft the black and silver catafalque in the transept.

Since Napoleon's coronation Notre Dame has seen no such splendor.

Foch's own parish priest of St. Clothilde said low mass. Cardinal Dubois, Archbishop of Paris, had given absolution but stepped aside in favor of the aged Cardinal Lucon of Rheims. Everywhere the church was a tri-colored contrast to the victory mass of ten years ago in which Foch was also the central figure. The Prince of Wales sat close to a small but eloquent tablet in memory of the 1,000,000 British dead in France.

A near riot came close to marring the final moments before the Invalides when, after a hurried consultation between Premier Poincare and his ministers, they decided since it was so late, they would halt the seemingly endless defile past the bier. But for two hours only troops had gone by and some 10,000 veterans from all parts of France, many of them grievously wounded and pushing little handcarts, had been waiting their turn. When they saw the caisson begin to move toward the final resting place they let out a howl of rage, and brandishing flags rushed the government entrenchments.

Mounted republican guards halted the torrent before it engulfed the government and foreign dignitaries and the casket itself, but only the announcement that the wounded could file past the bier in the courtyard of the Invalides calmed the insurgents.

Then suddenly it was over. The great gilt gates of the Invalides opened and the casket was carried into the damp crypt of the chapel to await construction of a permanent monument in the niche to the left of the main portal.

AMERICAN ARMY PAYS TRIBUTE TO FOCH

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—Guns boomed at reveille from coast to coast today as the American Army paid its last tribute to its one-time high commander, Marshal Foch of France. Opening the ceremonies at each army post, twenty-one-gun national salutes were fired, followed by single shots on the stroke of each succeeding half-hour through the day.

Flags at army posts and all government buildings were lowered to half-staff for the funeral day. At noon in Washington high requiem mass was arranged at the Church of St. Paul, attended by Secretary Kellogg as representative of President Hoover, Secretary Good and Gen. Summerall, Chief of Staff, and twenty generals of the Army and other high-ranking officers.

The ceremony, under auspices of the French Embassy, drew also from the membership of the Diplomatic Corps and many officials of the American government.

In many parts of the United States memorial services were planned by local groups.

rest upon strong two-party representation and organization; that the voice of all States in the councils of the government can be assured by no other means; that the welfare of the nation at large requires the breaking down of sectionalism in politics; that the public service can be assured only by responsible organization.

"Furthermore, it has been the belief of these leaders, whose views I share, that the building up of such organizations must in every conception of our foundations of local self-government evolve from those States themselves.

NAMES STATES

"Republican leadership in the border States and in Virginia and North Carolina long since has built up vigorous party organization, which assures Republican representation in the Congress from those States.

"In other States, including Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Florida, the Republican leadership has in recent times shown increasing strength, and now is rendering able and conscientious service in maintaining wholesome organization under whose advice the appointments to public office have improved steadily and commended themselves to the citizens of those States with increased confidence in the party. I highly approve and welcome the movement of the leaders of Texas, Alabama, Florida and other States to broaden the basis of party organization by the establishment of advisory committees of the highest type of citizenship to deal with administrative questions and who also will co-operate with Independent Democrats. This movement, springing as it does from within the States themselves, insures its strength, permanence and constant improvement in public service.

"Recent exposure of abuses in recommendations for Federal offices, particularly in some parts of the States of South Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi, under which some of the Federal departments, mainly the postoffice, were misled in appointments, obviously renders it impossible for the old organization in these States to command the confidence of the administration, although many members of these organizations are not subject to criticism.

FLAYS CONDITIONS

"Such conditions are intolerable to public service, are repugnant to the ideals and purposes of the Republican party, are unjust to the people of the South and must be ended. The duty of reorganization so as to correct these conditions rests with the people of those States and all effort to that end will receive the hearty co-operation of the administration. If these three States are unable to initiate such organization through the leadership of men who will command confidence and protect the public service, the different Federal departments will be compelled to adopt other methods to obtain advice as to the selection of Federal employees."

Wales Attends Funeral to Foch Despite Protest of Lord Chamberlain

[Copyright, 1929, by the Chicago Tribune]

LONDON, March 26. (Exclusive) The Prince of Wales's presence today at Marshal Foch's funeral in Paris was the result of something not far short of an old-fashioned riot with stodgy brother officials.

When the Prince of Wales first expressed his intention of attending Marshal Foch's funeral, he was informed by Lord Chamberlain's department that this was impossible as it was unprecedented for the heir to the British throne to attend any foreign funeral but royalty. Moreover they pointed out that the investiture was set for today, whereat the Prince of Wales was to act for the King and that it could not be postponed.

The investiture is a function whereat the sovereign or his representative confers knighthoods, honors, ribbons, etc., on recipients. The Prince of Wales replied that the investiture could be postponed, that he was going anyhow, but the officials went ahead and issued to the press an announcement that Prince George would represent the King at Marshal Foch's funeral. This aroused the Prince's fighting blood. He called up the railroad personally and arranged for accommodations for the trip and notified the officials that they might hold the investiture if they liked, but that he would not be there.

The same evening a notice was issued that the Prince of Wales would represent the King at Marshal Foch's funeral instead of his brother, Prince George, and that the investiture had been postponed.

Flynn's Ouster Laid to Politics

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (AP)—Answering charges of the local board of supervisors that he was "inefficient, insubordinate and derelict in his duty," Frank Flynn, ousted superintendent of Mills Field, the municipal airport here, declared today that "politics and false economies are endangering the success of the port."

He declared the airport should be placed under jurisdiction of an airport commission, removed from politics, and all employees, including the superintendents, placed under civil service.

changes in schedules or the inauguration of double-daily service over each of the lateral routes connecting with the transcontinental line west of Chicago. Similar changes in the East perhaps will result later.

Under the schedule on present transcontinental service, mail arrives at both terminals on the west coast and at New York too late in the evening for delivery and is held over until the following morning unless designated for special delivery. The awkwardness of the schedule is ascribed not to inexperience or intent, but to geographical and weather conditions.

Mail from the East on the present schedule must leave the New York postoffice as early as 11 a.m. or 12:15 p.m. out of Hadley Field, too early for the bulk of the day's business mail. Letters mailed Monday morning arrive in San Francisco or Los Angeles Tuesday evening, too late for delivery until Wednesday morning. The same situation is true of mail originating on the west coast. It arrives in New York after the close of the business day and is delivered the following morning.

NIGHT TRANSCONTINENTAL

The "night transcontinental," the designation of the new service, will operate on a schedule permitting the day's accumulation of mail to be picked up on either coast and delivered on the other the second morning. Mail deposited as late as 7 p.m. Monday in New York will be scheduled to arrive in Los Angeles or San Francisco at 4:30 or 5 a.m. Wednesday, in time for the first delivery. The same situation will apply to the eastbound mail.

The present or "day transcontinental" will not be abandoned as the result of the new service. It performs a valuable function between intermediate points. For instance, westbound mail from Cleveland and Chicago reaches Reno, Nev., in time for delivery the day after mailing. Similarly eastbound mail leaving Salt Lake City at 3 p.m. reaches Cleveland at 12 o'clock noon the following day.

DAY TRANSCONTINENTAL

The day transcontinental also will serve to take care of late operations from connecting lines and also will support the night transcontinental in the event of serious delays during abnormal weather conditions.

Mail from San Francisco and Los Angeles, leaving one night will be delivered the following day in cities as far east as Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and over a connecting route, in Kansas City. It will arrive in Chicago by 6 p.m. or in St. Louis by 4:30 p.m. for special delivery that evening.

REBELS ADVANCE IN CULIACAN REGION

CULIACAN (Sin.) March 26. (AP) The Sonora third army advanced today to meet a force of Federals coming through Durango to Culiacan, Gen. Almada, commander in charge of the rebel base here, announced.

Rebel leaders admitted that troops under Gens. Manso and Iturbe have abandoned their offensive against Mazatlan, in accordance with a plan of campaign outlined by Gen. J. Gonzalo Escobar, rebel commander-in-chief, but asserted that the Federal forces occupying that city are bottled up and that a large body of rebel troops has detoured around Mazatlan and continued on toward Tepic, to the south.

Gen. Acosta, who cleared up the rebel elements in Vera Cruz, left this State with his forces for Mexico City to join the campaign in the west.

Report Shows Many Cases of Meningitis

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—Public health officials said today that cerebro spinal meningitis is prevalent throughout the country, the last reports from State health officers showing 329 cases during the week ending the 16th inst. The average weekly prevalence last year was about 120 cases, and for the year before, thirty to forty cases.

Reassuring against public alarm, however, officials distinguished between the prevalence shown by reports and an epidemic. They say the disease, which highly is fatal and seems to attack young men particularly, appeared to be widespread throughout the world, with large numbers of cases in China, Japan and the Philippine Islands.

NEW CITY CHARTER ADOPTED BY TUCSON

TUCSON (Ariz.) March 26. (AP)—By a vote of 1113 to 703, voters of Tucson today decided on the adoption of a new city charter, supplanting the present one which has been in operation for forty-seven years. The new charter provides for a City Manager form of government with a Council of six members.

"I don't suppose you have The New Yorker?" . . .

A stylish lady entered. She had searched over the city for a copy of the weekly magazine.

She was surprised at the book department in Walker's Department Store, offering the very latest fictional creations, the last plays to be published.

"I have looked all over the city for a copy of The New Yorker . . . it is sold out . . . possibly you have a copy!

And two surprises awaited her.

The magazine girl supplied her with The New Yorker (really, it was her own copy—the stand's supply was sold out).

More—the book department had a copy of a play, an advance copy. The lady, an actress selected for a part in the Los Angeles production of the play—tomorrow she would receive her part but she so wanted to read the entire play in advance.

And when the actress picked her wardrobe for the play, later, she came to Walker's Department Store for her yardage and millinery. She saved many dollars on an investment of several hundreds—and her press notices particularly mentioned her beautiful clothes.

AURORA (Ill.) March 26. (AP)—The 12-year-old boy who wielded a gun last night in defending his prostrate father and slain mother against county dry raiders came to their defense again today before a Coroner's jury.

The testimony of Gerald De King challenged the story of Deputy Sheriff Smith that he shot the boy's mother as she leveled a gun at him. He told the jury, impaneled late today, that Smith shot his mother down as she stooped over the fallen body of her husband, Joseph De King, who had been felled by a blow on the back of the head as he stood, two guns gripped, ready to repel the invasion of his home by the raiders.

SMITH'S STORY DIFFERS

State's Attorney Carbary said tonight he heard Smith's version of the shooting from the hospital bed in St. Charles, where Smith lies, his leg broken by a bullet fired by the boy. Carbary's drive to suppress the liquor, vice and gambling traffic in Kane county has brought in $52,000 in fines in the last sixteen weeks.

Smith told him, Carbary said, that Mrs. Lillian De King stooped to pick up her husband's gun, ordered the deputy out of the house and leveled the gun. He fired, aiming at the gun she held. The bullet entered the woman's abdomen. Both Gerald and Peter De King, his uncle, told the Coroner's jury that Mrs. Smith did not lift the gun.

JURY ADJOURNED

Coroner German J. Vierke of Elgin adjourned the jury indefinitely to await the recovery of Smith.

Carbary anticipates a verdict of "killed while resisting an officer."

"I greatly deplore the tragedy, but I believe the officer was acting in the line of duty," he said today. "I am satisfied if Smith had not fired several of the deputy sheriffs would have been killed.

"Yes, there will be a grand jury investigation and Smith will be prosecuted if the facts warrant it.

"The law in Kane county will be enforced and those who resist officers must pay the consequences."

MEN DRIVEN AWAY

The State's Attorney said the officers had gone to the De King home after liquor previously had been purchased there, with a warrant legally issued. De King had abused the men, he explained, and driven them away with a gun.

The deputies returned with reenforcements and forced their way into the De King house. De King, holding two guns at his side, was struck from behind. According to the State's attorney, the woman leaped to pick up a revolver as he fell and Smith, who had retreated to the door, fired at her.

De King is a laborer and rents the filling station in front of his home to George Stafford who some time ago was convicted of violation of the dry law and fined.

De King insisted there was no search warrant involved and that he defied the officers for that reason.

"INVASION REPELLED"

"I repelled the invasion of my home without authority and when doing so was cracked over the head with the butt of a gun," he said today.

"My wife was telephoning to the lawyer when this happened and she yelled. 'You can't do that to my husband,' and started unarmed toward the invaders when she was shot."

Assistant State's Attorney Shults who ordered the raid had his own theory after careful investigation today, he said. He declared the woman was shot accidentally by Smith as he fell to the floor with a bullet in his leg from the gun held by the 12-year-old boy.

Examination of the body, Shults explained, showed the shots entered on an upward angle.

"Our investigation shows that the men had their search warrant with them but that De King chased them away and threatened to kill them if they came back," he said.

DREAMS TURN TO NIGHTMARE

these might be 10 points off by the time a sale was put through.

The crowd which jammed the stock exchange gallery was a swarming hive which looked panicky only to the neophyte. Men rushed about apparently mad, but this was merely the normal course of business keyed up to an unprecedented pitch.

The exchange's newest toy, a yellow light which flashes the call money rate, blinked and changed from 15 to 17 per cent. Suddenly from the rushing traders burst a howl, a groan, a roar! Busy, tense men, blowing off steam, and back on the job in an instant.

Over on a bench at one edge of the floor, Jake opened his eyes and looked around to see what the shouting was for. Jake, who sells carnations on ordinary days, was taking a nap.

The light flashed up to 20 per cent. Another shout. The light went out. Human nerves might stand this pace, but the call money light's fuse had blown out.

EVERYTHING CHANGES

After 1:30 o'clock, when prices turned upward, a change came over the street. The morning's strong, silent men chuckled and cracked jokes. Those who had had crape hung on them slipped outside, to get away from it all. A great many sighed with relief; they had been saved by their brokers' past insistence on generous margins.

As the market closed, the customers' rooms beamed with the contented faces of those who had taken their cash out of the market and now had put it back at bargain rates.

In the office of a conservative broker an expansive customer with a fat cigar was telling the world how he had known all the time that the street couldn't buck the Federal Reserve Board. The broker, who had just been shaking hands with two happy traders, glanced at the man with the cigar and remarked:

"Yes, I told them to take their profits a month ago. He took his profit and the market kept going up. He likes it now, but you should have heard him picking on me last week. You should have heard them all picking on me."

Jones Law Case to Be Appealed

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (AP) Appeal to the United States Circuit Court in the case of five men convicted under the Jones prohibition law in Sacramento is being prepared by Harold Faulkner, attorney representing three of the defendants.

The appeal, Faulkner said, will test the validity of the Jones law. The attorney is representing Joe Ferris, Frank Finney and Fred Marino, who with James Sanchez and Frank Wilson were sentenced to fifteen months each in the Federal penitentiary and fined $3000. Faulkner's clients are at liberty on $5000 bail each pending the appeal.

DOHENY MEETS ALBERT B. FALL

Oil Man and Grandchildren to Attend Rodeo

Talks With ex-Secretary of Prospecting Days

Families of Old Friends Gather at Phoenix

PHOENIX, March 26. (AP)—Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, said today that he and E. L. Doheny had discussed "horses, books, dude cowboys and Mr. Doheny's experiences as a prospector in Arizona fifty years ago and nothing more," in a meeting here.

The meeting yesterday described as an informal visit, was the first between the two principals in the Teapot Dome oil scandal in more than six months.

Doheny, who was taking his five grandchildren, children of his son E. L. Doheny, Jr., who was murdered in Los Angeles recently, to a rodeo, invited Fall to accompany them, the former Cabinet officer said.

Fall, with his wife and daughter, Mrs. C. C. Chase of El Paso, came here yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Doheny, their son's widow and their five grandchildren arrived here Saturday.

"We are old friends," Fall said. "When Mrs. Fall attended the funeral of Doheny, Jr., in Los Angeles, Mrs. Doheny told her that she would try to get Mr. Doheny away from the scene of that tragic murder, but we did not know they had come to Phoenix."

Due to a misunderstanding at the time, Fall did not accompany Doheny to the rodeo, but was awaiting the multimillionaire oil magnate at his hotel suite when he returned.

SENATE PASSES NARCOTICS LAW

New "Pure Milk" Measure Also Approved

Marriages Under Legal Age Bill Wins

Girl-and-Boy Nuptials Get Legislature's O.K.

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—Legislation legalizing the marriage of children under legal age, giving the State power to regulate the traffic in narcotics, and a new "pure milk law," was passed by the Legislature today before both houses adjourned to attend the opening game of the Coast League season.

The Assembly enacted Assemblyman Crittenden's measure providing that boys under 18 years of age and girls less than 16 years may marry on the consent of a Superior Court. Considerable discussion and interest in the measure was aroused before the lower house finally voted it passed.

Senator Young's act to regulate the sale, possession, distribution and use of habit-forming narcotics passed the upper house without being contested. The bill makes far more severe the laws on narcotic violations and has received widespread interest and approval. Senator Crowley's measure to restrict the sale of so-called "economic poisons," namely insect and rodent poisons, also was passed by the upper house.

The new "pure milk law," also by Crowley, stiffens the grades of market milk and cream and provides more strict regulation of dairies and the handling of milk. It was sent to the Assembly by a unanimous vote of the Senate.

Pact of Inman and Wife Told

RENO, March 26. (AP)—Emanuel B. Cohen, New York attorney, resumed the witness stand today in the divorce trial here of Walker P. Inman, son of Mrs. James B. The agreement provides for a cash payment of $15,000 and $15,000 a year for five years and also gives Mrs. Inman two automobiles and furniture said to be valued at more than $20,000. Cohen said his fee was $10,000, which was paid by Inman.

Senate Votes Ban on Venders

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—The upper house of the Legislature today voted to exclude vending stands and peddling wagons from State highways.

Senator Boggs of Stockton urged passage of the measure that prohibits selling any kind of wares or produce from temporary stands or wagons parked on highway rights of ways. Boggs declared the measure to be beneficial to farmers who vend their wares at roadside stands situated on private property by excluding "itinerant and unreliable" venders.

TAXATION EXPLAINED

Applies Only to State Revenues

Not Touch Municipal Levies, Says Nelson

to Clear Road for Complete Revision

MENTO, March 26. (Exclusive)—The constitutional amendment introduced yesterday by Senator of Eureka and Senator of San Bernardino, designed the road for the revision of the taxation system, does not taxation and in particular apply to the low rate recently adopted, according to the statement of Senator today.

amendment applies specifically and solely to State revenue taxes," said Senator Nelson. "It does not touch local taxation and the intangible tax is a proposition, the revenue going cities and taxing districts.

amendment's purpose is to the Constitution of the patchwork of State taxation which built up over the last years and prepares the way for the adoption of a new tax structure on the basis of the recommendations of the Legislative taxation investigating committee recently erected.

Pedrotti Bill Favored by Aviation Groups

Measure Would Use Federal Inspection Plan

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (Exclusive)—Another Young administration move to daminate the smooth progress of aviation development in California appeared today when Assemblyman Nielson of Sacramento proposed that a legislative committee of three members from each house be created to conduct a comprehensive study of aviation during the next two years.

Mr. Nielson is the author of a measure designed to place control of aviation under the State government, with regulations, rules and license fees for airplanes and pilots. So much opposition was manifested toward this bill by pilots, aviation companies and manufacturers, as well as municipalities, that Mr. Nielson was forced to let it die.

In place of the Nielson bill a bill by Senator Pedrotti of Los Angeles is being pushed. This bill provides that the regulations, rules, fee system and inspection system of the Federal Department of Commerce be supreme in California. The bill has the support of the aviation interests of the State. It came up for passage today in the Senate, but at the request of Senator Slater of Santa Rosa was laid over for one day.

Mr. Nielson stated today that it is his opinion that it is unwise at this time to go ahead with an elaborate program of legislation on aviation because of what he terms the unsettled condition of aviation and the diverse ideas on the subject.

ATHEARN'S PLUM NOT TOO SWEET

Bay City Attorney Rumored Temporary Appointee

Friedlander's Shoes Held to Lose Desirability

Young's Department Merger Scheme Punctured

BY C. A. JONES

"Times" Staff Representative

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (Exclusive) — The temporary appointment of a Corporation Commissioner will go to Fred G. Athearn, San Francisco attorney and personal friend of Gov. Young, who will succeed J. M. Friedlander of Los Angeles on April 1, according to reports around the Capitol today.

It is expected that Mr. Athearn will hold the office until September 1, during which a drastic reorganization, designed to remove the divisional heads in Los Angeles and San Francisco, will be in effect.

At the end of the five months' period it is exected that Gov. Young will make a permanent appointment, the plum going to a Los Angeles man on this occasion. Keith Carlin, executive secretary to Gov. Young, has been prominently mentioned for the permanent appointment, but other matters enter into the situation.

BATTLE UNDER COVER

It is generally believed about Sacramento that Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan and Director of Finance Heron are engaged in a silent, but none the less energetic, battle for control of the executive ear, and the corporation commissionership seems to have been chosen as the particular trench sector where blood will flow.

For some months Athearn has been occupied with a study of the Corporation Department and has made many recommendations to Gov. Young. He appeared before the legislative committee headed by Assemblyman Keaton of Long Beach, which held several sessions before the legislative recess for the purpose of investigating the Corporate Securities Act and the department.

The Governor also is expected to announce the appointment of E. Forrest Mitchell as Insurance Commissioner, and if he does so it will add to the liveliness of the legislative session.

RESIGNATION HANDED HIM

The resignation of Charles E. Dietrick, who was appointed by former Gov. Richardson, is now in the Governor's hands. Mr. Dietrick has been informed that he is going out "because he backed the wrong horse" in the gubernatorial contest of 1926.

Mr. Mitchell now is secretary of the State Highway Commission. Some years ago he was Federal prohibition director for California. He managed Young's campaign two years ago in Northern California.

Athearn is at present attorney for the Western Pacific Railroad and resides in Berkeley. Commissioner Friedlander submitted his resignation that he might go into the private practice of law.

SCHEME GOES 'BOOM'

The appointment of the two commissioners is not the vitally important matter it was several weeks ago before the Legislature made it plain to Gov. Young that it will not adopt his reorganization scheme of combining the Banking Department and the Real Estate Department, the Insurance Department, the Building and Loan Department and the Corporation Department into one organization, to be dominated by a director to be chosen to head this division of the State government.

The immediate reaction which followed the introduction of this reorganization bill warned the administration that something was wrong. The administration, hating to admit defeat, offered another bill with all the teeth drawn out, but even this empty gesture will not be accorded passage, according to reports.

The business interests of the State feared that State Banking Superintendent Wood might be appointed supervising director of all the divisions, and, it is hinted, Young was afraid he could do nothing else but that, so was seeking "an outstanding" man whose luster would dim that of Mr. Wood.

Bill Affects Apple Growers

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—Apple growers of California are affected by a measure introduced by Hubert B. Scudder of Sebastopol and passed by the Assembly today. The bill repeals the California Standard Apple Act and adds a new section to the 1927 Fruit, Nut and Vegetable Standardization Act to place the apple industry on the same basis as other fruit industries of the State.

The bill prescribes grades and methods of packing and transfers enforcement from the Horticultural Commissioner to the State Director of Agriculture. All moneys held in the Standard Apple Fund would be credited to the fruit and vegetable certification fund.

SENATE CONFIRMS THREE APPOINTEES

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—The upper House of the Legislature today affirmed the appointment of three men to State commissionerships by Gov. Young at Young's request. Confirmation was given by the upper House, acting upon a message from Gov. Young, to the appointment of Henry Eickhoff and C. E. McLaughlin to the Board of State Prison Directors and to that of Capt. Gerrard T. January as a member of the Board of Pilot Commissioners. All of the appointments have been made by Young since the last Legislature.

HARDY INQUIRY SEEKS "MISS X"

McPherson Case Mystery Woman Missing

Keyes Tells Woolwine His View of Charges

Assembly Quiz Members to Meet Mrs. Kennedy

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—The whereabouts of Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Seilaff has the Assembly board of managers prosecuting the impeachment case of Superior Judge Hardy on a still hunt. Mrs. Seilaff is one of twenty-eight persons for whom the prosecution has issued subpoenas. She was once named as the "Miss X" who accompanied Kenneth Ormiston, radio operator, to Carmel during the disappearance of Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, two years ago.

Mrs. Sielaff is believed to be traveling with a sand-lot show somewhere on the west coast. Her young daughter has been left in the care of Mrs. Verla Kimball of Oakland, who asserts she does not know where Mrs. Sielaff, her sister, is. The managers are hunting for her.

KEYES GIVES HIS VERSION OF HARDY'S CONNECTIONS

The "complete story" of Superior Judge Hardy's connection with the Aimee Semple McPherson case, as the District Attorney's office understood it, was told yesterday afternoon to State Assemblyman Clare Woolwine by former Dist.-Atty. Keyes and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Dennison at a conference held in the District Attorney's office.

Woolwine appeared at the conference as a representative of the Legislature's board of managers preparing the impeachment proceedings against Judge Hardy, scheduled to be heard before the State Senate on April 8. Keyes and Dennison are among twenty-three local witnesses subpoenaed to appear in Sacramento on April 8. They conducted the hearing of charges against Mrs. McPherson in Municipal Court in 1926, and took statements from Judge Hardy and others at that time.

CHECKS ON LETTERS

"Keyes and Dennison told me the complete story of the McPherson case and Judge Hardy's connection with it, as they understood the situation," said Assemblyman Woolwine, after talking to the two men for more than an hour. "I paid particular attention to details of letters written by Judge Hardy to Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff and others connected with the case. I also was informed that Judge Hardy was given Mrs. McPherson's will for probate after she was supposedly drowned at Ocean Park, but that he was unable to take action because no one would sign the death certificate."

The charges against Judge Hardy center about the assertion that he accepted money for legal services from Angelus Temple while sitting on the bench. Judge Hardy claims that a check for $2500 from that source was only a "love offering."

Assemblyman Woolwine left Los Angeles last night for Sacramento, where he will be joined by Assemblymen Little and Hornblower, the party being scheduled to leave for Seattle Thursday night. When they arrive in Seattle Saturday they will take a deposition from Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Mrs. McPherson, regarding Mrs. Kennedy's knowledge of financial deals between Judge Hardy and Mrs. McPherson. The deposition will be presented as evidence at the impeachment proceedings.

FIND NEW EVIDENCE

A statement in affidavit form was taken from Mrs. Kennedy some time ago, but is not in correct legal form to be presented to the Senate. In addition, it was learned from Woolwine, since the affidavit was taken new evidence has been uncovered that will necessitate asking the evangelist's mother questions that were not propounded during the taking of the first statement. Some of this new information, it is learned, has been unearthed by two investigators in the employ of the Senate, who have been active at Carmel, where Kenneth G. Ormiston and the so-called Miss X occupied a bungalow shortly after the disappearance of Mrs. McPherson in 1926.

Wife Says Husband Failed to Come Home After Phoning to See About Dinner

Edward S. Luker, Jr., would call his wife, Ruth M. Luker, up on the telephone to ask if dinner was ready, and if it wasn't he would fly into a rage and if it was he failed to come home to eat it, the wife testified yesterday before Superior Judge Bishop when asking for a divorce.

Represented by Attorney Howard T. James, Mrs. Luker declared that time and again she had her husband's dinner prepared and ready for him, that he would call up and then fail to go home.

A decree was granted.

New Plan of Officials to Obviate Recommendation of School Principals

BERKELEY, March 26. (AP)—Graduates of accredited secondary schools in California will be admitted to the University of California on records alone, without recommendation by principals, under terms of a new plan drawn up by university officials.

Charles Chambers, 23, a brother of the entombed miner, was brought out alive yesterday just as another fall of rock almost trapped the rescue crew.

EQUAL RIGHTS BATTLE NEARS

Woman's Party Planning to Force Amendment

Action Will Be Demanded at Special Session

Only One of Fair Sex in Congress Gives Aid

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—A fight for an equal rights amendment to the Constitution to do away with all legislation discriminating for or against women will be made during the special session of Congress by members of the National Woman's party.

Recalling that the woman's suffrage amendment was passed during an extraordinary session of Congress called by President Wilson for consideration of the peace treaty and the League of Nations convention, Mabel Vernon, executive secretary of the party, observes:

"Of course, this session is primarily for farm relief and tariff, but we feel that there will be plenty of time for consideration of this amendment that is of such importance to so many women."

WOMEN AT WORK

Branches of the Woman's party in every State are working through their local organizations, she says, and are approaching their Senators and Representatives in an effort to gain support for the proposition.

Vice-President Curtis was a staunch friend of the amendment when he was a member of the Senate, introduced the resolution there and obtained a hearing for it by the Judiciary Committee. Now that he is Vice-President, the supporters of the amendment have been forced to look for another Senator who will act as sponsor of the proposal during the coming session.

Representative Magrady, Republican, Pennsylvania, who introduced the resolution in the House at the last session, has promised to introduce a similar one in the Seventy-first Congress.

Only one of the eight women members of Congress, Mrs. Katherine Langley of Kentucky, has definitely pledged her support and vote to the amendment, though none of the others has declared against it.

TWO HAVE OBJECTIONS

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, newly elected Representative from Florida, and Mrs. Ruth Pratt, new member from New York, have both said that they are in favor of equal rights, but they both have objections to proposed changes in the industrial protection now given women workers.

Mrs. Florence Kahn, Representative from California; Mrs. Edith N. Rogers, Massachusetts; Mrs. Pearl Oldfield, Arkansas, and Mrs. Mary T. Norton, New Jersey, have all indicated they are friendly to the proposition, but are noncommittal on the matter of supporting the amendment.

The amendment will automatically repeal all State laws giving protection to women factory workers, such as shorter working hours and freedom from night work. The Woman's party believes that if there is to be protection, it should be effective for men and women alike, Miss Vernon explains, and that women should not be prevented from getting good jobs by a law which prohibits their working the same hours that men do.

The National League of Women Voters is opposed to the measure, maintaining that women in industry want the protection afforded them by the State laws.

SOFT PAVEMENT SAVES JORDAN

Veteran Secretary of State Lands on Head But Has Nothing But Bruises

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—Frank C. Jordan, veteran Secretary of State, today is thanking his lucky stars for the resilience of California's asphalt highways.

Struck by an automobile while walking across the highway at King's City, Jordan was thrown to the road, his head receiving virtually all of the shock of landing.

Though considerably bruised, Jordan said today that he thought his injuries trivial. He planned, however, to submit to X-ray examination to ascertain the exact extent of his hurts.

Phillips Acts on Last Bills of Legislature

PHOENIX, March 26. (AP)—Gov. Phillips today had cleared his desk of the measures enacted by the Ninth Legislature and sent to him for executive action.

The last bills acted upon by the Governor were Senate Bill 122, proposing amendments to the workmen's compensation law, which he vetoed, and House Bill 114, providing penalties for poisoning domestic animals, which he approved. In vetoing the compensation law changes, Phillips said he believes the proposed amendments would weaken, rather than strengthen, the law.

REALLOCATION HUNG ON CENSUS

Friends of Measure Resort to Indirect Means

Congress Must Pass Bill or Forego Pie Chance

Farm Relief Pilots Enlist to Help Justice

WASHINGTON, March 26. (Exclusive)—Plans for the fight to obtain Senate passage of a House reapportionment measure at the coming special session were mapped out today by Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, Secretary of Commerce Lamont, Dr. William M. Stewart, Director of the Census, and the latter's technical adviser, Dr. Joseph A. Hill, at a lengthy conference at the Commerce Department.

Following the conference it was learned that Senator Jones of Washington, chairman of the Commerce Committee, had agreed to call his committee together April 10, next, so that reapportionment and census legislation may be ready for introduction immediately upon convening of Congress five days later.

TO LUMP BILLS

It is also learned that the plan is to lump the bill reallocating House memberships and the bill providing for the 1930 census into one measure. If this can be done it is believed it will materially strengthen the chances of reapportionment, as Senators fighting this legislation are eager for the patronage "pie cutting" that will come in connection with a properly arranged and well-financed census enumeration.

If the census bill with its $40,000,000 appropriation fails, the 1930 census will be taken anyway under the 1920 act, but jobs might not be so plentiful nor the pay so liberal.

PATH SMOOTHED

Senator McNary of Oregon, chairman of the Senate Agricultural Committee, will try to smooth the path for the reapportionment census measure by bringing out a farm relief bill which will pass the Senate with a minimum of delay.

He believes it will be possible to draft a bill of such all-around support that the Senate can vote on it within a week's time, thus getting the constitutional legislation before the upper branch early in the session and raising the time handicap against a possible filibuster.

Prof. Dr. LASZLO BERCZELLER of Vienna
International authority on nutrition, says:

"Yeast is ne of the few foods which definitely improve health"

"Only a very little of man's food, and ly particular kinds, act specifically to improve health and well-being. Yeast is e of these special foods and as such is in me respects of even greater importance than milk . . . Science has proved experimentally the life-preserving and curative properties of yeast."

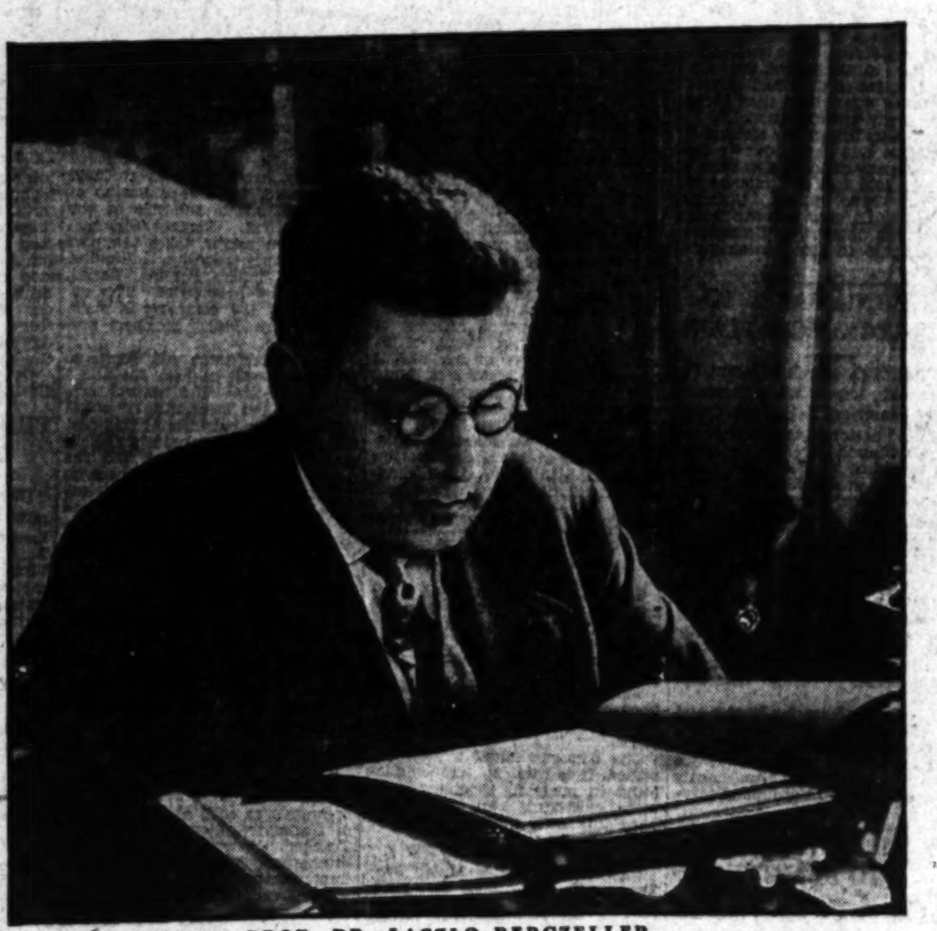
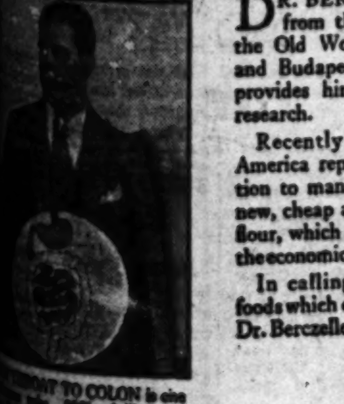
Dr. László Berczeller



PROF. DR. LASZLO BERCZELLER



DR. BERCZELLER holds degrees from three great universities in the Old World—Munich, Strassburg and Budapest. His own government provides him with a laboratory for research.

Recently newspapers throughout America reported his latest contribution to mankind—the perfecting of a new, cheap and highly nutritious bean flour, which is expected to help relieve the economic distress of Central Europe.

In calling yeast "one of the few foods which definitely improve health," Dr. Berczeller adds the weight of his distinguished scientific opinion to the almost universal advocacy of yeast for health.

Poor digestion, that tired feeling, nervousness, colds, complexion ills—all are symptoms of a system weakened by constipation, doctors say. To keep the intestines always clean, active and healthy, half the doctors reporting in a recent survey in America said they prescribed the fresh food—yeast.

Fleischmann's Yeast is fresh yeast. Unlike dried or killed yeast, it contains millions of active, living yeast plants. As these pass through your intestines daily, they combat harmful poisons and purify the whole system. Soon—glorious release from constipation. Improved digestion. A clearer, fresher complexion.

Eat 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily, one before each meal or between meals; plain or dissolved in water either cold or hot—not hotter than you can drink. To benefit fully you must eat it regularly and over a sufficient period. At all grocers and many leading cafeterias, lunch counters and soda fountains. Buy 2 or 3 days' supply at a time, and keep in any cool, dry place.

CANAL SURVEY PLAN APPROVED

Imperial Irrigation Board Accepts Mead's Offer

Two Valleys to Split Cost on Four-to-One Basis

Hydroelectric Development Believed Dead Issue

EL CENTRO, March 26.—Providing for a total expenditure of $100,000 on a preliminary survey for the proposed all-American canal a contract which is to be submitted to Dr. Elwood Mead for the approval of the United States Reclamation Department, was accepted by directors of the Imperial Irrigation District this afternoon.

The agreement, as approved by the district, provides that the cost shall be paid half by Imperial and Coachella Valleys and half by the Federal government. The portion to be assumed by water users in the district affected will be prorated between Imperial and Coachella Valleys on a basis of four to one, the latter paying $10,000 and the Imperial district $40,000.

FINAL DRAFT READY

It is stipulated that the survey shall be commenced immediately and conducted by reclamation engineers. According to the statement of members of the board, Dr. Mead already has tentatively agreed to the proposition and the final draft as prepared by Attorney Charles L. Childers will go forward to him for approval at once.

During the discussion preceding the adoption of the contract today it was indicated that Federal engineers, under the present agreement, will investigate the possibility of installing Imperial Valley's permanent intake at a new site several miles above Laguna Dam. If feasible, it was stated, this heading will raise the level of the proposed canal at least twenty feet and will save enough in excavation costs to pay for the installation of the intake at this point.

PETITION DEMANDED

Directors of the district today passed a resolution which is expected to definitely sidetrack the $3,100,000 bond issue for development of hydro electric power in the local canal system. This project was sponsored by engineer M. J. Dowd of the Imperial district and the bond election was approved by the State Bond Certification Commission. Today's resolution provided that the election will be called only in the event that a properly signed petition is presented to the board asking for a vote on the question. Members of the board admitted that there is the little likelihood of such a petition being presented, in view of the strong opposition which has developed against the proposal.

Director Ira Aten introduced a solution seeking the dismissal of F. W. Greer, $750 a month publicity agent who is now on the district pay roll. C. W. Brockman supported the motion but it was defeated by the votes of the other three members of the board.

TAX SALES STOPPED

As the result of a motion passed over the opposition of Aten and Mark Rose, the sale of delinquent tax certificates was stopped for a period of six months. This action temporarily settles a question that has caused bitter controversy on the board for the past three months.

Under the former policy the board disposed of tax liens to the highest bidder. Much criticism was directed at this policy in January when property valued at more than $100,000, belonging to the Bank of Italy and Marvin Allen was sold for overdue taxes amounting a few hundred dollars.

According to the owners the delinquencies were due to oversight and no notice has been given of the pending sale. In accordance with the action taken today further sales will be barred until the attorneys for the district have an opportunity to work out a permanent policy in the handling of tax liens.

CHAMBER SECRETARY QUITS AT FULLERTON

FULLERTON, March 26.—Resignation of Ray B. Leach as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce here was received unexpectedly and accepted by the directors of the chamber today. Leach has served as secretary of the local chamber for the last four years, coming to Fullerton from Santa Monica. The resignation is to take effect immediately. Leach has given no indication of his future plans. A committee of directors is to be appointed by President Robert Strain to select a successor to Leach.

MUNICIPAL GOLF LINKS PAY PROFIT

Pasadena Course, Recent Topic of Discussion, is Proven Money Maker

PASADENA, March 26.—The action of the Board of City Directors in financing the construction of the municipal golf course out of light department funds in the face of recall threats uttered by a minority group was justified today when City Manager R. V. Orbison reported that the Arroyo Seco links is showing a handsome monthly profit.

Since it was opened on November 1 of last year 18,555 players have used the eighteen-hole course.

The monthly profits have been: November, $729; December, $845; January, $899, and February, $2239.

The players over the course by months were: November, 3909; December, 4069; January, 4813, and February, 5734.

Mr. Orbison predicts that at the rate the profits are increasing the $125,000 "borrowed" from the light department surplus will be repaid with interest within a few years.

The clubhouse is under construction, and is scheduled to be opened in June. The building will contain showers and locker space. It will be of Spanish architecture and, according to Orbison, will rival the clubhouses of the finest country clubs in Southern California.

RAISE FUND TO ADVERTISE CITY

INGLEWOOD, March 26.—Inglewood Chamber of Commerce today began the raising of a $6000 service fund, under the auspices of a committee headed by A. E. Chamberlain, president. This fund, it is emphasized, is to be used solely for advertising purposes and not for any other. In other words, every cent is to be devoted to putting the advantages of Inglewood before the general public throughout the country through the medium of the metropolitan press and by booklets and other literature.

The Southern California Edison Company, of which Carl N. Elgan, chairman of the publicity committee, is district manager here, leads the list of subscribers to the fund.

In addition to the chairman, the committee that will carry on the work throughout the week includes the following: W. G. Brown, George L. Veatch, Sam M. Greene, John L. Steinbarger, Sanford M. Anderson, all bankers; George C. Malloy, Carl Matson, Frank A. Zillgitt, Attorney Ernest M. Mansur, George M. Sutton, Attorney Vernon P. Spencer, Louis B. Mardin, Jr., Dr. Elmer L. Charland, Charles Kirsch, Emerson W. Dawson, I. M. Jonathan, Lyman O. Calkins, Beecher Dixon, Harvey D. Moseley, Walter G. Stoner and E. D. Cutler.

Cook, 77 years of age, of 341 West Palm avenue, Orange, a pedestrian who was crossing a street when the crash occurred, received injuries that caused his death early today.

Cook, a resident of Orange for seventeen years, died at his home at 6:30 a.m. today. The accident took place at 3:30 p.m. yesterday at the intersection of Orange street and Chapman avenue, a block east of the Orange Plaza.

The two men are jointly charged with the murder of James Brady, asserted Los Angeles racketeer on the 2nd inst.

GREATEST AUTO MARKET

Southern California Provides More Buyers for Motor Cars Than Any Other Section, Says Expert

PASADENA, March 26.—Southern California is the greatest market for automobiles, the year around, in the world, and the market for certain kinds of building materials and household specialties is also unusually good in this section, according to Ernest Elmo Calkins, president of Calkins & Holden Advertising Agency of New York, who, accompanied by Mrs. Calkins, is a guest at the Hotel Vista del Arroyo.

Mr. Calkins has been an active figure in the advertising profession for more than thirty years. He was awarded the Edward Bok Gold Medal for distinguished service in advertising in 1925, and is the author of five authoritative books or advertising. He holds the honorary degree Litt.D., bestowed by Knox College, his alma mater.

In a recent magazine article, Mr. Calkins declared that "honest advertising received a black eye" from such publicity exploits as the signed testimonials of the 'heroes of the hour.'"

As the result of his criticisms, the United States Shipping Board and the United States Army issued orders forbidding officers from selling testimonials to commercial firms.

"Due to Southern California's increasing growth and climate, this part of the world is the automobile manufacturer's heaven and it is also destined to become the greatest market for building materials and various types of house furnishings," he said.

Since arriving here, the advertising executive has been notified that his firm has been awarded two of the nineteen prizes awarded for advertising in 1928 by Harvard University. Mr. Calkins's associate, Rene Clark, art director for Calkins & Holden, was awarded the gold medal for distinguished service because of his efforts to raise standards through example and instruction of advertising students.

Warns Against All Promoters

SAN DIEGO, March 26.—Supported by Gov. Abelardo Rodriguez, Mayor Adiran Cubillas of Tia Juana will investigate rumors of asserted irresponsible promoters who are said to be operating near the border town. It is stated that capital is being solicited for a proposed resort, upon the representation that a permit for a gambling casino has been or will be secured from the Mexican government.

Mayor Cubillas is empowered with authority much the same as that of an American corporation commission and says he will use a stern hand on any "wildcat" promoters whom he finds misrepresenting enterprises of any description.

According to the present policy of the government of Lower California no further gambling concessions will be granted.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH, CORONER'S VERDICT

LAGUNA BEACH, March 26.—Coroner Brown today returned a verdict of accidental death in connection with the shooting of Rudolph Drews, 16 years of age, by Dick Malone while the two boys were hunting near here on the Drews ranch. The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Drews, were satisfied that the death was purely accidental, and the boy himself absolved his comrade of all blame before his death Monday morning. The trigger of Malone's rifle, which caught in his coat, cost young Drews his life. The bullet entered just beneath the heart.

LIFE AS PASTOR AND JURIST TERMINATED

William Carson Shaw

SIERRA MADRE, March 26.—With members of his family at his bedside, former Police Judge William Carson Shaw, 67 years of age, died this morning at his home, 120 East Laurel avenue, after months of illness. For the past year, while serving on the local bench, illness interfered with his judicial duties to such an extent that the City Council released him from his work several weeks ago.

Shaw was well known here in church circles, where years ago he was instrumental in founding the Church of the Ascension, which he served as rector for seven years, retiring from the pulpit four years ago.

Born in Thamesville, Ont., Can., on March 12, 1861, the deceased attended Dufferin School and later the University of Toronto and the Theological Seminary of Middleton, Ct. He was ordained in Spokane, Wash., June, 1895, where he was canon of the cathedral. He served as curate of St. Luke's Church in San Francisco, and as rector of St. Peter's Church in Chicago for seven years. Other pulpits held by him were in Carbondale, Pa., Walla Walla, Wash., and Alliance, Neb.

Besides his widow, the judge leaves three daughters and a son, Mrs. Frank Was of Santa Ana, Mrs. C. Hall Perry, Mrs. Ralph Stover, an Dudley Edward Shaw, all of this city

Funeral services in charge of Grant's funeral parlors will be conducted from the quaint little Church of the Ascension, Thursday, at 2 p.m., and interment will take place in the Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Learned Cost of Holding an Election

LAWNDALE, March 26.—Anyone desirous of obtaining data upon the cost of staging a nice little special election can obtain them readily from six public spirited citizens here who yesterday received a bill of $601 for expenses of the recent water bond election which they guaranteed. The guarantors who failed to carry are B. L. Cook, A. E. Bates, J. R. Wimmer, J. J. Oberer, Roy Franklin and William Anderson.

The election was called for the purpose of voting water bonds for construction of a community plant for Lawndale, Wiseburn and Moneta Acres, where the corporation serving the district had established a charge of $1.25 minimum for 500 cubic feet. The guarantee was made in the event that the bonds lost, for if they had carried the expense would have been borne by the newly created district.

A few days before the election a rate change was announced by the water company giving a new service of $1 per 1000 feet and interest in the bond issue palled. Citizens benefited by the new rate are being asked by the Chamber of Commerce to participate in the election outlay.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO LEGION CHAPLAIN

EL CENTRO, March 26.—Rev. G. A. Hartman, former State chaplain of the American Legion in California and pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here for the past ten years, died at 2:30 p.m. today, following a week's illness. Death was due to double pneumonia, according to attending physicians.

Hartman was a native of Illinois and was 42 years of age, at the time of his death. He was elected State chaplain of the Legion in 1923 and later served as commander of Boyce Aten Post in this city.

During 1924 he was sent to Washington as a member of the Imperial Valley delegation which went to work in behalf of Boulder dam legislation.

He is survived by the widow and two sons, George and Robert. Mrs. Hartman was confiend to her home today in care of a physician. It was stated that no definite arangements had been made for the funeral services.

ASK SUPERVISORS TO PLANT TREES

SANTA PAULA, March 26.—Ventura county's Board of Supervisors will be asked to make a provision for reforestation in the county by setting out trees reared in the county nursery, it was decided at a meeting of the Ventura County Fire Commission held here today. Inasmuch as the county now has a nursery it is believed it would be possible to provide the trees at minimum cost.

It was stated at the meeting that the madrone tree is particularly adapted to setting out in this county, as it is the most fire resistant of any of the trees. This tree is said to grow to a height of forty feet or more and to come up again when burned over. It was reported by the county fire warden that there were no fires in this county in February.

TRAINING CLASS MOVED

REDONDO BEACH, March 26.—The scoutmasters' training course which has been under way at the Presbyterian Church in Inglewood for some time is to be continued here after April 1, next, at the Methodist Church recreation hall on Opal street. All scoutmasters, committeemen and others interested in Scout leadership are urged to join the class, which will meet on Tuesday of each week. William St. John of Inglewood is director.

COSTUMES RIVAL RAINBOW

Indians, Spanish Dons, Senoritas and Cowboy Vigilantes Appear in "The Mocking Bird"

PERRIS, March 26.—Dress rehearsals on "E-ye-wa-ha" (The Mocking Bird,) five-act pageant to be presented in the natural outdoor theater here on April 6 to 7 in connection with the Perris Valley Spring Festival Week activities, indicate that the desert fantasy will be an extremely colorful affair.

In the large cast are painted Indian braves decked out in full regalia, Indian maidens in bright-beaded doeskin, gaily dressed Mexican senoritas, Spanish dons in gaudy serapes, and cowboy vigilantes clad with all the picturesque swank of the early frontier days. This phantasmagoria of color moves in rehearsal under the direction of Miss Hedwiga Reicher, Hollywood actress and director. It has sprung into being through the literary labors of Mrs. E. Marguerite Slaughter, local historian, and the inspirational support of Mrs. J. J. Carter, one of the founders of the Hollywood Bowl.

Chief Ho-to-pi, full-blooded Cheyenne, heads the cast as Chief Mockingbird, while Jack Baston of Hollywood, enacts the role of the villain, Olema. Piquant Shannon Day, screen player, takes the part of the saucy senorita, Marquita, while the Indian heroine, Rosita, is played by Arla Calve. The remainder of the company is made up of Perris Valley ranchers and townspeople.

The performances will begin at 3 p.m., and will be held out under the desert sky. The natural amphitheater lies in beautiful Festival Valley, on the outskirts of this city, midway between Riverside and Elsinore. Both the pageant and the desert concert to be given here on Sunday, April 14, by the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, will be open to the general public. Ample parking space will be provided for 1000 cars.

Lions Sponsor Easter Service

SANTA PAULA, March 26.—Following the yearly custom established some years ago, the Lions' Club of this city announced today that they are again to sponsor an Easter sunrise service. The program as announced today by Chairman August Gronau included a trumpet solo, community singing, Scripture reading, sermon and prayer. The services are to be conducted on the hill near the local high school starting at 5:42 a.m.

RAILROAD MAN DIES AT GARDENA

GARDENA, March 26.—Leroy Spafford, for many years train service instructor for the Pacific Electric Railway Company, passed away at his home here last night after an illness of but a few hours. Spafford who has been a resident of Southern California twenty-seven years was 47 years of age and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary E. Spafford and daughter Helen, who reside at the family home at 1057 Wilmington street, here.

Services will be from the Inglewood chapel at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with the W. J. Whittington funeral directors in charge.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT ENDS DIVORCE CASE

SANTA ANA, March 26.—A property settlement today abruptly halted the divorce contest between E. D. Burge, wealthy local ranchman, and his wife, Dorothy Bell Burge.

The cross-fire of bitter accusations ceased suddenly when agreement was reached on the financial issues.

The domestic issues remain unsettled, it is said, no reconciliation being in prospect, though her divorce complaint and his cross-complaint both were withdrawn.

ROAD-MAKERS MEET

SANTA BARBARA, March 26.—The latest innovations in road-building machinery are being assembled on the Camuesa road project of the Santa Barbara National Forest for the road show to be held there April 5 to 15, next.

Road engineers, builders and manufacturers from all along the Pacific Coast will attend the show. The machinery will be on display and will be tried out on the road.

Frank Woolridge of the district forester's office of San Francisco arrived yesterday with tents and supplies to set camp for the visitors. C. E. Jordan, forester in charge of minor roads and trails in the district, will be in charge of the show.

FAVORS COMMUNITY SEWER

SANTA BARBARA, March 26.—That the State sanitary inspector, George Morgan, who has been making a survey of the Montecito district, will recommend the immediate installation of a community sewer system, not only as a sanitary measure, but as a means of economy for residents, was learned from county health officials today. At present there are several private sanitary enterprises under way or being planned which will cost the individual property owners more than $10,000. These private systems when installed will only be good for a few years, it is said. Residents of the community recently voted down a sanitary district and sewer system.

BONDS PROVIDE SCHOOL EQUIPMENT

GARDEN GROVE, March 26.—High-school students of this district will now have the privileges of a modern science building and the use of adequate equipment, the bond issue providing for the erection of the new structure having passed by a vote of 482 to 82. Civic organizations such as the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Parent-Teacher Association and the brotherhood had been favoring the improvement.

Plans call for a two-story structure, fifty-five by eighty-four feet in dimension, added as a wing of the main building. The cost of the building will total about $30,000. Five thousand dollars will be spent to provide new science equipment for the students.

The old science equipment and classrooms were entirely inadequate and many students had been unable to take scientific courses because of the crowded conditions.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY SHOWS CITY'S GROWTH

SANTA BARBARA, March 26.—Telephone subscribers in Santa Barbara have increased a total of 488 since the company switched to the automatic system and issued its last directory on September 10, last, according to Manager D. A. Sattler. On the general theory that there are four persons for every telephone in the city, the increase in new telephones means an addition in the population of Santa Barbara during the past six months of about 1955 persons.

The new book will be out tomorrow and it will show 704 new subscribers in the county and 488 within the city of Santa Barbara. The last issue of the directory contained 131 pages. The new book will contain 139.

AUTO OWNER ON WOLF HUNT

Gets Coupe Back Minus Tires With a Note from "The Wolf"

ONTARIO, March 26.—Claude Horne, 117 Monterey street, has his Ford coupe today, and now he is wolf hunting.

Recently his car was stolen from a local theater. Police today reported finding it on Nineteenth street, minus three tires. In the ash tray on the dashboard was found this note:

"I'm sorry I had to take your tires, cause I need them to go to Prisco. If you want information go to L. A. pool hall, The Wolf."

City Campaign Involves Names of Employees

SAN DIEGO, March 26.—The final stages of the municipal campaign apparently have developed two issues. Both pertain to city employees. One is to retain H. N. Savage in charge of water development. The other is to retain F. M. Lockwood as manager of operations.

There is said to be opposition to both. Individual candidates are declaring in advertising and at public meetings they are for water development and some openly say they intend to keep Savage on the job. Others are silent.

What is asserted to be an open rupture between the city manager and some of the Councilmen is declared to be a live issue. Lockwood has been told that if a combination of candidates is successful he would be deposed, it is reported.

Meanwhile, since this issue has been brought to the fore, other candidates have practically assured Lockwood of their support. Lockwood declares he has endeavored, to the best of his ability, to keep politics out of the operating department and that by so doing he has incurred apparent enmity.

Before leaving today for Sacramento, Mayor Clark said he has kept his hands off the Councilmanic fight. When political advertisements linking his name with candidates for the Council were brought to his attention, the Mayor said he knew nothing about them and had not authorized the use of his name.

Auto Accident is Unavoidable

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 27. — A Coroner's jury reached a verdict of accidental and unavoidable death at the inquest into the death of Pat Quinn, 50 years of age, who was run down by a car driven by F. P. Warren of La Mesa. Quinn stopped from behind a parked car on to the highway. Witnesses gave varied descriptions of the accident, two of them, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Holman of Anaheim, saying that Warren had an ample opportunity to stop his car and avoid the accident. Their version presented today was too different from the story they told local police Sunday night to cast any serious bearing on the case.

Quinn's body will be shipped to Healdsburg, Cal., for interment.

BROADCAST STATION IN INGLEWOOD SOLD

INGLEWOOD, March 26.—KMIC, radio broadcasting station in the Inglewood Chamber of Commerce Building, is today reported sold to Victor Dalton, Los Angeles motorcar dealer at 542 South Figueroa street, that city, and "Little Eddie" Barnes, for some time announcer for the station, for a consideration said to be approximately $30,000.

Jim Fouch, owner and founder of the station, from whom the purchase was made, will retain his interest in the manufacture of the Universal microphone, and will take over the north side floor space, opening on the patio of the chamber building, to be used in the making and assembling of these units, which are finding a market not only throughout the United States but also in foreign countries, according to Mr. Fouch.

SON WAS FLOOD VICTIM

Mother Tells Ventura Coroner She is Satisfied Her Boy is "No. 27"

VENTURA, March 26.—Satisfied that the crumbled
Francis dam flood victim No. 27 are those of her son, Maggie Frame has informed Coroner Reardon that she is the grave plot in the Ivy Lawn Cemetery and will send a from her home in Porterville.

Mrs. Frame came to Ventura with her husband, prepared to see the body and attempt an identification with information supplied her by a Porterville dentist. The mother has been sent many descriptions of unidentified victims, and out of the lot found "No. 27" to resemble that of her son most closely.

After a talk with Coroner Reardon the parents drove to the cemetery where the grave was opened and the casket laid back.

Mrs. Frame lost three sons in the flood. One of these, Vernor was identified in the first few weeks after the disaster and the body was returned to Porterville for burial. The body of the third son has not been identified.

Canadian Legation Assumes Charge of Inquiry

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—Revision of the rum-smuggling treaty between the United States and Great Britain and her dominions to make it more effective and eliminate future differences over its provisions is foreseen in official and diplomatic circles as a possible outcome of the sinking of the British rum runner I'm Alone by a Coast Guard patrol boat.

State Department officials expressed the opinion today that the technicalities involved made the case one for international lawyers and it is even believed possible that the present unofficial differences of opinion on points under the treaty might necessitate the submission of the case to arbitration if it is pressed.

SHIP WAS CANADIAN

The Canadian Legation during the day officially took over the case from the British Embassy after it was established that the ship was of Canadian registry.

Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador, as a result of this asked the State Department to address all replies to his request for information on the case to the Canadian Minister, Vincent Massey, who called at the department and asked for information on the incident.

The department officials still are studying the Coast Guard's preliminary report of the sinking, which was forwarded there by the Treasury. The State Department will await more complete reports before turning the information over to the Canadian Legation.

In diplomatic circles after a study of the entire case from the present reports, the view was expressed that the Canadian attitude in protesting the sinking can be predicated on three points.

By questioning the assumed right under the treaty of American authorities to pursue a suspected rum runner outside the "one hour's sailing distance" from shore, where the chase has begun outside the three-mile limit recognized as territorial waters under international law, but within the limits of one hour's sailing.

NATURE OF PURSUIT

The nature of the pursuit involved—whether another ship in taking up the chase constitutes continuous and hot pursuit—and whether the 200 miles involved in the present case is not an unwarranted distance for pursuit.

Whether, granting the first two points, sinking of a ship and possibility of accompanying injury or loss of life does not constitute means to the end not justified by the circumstances.

Rear-Admiral F. C. Billard, commandant of the Coast Guard, expressed the view today that any attempts to confine the pursuit to the imaginary line of "one hour's sailing" from the shore or to relinquish the implied right to use force to search and seize a suspected vessel will virtually nullify the American rights under the existing treaty.

CAPTAIN CALLS SINKING COWARDLY

NEW ORLEANS, March 26. (AP)—The account of the sinking of the British rum schooner I'm Alone given by the captain of the sunken ship formed the basis today of a report by the British Consul at New Orleans to Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador at Washington.

In his statement the captain said that at no time was he within the jurisdiction of the United States and contended that United States Coast Guardsmen exceeded their rights by sinking his ship last Friday in the Gulf of Mexico. He characterized the sinking as one of the most cowardly acts on the high seas since the submarine warfare.

Capt. John Thomas Randall, Canadian skipper, and his crew of seven men, were released from custody today pending a hearing before a commissioner which was postponed until next Tuesday to permit the District Attorney to complete his investigation.

"YOU'RE IT," CRIES HOOVER

Some One's "Bull in the Ring" When President and His Unofficial Medicine Ball Cabinet Play at White House; Game Learned on Warship During Recent Tour

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—"Bull in the ring" is the Navy parlance for the game in which President Hoover leads his unofficial medicine-ball cabinet in pre-breakfast conditioning exercises in the seclusion of the rolling ground in the south half of the White House lot.

Its origin is somewhat obscure. One version is that it originated in the Navy. Be that as it may, the Chief Executive got his introduction to it on the battleship Utah while he was returning from his good-will tour of Latin America.

The officers indulged in it rather extensively and as a strenuous exercise it could hardly be surpassed. As the naval men play it, five or six form a ring with one man in the center who is "it" until he can touch the ball as it is thrown swiftly from one member to the circle to another

There are no rules as to consecutive passing, with each player at liberty to throw to any member of the ring he might elect. His tosses might be on a straight line or of the looping variety, or even rolled on the deck.

Gets Week's Board and Room at White House Free

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—Henry L. Stimson lost little time after his arrival here today from New York in beginning the task of acquainting himself with the questions with which he must deal as Secretary of State.

Within less than half an hour after he stepped from the train at the union station he was in conference with President Hoover and then spent the remainder of the afternoon at the State Department conferring with Secretary Kellogg and Ambassador Hugh S. Gibson, head of the American delegation to the preliminary arms conference to open next month at Geneva.

Mexican affairs and the arms conference were the first subjects to which Mr. Stimson gave attention, as they are the most important of the current problems. Later he will take up such matters as reparations, the World Court and State Department and diplomatic shifts and appointments.

Mr. Stimson, who will take the oath of office late Thursday, is to be a guest of President Hoover at the White House during the remainder of the week and so will have ample opportunity for discussions with the Chief Executive on many subjects.

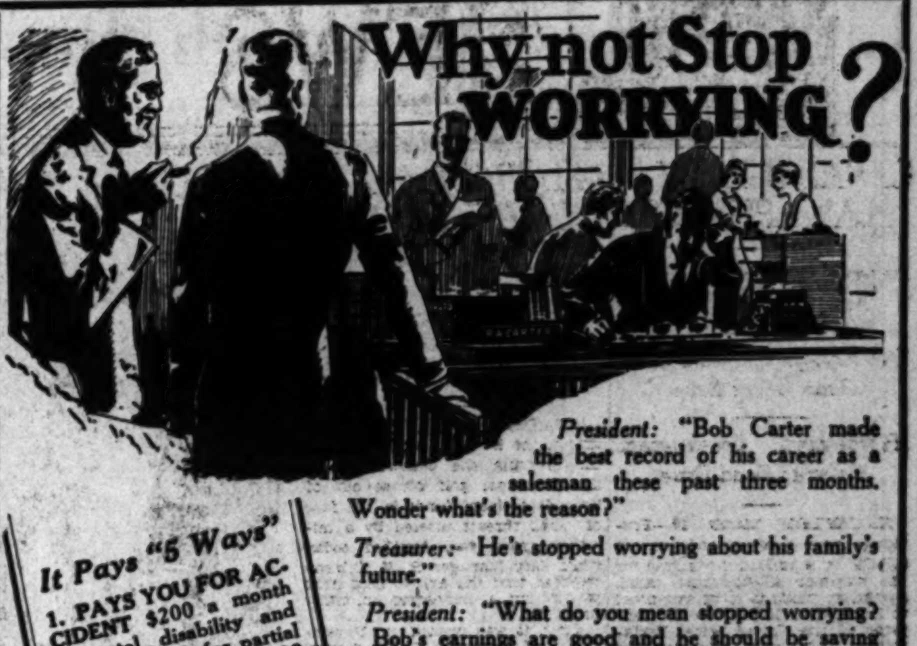
SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—A bill granting to the city of Martinez 5200 acres of tidelands for wharf and harbor purposes was passed by the Senate today on the proposal of Senator Sharkey of that city.



Why not Stop WORRYING?

President: "Bob Carter made the best record of his career as a salesman these past three months. Wonder what's the reason?"

Treasurer: He's stopped worrying about his family's future."

President: "What do you mean stopped worrying? Bob's earnings are good and he should be saving something."

Treasurer: "An old friend of his from the Pacific Mutual got hold of him and gave him facts straight from the shoulder. Bob saw the light and bought one of those '5-way' policies covering every family responsibility he had. Now, with his wife and children all protected in case he is 'laid up' or should 'pass on,' he has stopped worrying and has a clear mind all the time for business."

Free Teeth of Film

Their whiteness will amaze you

Most teeth are naturally white and sparkling. It is a film that dulls them. Remove it the new way and see what happens

DENTAL science has studied dull, discolored teeth and traced their cause to a cloudy film that coats them.

Then serious tooth and gum disorders have been investigated and their source, in a surprising number of cases, likewise was found to be this dingy film.

That is why the dental profession of today states with such emphasis the warning: Remove film from teeth each day. The way to do it is by the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent.

Look for FILM this way

Run your tongue across the teeth. If you feel a slippery, slimy coating—that is film. An ever-forming, ever-present evil in your mouth. It clings tightly to teeth and defies all ordinary ways of brushing. It gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs stains from food and smoking and turns teeth dull and gray.

Film hardens into tartar. Germs by the millions breed in it, and germs with tartar are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Film holds the acids of decay in contact with the tooth's enamel. That starts decay.

Now film removed new way

Film cannot resist brushing the way it did before. Pepsodent first acts to curdle film. Then to remove it in gentle safety to enamel.

This recent scientific way is the greatest step made in a half century's study of tooth-cleansing methods. Its results are seen on every hand.

Give Pepsodent 10 days

If teeth are dull, "off color," that is film. If you are prone to tooth and gum disorders, that may be film also. Remove this film and see teeth whiten.

Between your dentist, and Pepsodent used twice a day, you obtain the ultimate in tooth and gum care as modern dental science knows it. Get a large tube for a few cents at your druggist's.

Beware when lovely teeth are placed at stake. The finest dentifrice is never too costly when science recommends it.

FOR JOFFRE'S GREAT DRIVE AGAINST THE GERMANS IN FRANCE IN SEPTEMBER, 1915, THE ALLIES HAD MASSED 3,500,000 MEN ON THE WESTERN FRONT. THE GERMANS OPPOSING THEM NUMBERED LESS THAN 2,000,000, BUT WERE STRONGLY INTRENCHED. THE FRENCH ATTACKED IN CHAMPAGNE AND AT LENS, MAKING SMALL GAINS, BUT THE GERMAN LINE REMAINED UNBROKEN.

IT WAS THE SAME STORY WITH THE BRITISH UNDER SIR DOUGLAS HAIG, WHO ADVANCED AGAINST LOOS BEHIND A CLOUD OF POISON GAS AND TOOK THE TOWN AND DROVES OF PRISONERS, ONLY TO BE STOPPED BY THE ARRIVAL OF GERMAN RESERVES. AGAIN THE ALLIES HAD FAILED TO BREAK THROUGH.

MORE ENCOURAGING NEWS FOR THE ALLIES CAME FROM THE CAUCASUS, WHERE THE RUSSIANS HAD REPULSED A LARGE ARMY OF TURKS, ANNIHILATING ONE WHOLE ARMY CORPS AND DRIVING THE REST OF THE INVADERS BACK INTO ARMENIA.

NATIONALISTS DECLARE WAR

Kwangsi Faction Held to be in Revolt

Chiang Kai Shek's Armies Advancing

Fighting Now in Progress; Congress Elects

[Copyright, 1929, by the Chicago Tribune.]

SHANGHAI, March 26. (Exclusive)—The Chinese Nationalist government this afternoon issued a declaration of war against the Kwangsi faction.

While the text of the declaration is not available here, the Chinese papers Shunpao and Sinwanpao say the mandate charges that Li Tsung-Yen, Li Chai-Sum and Bei Tsung-Chi are in disobedience of three of the people's principles, hence they are dismissed from the party and must be punished, and since their troops refuse to obey the government's injunction to return to their original stations, government troops will proceed to subjugate them.

FIGHTING IN PROGRESS

As a matter of fact, fighting has been in progress the last four days near Kiukiang, where the forces of Marshal Chiang Kai-Shek, Nationalist generalissimo, are advancing toward Hankow by two flanking routes. One army is advancing north of the Yangtse-Kiang River, through the southern portion of Anhwei Province, from Anking. The other Nationalist army is operating south of the Yangtse from Nanchang in Kiangsi Province. Wounded soldiers are being brought here and to Hankow.

Simultaneously with these events, the Kwangsi faction, which controls Canton, has issued an ultimatum to Marshal Chiang Kai-Shek regarding the arrest of Marshal Li Chai-Sum, Governor of Canton, and leader of the Kwangsi faction. The ultimatum expired today, with the result that the Kwangsi army is proceeding from Canton toward Southern Kiangsi Province. Owing to the fact that South Kiangsi and Anhwei Provinces are controlled by bandits, the Kwangsi clique is bidding for their support. Gen. Li Chi-Sum still is being detained in Nanking.

ELECTION HELD

The third National Congress of the Kuomintang, which has been in session in Nanking, today held the election of members of the center committee. While only twenty-four members received the requisite majority of votes, the remaining twelve are expected to be elected tomorrow. The new personnel of the center committee includes most of the members of the present government, excepting the members of the Kwangsi faction, who dropped out.

The congress is expected to conclude tomorrow and Marshal Chiang is expected to proceed to the front and take control of the army on Thursday. The railroads and all shipping have been commandeered for war transport. Six airplanes were sent to the front today, while the Shaighai arsenals are running twenty-four-hour shifts.

NATIONALISTS BELIEVED BEATEN IN BATTLE

CHEFOO, SHANTUNG (China) March 27. (Wednesday) (AP)—The streets today suddenly filled with retreating soldiers and wounded, indicating that the Nationalists have met with severe defeat west of here at the hands of Marshal Chang Tsung-Chang. GEN. LI CHAI-SUM REPORTED SHOT

LONDON, March 27. (Wednesday) (AP)—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Hongkong today relayed a circumstantial report that Gen. Li Chai-Sum, Governor of Canton, had been shot. The general was arrested by the Nationalist government when he arrived in Nanking on the 13th inst., for the Kuomintang conference.

Wisconsin and Minnesota Still Snow Covered

Mississippi Believed to Have Reached Its Crest

Guardsmen Patrol District to Prevent Blasting

QUINCY (Ill.) March 26. (AP)—Hope was high today that the Mississippi has at last reached its crest. A slight drop late yesterday, coupled with reports of lower readings to the north gave encouragement to the belief that the levees might hold until the river gets back to normal.

A week of high pressure, however, has so weakened the levees that those few farmers who had not moved before, abandoned the lowland drainage districts yesterday and moved to the near-by bluffs. Reports that much snow still is on the ground in Wisconsin and Minnesota brought renewed fears that a general thaw might cause the high water to last several more weeks, bringing almost certain disaster.

National Guardsmen and naval militiamen patrolled the flooded Indian Grave district and the other endangered areas to guard against any attempt at dynamiting the levees or plundering. Rumors have been current for several days that persons residing below Quincy might try to blast the levees to save their own lands.

RISING RIVER CREEPS INTO NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) March 26. (AP)—Rising waters from the Cumberland River crept into the business and residential sections of Nashville today toward a predicted crest of fifty feet.

East Tennessee's flood death toll stands at thirty today. Property loss is estimated as high as $5,000,000.

BILL PASSED TO GIVE ARMY NURSES BURIAL

SACRAMENTO, March 26. (AP)—An act providing that army nurses may receive State burial under provision of an act already making that provision for all war veterans was passed by the Senate today. Senator Rochester of Los Angeles is author of the measure. Penniless soldiers, marines, sailors and army nurses will be assured proper interment by Rochester's bill.

FARM AID ASKED OF FINANCIERS

Ford, Morgan et Al. Bidden by Senate Committee

Mellon, Young, Lewis and Others Also Invited

Hoover Will be Asked to Help Frame Bill

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—Some of the country's best known financiers, business men and manufacturers, all millionaires many times over, were invited by the Senate Agricultural Committee today to give advice and assistance in solving the farm problem.

Telegrams were dispatches to a group including Henry Ford, J. P. Morgan, Charles M. Schwab, Owen D. Young and Paul M. Warburg, asking them to appear within the next few days to give the committee their views on the agricultural situation before the actual writing of a new farm-relief bill is undertaken.

OTHERS INVITED

The committee also invited Secretary Mellon, Gov. Young of the Federal Reserve Board, Chairman Lewis of the Interstate Commerce Commission and President Green of the American Federation of Labor.

In deciding to invite the group, the committee acted upon a suggestion by Senator Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, who contended that business and labor are interested vitally in the success of the farmer and their ideas therefore should be obtained.

The suggestion led to an observation by Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, that "most of these men don't know a horse from a cow."

TO ASK HOOVER'S AID

Previous to the decision to issue the invitations the Senate committee heard a variety of proposals from several witnesses and a move was started among members of the House Agricultural Committee to obtain assistance directly from the administration even though President Hoover has announced that the actual work must be done by the committees themselves.

FIRE REDUCTION CITIES HONORED

Detroit Awarded Prize for Best Showing

Los Angeles Ranks High in Metropolis Class

Contest Sponsored by Great National Councils

WASHINGTON, March 26. (AP)—The city of Detroit was awarded the grand prize today for "the best fire prevention record" for 1928 of the 374 cities participating in the contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and the National Fire Waste Council.

"Property loss by fire in the contest cities showed a decrease of $13,559,790," the chamber reported, placing this loss about 20 per cent below the annual average of the cities for the last five years. The per capita loss was placed at $2.35, as compared with $2.70 in 1927, $3.07 in 1926, and $3.77 in 1925.

Detroit also led the list of cities with a population of more than 500,000. Erie, Pa., was the winner in the class for cities from 100,000 to 500,000; Lakewood, O., in the 50,000 to 100,000 class; Owensboro, Ky., in the 20,000 to 50,000 class, and Albany, Ga., led the cities under 20,000.

"While there was an increase in the number of fires over the preceding five years," the chamber reported, "the larger fires involving a loss of more than $1000 were reduced, thus accounting for the drop in the total loss."

A decrease of 7 per cent in the number of persons reported killed by fire was announced, but the chamber asserted that "the life hazard continues to be an important factor in fire prevention work."

Honor cities announced in each class:

LOS ANGELES CITED

Class One: Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Milwaukee, Los Angeles, Washington, Cleveland, Buffalo, Baltimore and San Francisco.

Class Two: Cincinnati, Portland, Or.; Rochester, N. Y.; Seattle, El Paso, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Utica, N. Y.; Hartford, Ct.; Long Beach, Cal., and (tie) New Orleans and Akron, O.

Class Three: Fresno, Cal. and Pasadena, Cal.

Class Four: Richmond, Cal. and Riverside, Cal.

Billings, Mont.; Logan, Utah and Redondo Beach, Cal., were cities in Class Five placed on the honor list.

Muerte Sospechosa de una Joven Empleada

SAN FRANCISCO, 26 de Marzo.—Las circunstancias que rodean el hallazgo del cuerpo de la señorita Lillian Spencer, de 30 años de edad, muerta en su apartamiento de la calle Sutter, indican que se trata de un crimen cometido con instintos muy bajos. La pobre era empleada de un banco local, y había llegado aquí hace poco, procedente de Canadá, su patria.

El Nuevo Ministro de China Felicita al Presidente

WASHINGTON, 26 de Marzo.—Chu-Chu-Wu, nuevo ministro de China, presentó hoy sus credenciales a Hoover, en la Casa Blanca. En su discurso de estilo, manifestó que le era "muy grato hallar al frente del gobierno norteamericano a un hombre de estado que había tenido contacto personal con China, durante su larga residencia allí". El presidente, por su parte, al corresponder a los deseos del primer mandatario chino, por la felicidad suya personal y la de todo el pueblo yanki, expresó que "los Estados Unidos de Norteamérica abrigan la firme esperanza de paz estable y una creciente prosperidad en China". "En vista de su intimo conocimiento de los asuntos norteamericanos y de la vida de este país, con la cual ha estado usted en intima relación desde la época en que su finado padre, doctor Wu-Ting Fang, desempeñó idénticas funciones con tanta distinción", añadió el presidente, "tengo la convicción de que podrá usted hacer mucho por estrechar los lazos, que ya felizmente unen a los dos pueblos de China y los Estados Unidos de Norteamérica". El nuevo enviado sustituye a Sao Me Alfredo Sze, que ha sido transferido a la Gran Bretaña con idéntica misión.

Fallece un Cardenal

ROMA, 26 de Marzo.—El cardenal Aurelio Galli, de 63 años de edad, falleció esta mañana. Su muerte reduce al Sacro Colegio a sesenta miembros, de los cuales veinte y cinco son italianos y treinta y tres extranjeros. Es probable que, en vista de ésto, se créen hasta cinco nuevos cardenales, en el consistorio que se celebrará el próximo mes de mayo. El cardenal Lucidi, que fue elevado a la dignidad principesca en el mismo consistorio que el fallecido, está también gravemente enfermo. Tiene actualmente 62 años. El Santo Padre le ha enviado la bendición, y desea fervientemente su alivio.

Child's Safety Up to Parents

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. Intensive parental education to keep children off the streets was called for today at a meeting of the California Safety Conference of the California Development Association.

Roller skates, scooters and bicycles in the streets cause scores of accidents that can be cut down materially, it was declared, if children can be kept on the sidewalk and off the streets with them.

The only way this can be accomplished, it was contended, is for parents to command children to remain in safe territory.

Canada Removes Live-stock Ban

OTTAWA (Ont.) March 26. (AP) Dr. J. H. Grisdale, deputy Minister of the Federal Department of Agriculture, today signed an order removing restrictions on importations of horses, poultry and dogs from California, Oregon, Nevada and Arizona in the United States, and Lower California and Sonora in Mexico.

The order also allows movement of goods in sealed cars through Canadian territory except shipments of cattle, sheep, goats and other ruminants, also swine and manure.

YOUR STUCCO HOUSE NEED PAINT?...THEN REMEMBER

A PAINT BRUSH has 2 ends

On one end you want the hand of a skilled painter — on the other, pure lead paint

THE MASTER PAINTER—there's the man who knows best how to prepare a surface for painting . . . and how to apply the paint. Lead paint—there's the paint for your stucco house or for any other surface.

When the job is done by a master painter with pure lead paint, you can be sure that the stucco is properly waterproofed. Lead paint keeps dampness and moisture from penetrating the porous stucco . . . prevents the stucco from cracking.

The master painter today uses pure lead paint made with Dutch Boy white-lead. Look for such a painter. He will give you the right kind of job, saving you money in the end.

Let us send you detailed information about the use of pure lead paint on stucco. Also ask for our new booklet, "The House We Live In." It tells how to select colors for interiors as well as exteriors.

Dutch Boy white-lead is sold by paint dealers everywhere

12 City Blocks for the May Company's Floor Space!

Over one and a half million square feet! If on one floor, located in the heart of the business district, this would cover the space outlined by the above illustration. From Broadway to Spring Street, from Eighth Street to The Plaza. It seems but yesterday that The May Company built its first nine-story addition on Hill Street. Then came the new warehouse at Jefferson Street and Grand Avenue and The May Company Garage at Hill and Ninth Streets with convenient indoor parking space for patrons. Thus reads the saga of six swift, short years of action!

Keeping Faith with Los Angeles' Growth, May Company Announces Another Nine-Story Addition

Sixty feet to the West of Broadway . . . a block long to Hill Street! When completed it will bring the total of May Company expansion to twelve city blocks. In other words . . . The May Company will provide a square foot of sales and service space for practically every man, woman and child in Greater Los Angeles.

DO YOU KNOW that The May Company now maintains a permanent stylist in Paris . . . in addition to the fifteen merchandising offices in New York, Boston, London, Paris, Brussels, Calais, Manchester, Lyons, Belfast, Berlin, Vienna, Florence, Chemnitz, Gablonz, Kobi?

DO YOU KNOW that The May Company has not only far more than doubled its business in six years, but has forged ahead to first position and leadership in Pacific Coast retailing?

DO YOU KNOW that a fleet of 100 May Company trucks travel 1,500,000 miles in one year, delivering an average of 25,000 packages daily?

DO YOU KNOW that The May Company has increased its personnel from 1961 to 4000 in six years, and is proud of its ability to assist in the employment of Los Angeles citizens?

Commemorating Six Mutual Magic Years We Dedicate to Los Angeles The Coming Sixth Anniversary

To show The May Company's appreciation of Los Angeles' encouragement and co-operation, an event worthy of the occasion is being prepared. The Sixth Anniversary, with $3,000,000 worth of newest Spring and Summer merchandise . . . beautiful things gathered wherever ships touch port. WATCH FOR FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS! WATCH FOR DETAILS!

Remember! The May Company Has Definitely Decided to Discontinue All "May Days!"

Leaving every effort concentrated to make the Sixth Anniversary an event unequalled in magnitude, in merchandising importance, in quality and quantity of merchandise offered at the lowest prices of the year.

BAY CITY BANDITS MAKE $400,000 GEM HOLD-UP

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (AP) Operating in broad daylight in the heart of the downtown shopping district, two unmasked bandits, thought to be members of an Eastern robber gang, took a brief case, containing $400,000 in loose diamonds from Harry Amols, New York jewelry salesman, he reported to the police here today.

So quickly was the robbery executed that the two bandits were able to reach a waiting automobile, driven by a third man, and make their escape in the heavy traffic before Amols recovered from the shock of the daring theft, he said.

Police are certain the gang is the same which kidnaped and robbed Murray Lang, New York jeweler, here last October. Diamonds valued at $200,000 were obtained by the bandits from Lang, who was driven to an outlying golf course and tied to a tree after the robbery.

It was thought the gunmen intended kidnaping Amols in the same manner, but were frightened by the crowd in the lobby of the jeweler's exchange Building, where the robbery took place.

Patrician Makes Omaha Without Girl Stowaway

OMAHA (Neb.) March 26. (AP)—Without the "girl stowaway" who had made the trip from Oakland, Cal., to Salt Lake City, the twenty-passenger plane Patrician, said to be the largest in the country, landed here late today.

The "stowaway" was reported to have been Miss Owen Ponton, of Oakland, Cal. She had been guest of the crew as far as Salt Lake City, it was explained upon landing here. Mechanics said she had left the plane at Salt Lake City to return to her home.

The plane will take off tomorrow morning for Minneapolis. It made the flight from Salt Lake City to Omaha in seven hours.

Oklahoma Bribe Charge Rebuked

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 26. (AP) The Oklahoma Senate late today adopted a motion holding that no evidence had been revealed to substantiate statements in a letter written by Senator John L. Rice, charging attempted bribery of Senators who voted in the court of impeachment to retain Henry S. Johnston as Governor.

The vote was 41 to 0, with Rice excused from voting.

Immediately afterward an order was submitted providing for Senator Rice's suspension from office pending further consideration of the case.

ASSERTED EX-CONVICT HELD IN CHECK CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (Exclusive)—Accused of posing variously as a Standard Oil official of Los Angeles, a Hollywood jeweler and a retired Southern California capitalist, Clifton Cecil Herrold, 32 years of age, who, police say, has been out of Folsom prison less than one year, was arrested tonight charged with passing worthless checks for $17,500 in the Bay district and Los Angeles.

JAPANESE SAVE WARSHIP CREW

TOKIO, March 27. (Wednesday) (AP)—All officers and crew of the Italian destroyer Muggia, which sank during a storm Monday night 150 miles northeast of Shanghai, were rescued by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha freighter Matsumoto Maru.

The destroyer sent out an SOS which brought the freighter hurrying to the scene of disaster. Some of the crew were drifting on the rough sea and some were standing on the rocks of a small island. The entire crew, said to number seventy-six, was picked up.

BLAST OF NITRO KILLS TWO MEN

Three States Feel Force of Du Pont Explosion

PHILADELPHIA, March 26. (AP)—Two men were killed and sections of three States were shaken today as 3000 pounds of nitroglycerine exploded in the plant of the Du Pont Powder Company at Gibbstown, N. J., eighteen miles south of Philadelphia.

The dead are: John Kern, 55 years of age, a widower, of Paulsboro, N. J., and Liuti Pizzndrijli, Norristown, Pa.

The explosion occurred in a small frame structure in what is known as the Repauno dynamite plant of the Du Pont company. The cause of the explosion probably never will be known.

CAPONE, RIDDEN BY FEAR, DENIED BAHAMA REFUGE

MIAMI (Fla.) March 26. (Exclusive)—Scarface Al Capone, harried by fear of the fate that usually overtakes Chicago racketeers, has been denied the sanctuary of the Bahamas by British colonial authorities, it was learned here today

The Windy City beer baron, it is understood, had intended to build an impregnable fortress in or near Nassau on New Providence Island and establish himself there something in the manner of the feudal lords of old, with a picked bodyguard. From this position he easily could control the flow of liquor to Florida and could dominate local bootleggers, thus assuring himself of a large income and immunity from government prosecution and rivals.

Capone has a Palm Beach home which he described to the Chicago grand jury as his legal residence. Recently he made several trips to the Bahamas to look over the lay of the land. But he will be permitted no more such excursions. Although no official action has been taken to prevent Capone's invasion, word has gone out to steamship companies not to give him passage. Failure to comply will be followed by cessation of governmental favors, it is learned.

Macmillan Oil Votes Dividend Rate Increase

Directors of the Macmillan Petroleum Corporation have placed the dividend on stock of the company of an annual basis of $2 a share instead of $1.50 formerly, with the declaration yesterday of a new regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share.

The new dividend, which is at the annual rate of 8 per cent on the par value of the stock, has been declared payable April 15 to stock of record the 30th inst. There are 112,000 shares outstanding, and net profits in 1928 on this capitalization were equivalent to $5.12 a share. The Macmillan Company consolidated with a number of other production concerns late last year and was listed on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange in November.

R. S. Macmillan, president, declined to state actual figures of earnings this year since the company issues only semiannual statements. However, he intimated that excellent results have been obtained. Four wells are now drilling at Long Beach, two to be ready for production tests in the next ten days, a third in about three weeks and the fourth within a month.

JOINS BROKERAGE

Reginald S. Webb, formerly connected with the New York and Los Angeles offices of E. F Hutton & Co., is now associated with Bacon & Brayton in its Los Angeles office. He was a trader on the Los Angeles exchange here for two years prior to leaving for Trinidad, where he was manager of the only stock and bond brokerage firm in the British West Indies.

Los Angeles Market Offers Staunch Resistance to Selling; Contrast Made With June

BY EARLE E. CROWE

So far the Los Angeles stock market has admirably withstood the ravages of liquidation brought about by the raising of the New York call money rate to prohibitive levels. While New York stocks have been falling from 5 to 50 points, with the trading in some securities approaching a demoralized state, the active stocks listed on the Los Angeles exchanges have yielded relatively small amounts. In not a single instance has the loss over the last few days amounted to more than 10 points.

This record of behavior contrasts with the sickening collapse of Los Angeles stocks in the break of last June when the bank shares took the lead. Evidently the foundation has been enlarged and strengthened since that time; and it is certain that the considerable increase in the volume of trading has minimized the danger of a complete rout in times of liquidation. The Los Angeles market now seems to have the desirable aid of a sizeable short interest.

INDEX TELLS STORY

Measured by the newly devised index of active stocks, compiled by the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, the drop in thirty active common stocks since Friday of last week only amounts to 3.4 points. On Friday the index stood at 100.9, which compares with 97.5 yesterday.

Ten industrials record a loss of 4.1 points; ten financial, 1.6, and ten oils, 4.6 points.

Whether inflation has been less in the active Los Angeles stocks than in the leaders in the New York market, or traders here have been able to meet margin calls without recourse to liquidation are debatable explanations of the resistance offered to selling pressure. It is possible that stocks in Los Angeles are, on the whole, in better hands than in most other cities in the country.

Of an unfavorable nature, the possibility is suggested that Los Angeles brokers may be slower in pressing calls for additional margin, and the actual state of affairs may not be revealed for several days.

MONEY WITHDRAWN

Not much likelihood is seen of any marked relief in call-money rates until after the first of the month. National banks are preparing themselves for a call any day for conditions as of the end of the first quarter, and to this end have been responsible for heavy withdrawals of money from the New York call market. Some banks have undoubtedly asked large clients to deposit substantial sums for a few days, and these requests have also caused a decrease in the call-money supply in order to make the deposits.

Moreover, corporations have their April 1 dividend and interest requirements to meet, which has added still further to the strain on the supply of call money. Payment of dividends and interest, however, will release most of this money, and lower rates will probably be seen shortly after the first of the month.

PROGRAM IN STEEL DEAL INCOMPLETE

Consolidated Company Not Ready With Plans to Finance Merger

Details of any new financing in connection with the acquisition of the Gallagher Company by the Consolidated Steel Corporation for $1,000,000 will be announced on completion of the consolidation, Waller Taylor, president of the Consolidated Steel Corporation, said yesterday. Mr. Taylor added that while some new financing might be anticipated, action in this respect had not yet been definitely determined.

Charles Gallagher, inventor of the Gallagher steel pontoon floating roofs for oil and gasoline storage tanks, will head the new department of the Consolidated Steel Company. Although organized only a few years ago, the Gallagher Company has developed to the point where the gross annual business is running from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000.

Mr. Taylor said that the new unit of Consolidated Steel would add substantially to the total volume of business of the corporation and he forecast an increasing demand for the Gallagher roofs in the oil industry both in the domestic and foreign fields. The roofs not only reduce fire hazard but prevent evaporation, which, Mr. Taylor pointed out, is the cause of considerable loss in the storage of gasoline.

Net earnings of the Consolidated Steel Corporation for January and February, the first two months of its operation after the merger of the Llewellyn Iron Works, Union Iron Works and Baker Iron Works, totaled $102,655.95 after administrative and sales expense and after estimated Federal and State income tax. The common stock which was recently listed on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange, closed yesterday at 20 1-4.

General Electric Profits Sharply Higher for Year

NEW YORK, March 26. (Exclusive)—General Electric Corporation today reported net income for the year ended December 31, last, of $54,153,806, after depreciation and Federal taxes, equal after cash dividends on the special stock to $7.15 on 7,211,481 common shares. This compares with $48,799,488, or $6.41 on the common in 1927.

In a statement accompanying the report, Owen D. Young, chairman, and Gerard Swope, president, said that unfilled orders at the end of 1928 were $72,853,000, against $68,916,000 in 1927, an increase of 6 per cent. Orders received during 1927 totaled $348,848,512, against $309,784,623 in 1927, up 13 per cent.

"Investments in associated companies," according to the statement, "have been appraised and are carried at a net valuation of $96,614,722, against $90,330,622 in 1927. These amounts include advances as well as securities, since a large part of advances are required permanently in the business. The increase of $6,284,100 is largely due to additional capital provided for International General Electric Company, and United Electric Securities Company."

NEW ENTRY IN GROCERY CHAIN LIST

Formation of MacMarr, Inc., With 387 Stores Announced by Head

Organization of the second largest chain of grocery stores west of the Mississippi, comprising 387 units with annual net sales in excess of $20,000,000, was announced yesterday by Ross McIntyre, president of the new concern, which will be known as MacMarr Stores, Inc. Mr. McIntyre, who has achieved national recognition as a chain-store executive, was the organizer and principal owner of International Sales and Produce Company, which operates the Twentieth Century Stores around Portland.

MacMarr Stores, Inc., will operate from Seattle to San Diego, having acquired directly or through subsidiaries the assets and business of International Sales & Produce Company; "Marr's," a chain of grocery stores operated by Charles E. Marr; Stone's Cash Stores, Inc.; Consolidated Stores, Inc.; LaGrande Grocery Company; Western Piggly Wiggly Company; MacLean Bros. Inc., and Eagle Stores, Inc. The stores are located in California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

Financing in connection with the merger is expected shortly through Merrill, Lynch & Co., investment bankers. Present plans call for increasing the number of stores in the new chain to more than 1000 by June 15, next, with annual sales in excess of $50,000,000.

Council Awards Two Municipal Issues of Bonds

The Anglo-Paris-London Company yesterday was awarded a $2,000,000 issue of funding bonds to pay damage claims in the St. Francis Dam disaster and a $2,500,000 issue of waterworks bonds by the Los Angeles City Council. The premium bid by the company for the first issue which bears 5 per cent interest was $4050 while the premium on the second issue which bears 4 3-4 per cent interest was in the nominal sum of $1. The waterworks bonds were part of an issue voted in 1926.

The Council will reoffer $3,900,000 of water, power and bridge bonds for which no bids meeting the legal requirements were received. Deputy City Attorney Patten advised the Council that of the three bids submitted, only the bids of the Anglo-Paris-London Company for the two issues fulfilled the legal terms of the sale. The other bids were submitted by the National City Company of California and the American Investment Company.

With the exception of the St. Francis Dam bond issue, the several bond issues failed to receive satisfactory bids when they were offered in February. The St. Francis Dam bond issue was added to the reoffering of the other issues which the city officials anticipated would sell more readily on the inauguration of the new national administration.

ELECTRIC CONCERN EARNINGS INCREASED

NEW YORK, March 26. (Exclusive)—International General Electric Company today reported for the year ended December 31, last, profits of $1,681,735 after charges, equal, after preferred dividends, to $9.81 a share on 100,000 common shares, as compared with $1,556,335, or $8.56 a share in 1927.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—Opening advances in cotton on relatively firm cables and fear of showers in the eastern belt today were followed by very sharp declines in the New York market. Liquidation became active and general as prices worked lower, with the market apparently influenced by weakness in grain and stock and the advance in call money rates.

The volume of business tapered off somewhat at net declines of about 45 to 64 points, but the midafternoon market was still more or less unsettled at rallies of 15 or 20 points from the lowest.

PENNEY ACTIVITIES BROAD

Chain Store Operator Adds Dairy Project to Banking, Merchandising, Realty and Other Interests

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—J. C. Penney, chain-store operator operating more than a thousand stores in forty-seven States, seems to be concentrating his constructive business efforts, other than in the chain-store line, largely in the South.

This chain-store leader was born in Hamilton, Mo., fifty-four years ago. His stores are concentrated largely in the north, but his interests in Florida banking, Florida citrus fruit marketing and Florida real estate are extensive.

Last week he announced the formation of one of the largest dairy products companies to operate, first, in the Southern United States. Its object will be to give additional incentive to the intensive development of the dairy-products industry throughout the entire South, comparable to such similar developments as have taken place in Wisconsin, Minnesota and other Northwestern States. The company will begin with a capital in excess of $5,000,000. More will be added as the demand grows.

Mr. Penney believes the South offers large and growing opportunities for industrial expansion. But even more in the field of diversified agriculture, in which dairying will form a most important part.

Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the largest of the Standard group, denies oil men desire to control the price.

"Economists recognize that overproduction means inevitable shortening of the life of our crude supplies, and the waste of a valuable natural resource at the expense of the next generation," he says. The situation cannot be remedied by curtailing production in the United States alone, he believes.

"It is hoped, therefore, that whatever co-operative plans may be adopted by American producers will not be rendered ineffective by the policy followed in foreign producing fields," he says.

A sensible point of view.

The American Petroleum Institute estimates the total investment in the oil industry at $11,000,000,000. Of this amount $5,000,000,000 is in the production of crude oil, $3,000,000,000 in refineries, $1,800,000,000 in pipe lines, pipes and tank steamers, and $1,200,000,000 in market operations.

The big operators are pretty well agreed. They have adopted a code of ethics for the business, but their chief opposition to production curtailment has been coming from the minor producers of oil who so far have held out from entering any agreement by which oil production in the United States this year would be kept within the 1928 figures.

Harold G. Moulton, who, as director of the Brookings Institute of Washington has issued more books on economic and financial questions since the war than any other individual or single organization, believes that the proposed St. Lawrence waterway for ocean vessels is economically unsound, and an unjustifiable expense to the country.

In a recent address this educator said that the engineers' preliminary estimate of $45,000,000 as the cost of development was too low; that the ultimate cost would be at least double that amount, $700,000,000 in the upper river and $225,000,000 in the lower river, exclusive of $213,000,000 necessary to develop power.

In a word, Mr. Moulton believes the total cost of this development to a twenty-seven-foot depth will be in excess of $1,100,000,000.

But that is not all. The cost of harbor and terminal facilities is not included in this total. This Mr Moulton estimates at $340,000,000 more.

Another objection. The twenty-seven-foot depth urged for the waterway is not sufficient to admit modern ocean vessels. This depth would accommodate only 13 per cent of the vessels now serving the port of Montreal, and only 40 per cent of the grain tramp ships serving Montreal. Only 38 per cent of all the cargo boats serving United States ports could navigate in a twenty-seven-foot depth.

But the manufacturers and farmers of the Middle West, anxious for more adequate transportation and lower freight rates, have a different opinion.

STOCKS HIT BY SELLING WAVE

Slump General on Turnover of Record Volume

Call-Money Pinch Sharpest Since 1920 Squeeze

Vigorous Last-Hour Buying Rally Halts Decline

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—The ghost of unstable credit that has haunted the stock market for months, while confirmed bulls have endeavored to scoff it out of existence, materialized in flesh and blood today and gave the market a shock that sent it through the most violent contortions in its history. The huge total of 8,246,740 shares changed hands during the frantic session, which exceeds the previous record turnover of November 30 by 1,304,240.

The most acute money squeeze since the post war deflation crisis of 1920 sent the call loan rate up to 20 per cent before funds were forthcoming. A landslide of selling during the first four hours of the session drove about a third of the active issues to new low ground for the year, a few extreme losses running from 20 to 33 points.

LATE RALLY STAGED

A rally of remarkable vigor set in during the last hour, however, when the 20 per cent rate finally brought out funds, and scores of important shares rallied from 5 to 36 points from their bottom levels, and a sprinkling closed with net gains.

The Associated Press price index of fifty industrials at the close of the market showed a loss of but 1.8 points, compared to the loss of 6 points yesterday and the rail index showed practically no change. The index of twenty utilities, however, lost nearly 5 points.

The grave situation in the money market resulted from conditions similar to those at the year end, and had been foreshadowed in Federal Reserve analysis. The market, grown increasingly d   t upon

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—Bonds were dumped overboard today in the heaviest trading day in the market since last June, and more than seventy-five foreign and domestic issues fell, in many cases, to their lowest level for all time. The Associated Press combined averages for forty bonds were at their lowest point in three years.

The widest breaks were in the convertibles, reflecting the gyrations of the stocks. High-grade issues were well represented in the decline. As the rate for call money was marked up to 20 per cent dealers were demanding 8¼ per cent for time loans.

Sales totaled $14,694,000, the heaviest turnover since June 12, last, when the total was $16,031,000.

Outside of International Telephone convertible 4½s, which wound up the day with a net gain of a point at 117½ after soaring to 119 and dropping to 114½, all the speculative issues closed behind minus signs. Public Service of New Jersey 4½s crashed 7 points to a new low at 172, compared to their recent high of 206, and the Van Sweringen's Alleghany Corporation 5s at one time got down to 98 and finished at 98¾ for a fractional loss. Shortly after their admission to trading this year these bonds ran up to 110⅞. American International 5½s fell more than 2 points to a new low at 101. A loss of 4 points at the close was tallied by Anaconda Copper 7s, which fluctuated from a high for the day of 240 to a low at 227 and finished at 230.

In the industrials Abraham & Strauss 5½s which recently preceded a merger announcement with an advance to 120, slipped down 2 points to a new low for the year at 110. Bethlehem Steel refunding 4½s chalked up a fractional gain, but the convertible 5½s were under pressure. United States Steel sinking fund 5s got down below 108 for the first time since announcement of the plan to retire the issue at 110.

A new low for the year was established by the 5s of United States Rubber, in which the Du Pont interests recently gained control, with a drop of a point to 88. Several of the oils were at new lows for the year. White Eagle 5½s dropped more than 3 points. Dodge 6s were at 98, down 1½ points.

The slump in the utilities was marked by a drop of 3 points to a new low at 101, by collateral 5s of American Telephone, which took Wall street by surprise today with announcement of a $225,000,000 bond offering, its first major financing of this kind since 1925. This step follows action by such companies as United States Steel and Anaconda Copper to retire all bonds through stock offerings. Postal Telegraph 5s also were at a new low.

Atchison debenture 4½s featured the selling in rails, falling more than 3 points to the lowest price since their admission to trading. St. Paul adjustment 5s with a slump of more than 2 points, Missouri Pacific general 4s, with a drop of 2 points, and New York Central debenture 4s and convertible 4s with fractional losses were at new lows. Pennsylvania 7s also were at a new low.

All sections of the foreign list were under pressure. Pirelli 7s dropped 2 points.

The quotations represents sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

ROCK HAS BEEN USED BY MAN THROUGHOUT THE AGE

Rock is the body of Concrete

In every phase of modern construction, rock products are required—and used extensively. They are written into the specifications of important projects by engineers who recognize there is no satisfactory substitute.

Concrete is an essential constituent of the modern skyscraper. Into these towering structures, concrete is poured . . . the foundations, walls, floors—every column and beam encased in concrete. What was a mere skeleton of steel is transformed story by story into a useful building.

CONSOLIDATED ROCK PRODUCTS COMPANY is the largest company of its type in the world, and supplies 75% of the Southern California demand for rock products.

We recommend the stock units of this company (two shares Preferred and one share Common per unit) as an attractive investment at the present price of $58 per unit.

"CONSOLIDATED ROCK PRODUCTS COMPANY serves one of the fastest growing sections in the world."

A new, illustrated booklet describing this company, its properties and its business is now ready for distribution. Complimentary copy sent upon request.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (AP)—In the face of 20 per cent call money and the record-breaking smash on the New York board, the San Francisco Stock Exchange showed solidity today by only a moderate decline in prices and in some cases prices closed higher than on the day before.

More than twenty stocks on the San Francisco list closed up over yesterday after the fourth heaviest day of trading since January 1. In market value of stocks sold, it was the record-breaking day of the year, total sales reaching $7,487,325. The last high day was the 20th inst., when sales reached $7,186,015. The share turnover today was 127,810.

Among the stocks closing with a net increase were the following: American Company, up 1 at 142½; Caterpillar, up ½ at 73⅞; Clorox Chemical, up ½ at 40½; John Bean, up ⅞ at 47⅞; Golden State Milk, up ½ at 53; Kolster Radio, up ⅞ at 53⅞; Leslie Salt, up 1⅛ at 30⅝; Richfield, up ¼ at 42; Standard Oil up 1⅞ at 73⅞, and Union Associates up ⅛ at 49⅛.

When the selling movement earlier in the day was at its peak, new lows were registered against California Packing at 73; Caterpillar at 71, Pacific Gas and Electric at 26¼; Kolster at 48½; Union Associates at 47⅞. Then a rally set in and the oils particularly gained strength. With them went the industrial issues after Atlas Diesel had reached 50, Pacific Lighting, 76, and Magnavox, 7⅝.

In the banking section of the list Transamerica dropped to 130¼, rallied to 134½ and eased off to 133⅞, off 1¼. American Company suffered an early loss but regained strength, up 1 point at 142½.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Sharp Rally Checks Early Bear Attack to Offset General Shake-out on Local Mart

Strong support came to the rescue of traders for the advance on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday when shortly after the opening prices dropped in a wholesale fashion and fears of a headlong slump became acute. The early move followed the lead of the New York market, which sold off severely with call money at 20 per cent. Buyers were quick to take advantage of the improved technical position of a number of issue which sank in the early trading and before noon a rallying movement got under way which held to the close of the day.

Although the oil list continued to hold the most interest, trading was conducted at a brisk pace and widely spread throughout the entire market. With prices moving in an upward direction at the close, the day's losses were, in most cases, cut back to less than 2 points and several issues finished higher. Among the latter were Standard Oil of California, Richfield and Pacific Finance.

Standard in the early trading dropped to a low at 70 1-8 and ended at 73 7-8, up 1 7-8 points net. Richfield, moving in a 2-point range, closed up 1-4 net to 42. Rio Grande, after marking a low at 37, rallied to end at 38 3-4, off 1-8 net. Union of California and Union Associates, after early liquidation, closed at 48 5-8 and 49, respectively, down 3-8 and 1-4. Signal Oil A slumped 1 1-2 points to 43 and B stock, usually inactive, broke 7 points to 40 1-4. Barnsdall sold down 1 3-8 net to 40 7-8.

Pacific Finance Company on an active turnover dropped to 104 and recovered to finish the day at 106, up 1 point net. Transamerica slumped 5 1-2 points to 131 and rallied to end at 134 1-8, off 2 3-8 points net. Pacific National Company, although active, moved within a narrow range and ended at 39 1-2, off 1-2. Security-First National sold down 2 1-8 points to 125 1-8; Merchants' National, 15 points to 215, and Los Angeles-First National 1 7-8 points to 129. First National warrants were off 10 cents at 2.40.

Emsco Derrick, on the industrial board, dropped 1 1-8 points net to 40; Jantzen Knitting Mills, 1 point to 45 1-2; Illinois Pacific Glass, 2 points to 38, and Jenkins Television, 1 1-2 points to 11 1-2. Other industrials, with the utilities, were only fractionally affected.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Samson Tire and Rubber Company and Claude Neon Electrical Products were the outstanding issues in the trading yesterday on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange. Both stocks showed substantial advances on the day while the balance of the market turned lower in sympathy with operations on the parent board.

Samson Tire shot up 2 points and struck a new all-time peak at 27, holding this mark to the close. Claude Neon, after an early slump, spurted to 55 1-2 for a gain on the day of 1 3-4 points. The weakening of the balance of the list was by no means as severe as that on the older market, and at the close most losses were confined to fractions.

Consolidated Steel rallied 1 1-4 points to 20 1-4. Airplane shares came under acute selling pressure early in the day, but at the close had either regained all losses or showed fractional recessions. Bandini was an exception in the oil group, up 3-8 to 9 3-8.

Sales totaled 225,680 shares valued at $1,195,870.

SALT LAKE MINES

SALT LAKE CITY, March 26. (Exclusive)—Sharp breaks, especially among the leading metal stocks, were experienced here today coincident with the New York Stock Exchange flurry. Trading, while not precipitous, was on a steady increase during the day. Brokers refused margin transactions and there was a general tightening up. The day saw a material increase in call money rates. In many of the leading issues prices dropped with some recovery at the close of the market.

The stock exchange dealings showed reactions in a detached way with two local brokerage firms reporting the biggest day in weeks. Mining shares tumbled from 25 to 50 cents, with Silver King Coalition experiencing the biggest drop. Close:

BAY CITY CURB

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26. (AP)—A decided change to higher levels was seen during the last part of the day on the curb exchange today. As the money rate rose to 20 per cent prices opened lower and also continued to lower prices, but as the day progressed in spite of the high money rate prices again rose as new buying orders were received.

Bank of America showed this up and down drift the best. Opening to 230, off 10 points, it dropped to 226 and then following the trend rose to 242 and closed at 238.

From an opening of 173¾, Bank of America of California lost to 172 and closed at 172½.

In the industrial group the Neon stocks showed the largest gain. Claude Neon Electric Products rose slowly from an opening of 54 to close at 56. Claude Neon Lights after slumping to 36½ from 37½ rose to close at 40.

A decided slump during the early trading was seen in the aviation group. After slumping below yesterday's closing price Western Air Express closed at 59½. Lockheed at 18½, Kinner at 5⅜, Fokker at 32, Aviation of California at 46, Aviation of Delaware at 19¾.

The oils were a little stronger toward the close. Italo Petroleum from a low of 10⅝ closed at 11. Universal and Occidental closed stronger at 2.00 and 3.15 respectively.

STOCKS HIT BY SELLING WAVE

loans from corporations, found their supply cut off, as concerns are conserving their funds against the heavy April 1 interest and dividend requirements.

Over the year end the banks came to the support of the money market with about $600,000,000, increasing their Federal Reserve borrowings by $182,000,000 in order to do it, but under the present Federal Reserve policy, they could not be moved to aid the market until the call loan rate touched 20 per cent, a figure unequaled since February 5, 1920.

Calling of loans was reported to have been comparatively moderate, but replacement funds for a time seemed impossible to find. Call money was quoted in the outside market at one time as high as 25 per cent, and time money was quoted up to 8½ per cent, with practically none available.

Although much of the day's losses were regained in the last hour of trading, the precipitous decline had disastrous consequences to hundreds of traders. Margin calls went out in a flood, and while commission houses reported that about four out of five were able to put up the cash, the fact that one out of five had to sell out at the low levels indicates huge losses in the aggregate. It was one of the most prosperous days on record for the bears.

The day's business news was meager, and in any case could have had little effect upon such a market. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company surprised Wall street with a plan to offer $225,000,000 in convertible debentures. This company for the past four years had done its financing entirely with large stock offerings. Granby Copper raised its annual dividend rate from $6 to $7. Several railroads reported improved operating results for February. E. B. Reeser, president of the American Petroleum Institute, reported excellent progress in the crude production curtailment program, although an increased output of crude for last week was indicated.

The important individual price movements are too numerous to be catalogued, and only a few samples can be given. Brooklyn Ed made the day's widest break with a loss of 33 points. Adams Express dropped 26 points, then shot up 36 in the last hour.

Coppers were sold heavily for a time, Anaconda and Greene Cananea dropping more than 10 points each, but recovered much of their losses. Radio dropped to 82, then rose to 93, up 1½ points net. American Can dropped to 110 1-8, and closed at 119½, up more than 3 points. General Electric sold down to 219, and rallied to close at 228½, up more than 3 points. General Motors sold off 5 points at one time, but closed practically unchanged. United States Steel, after selling off about 6 points, closed fractionally higher. International Nickel, which showed strong resistance around 50 yesterday, dipped to 40½ and closed just under 44.

Mr. Keating further stated that the outlook for the current year is one of substantial promise. Since the first of January earnings in the various divisions have been in excess of those realized by the predecessor operating units during the same period of 1928, and, as previously stated, further economies are expected to accrue from unification of the recently acquired units.

Transcontinental Air

AT the time we first advised the purchase of Fokker, that stock was selling at $19. Recently it has sold at $44.

We have urged the purchase of Transcontinental Air since it sold at $20. We believe that present buyers at today's prices will reap a splendid profit.

Principal stockholders in Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc. are said to be the Santa Fe and Pennsylvania Railroads and the Wright and Curtis Airplane Companies. The company's executive personnel includes the illustrious Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh.

It is said that some time between May 1st and May 15th this company will inaugurate, in combination with the Pennsylvania and Santa Fe Railroads, a forty-eight hour coast-to-coast service between New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles, saving two days in time, traveling rail by night and 14 passenger transport planes by day.

This opening will no doubt be given volumes of national publicity which we believe should bring a strong advance in the price of this stock.

Getting Closer to YOU and Your Needs

THE FIRST MOVE on our part in serving our Pacific Coast clients closer and more promptly was the establishment last Fall of complete advisory and statistical facilities in our Los Angeles office. That office is fully prepared to serve our clients in all investment matters.

THE SECOND MOVE was to change the mailing date of our Weekly Letters so as to enable us to deliver these to our Western clients at approximately the same time as elsewhere. The use of Air Mail Service gives the added advantage of receiving these Letters on the same day that the New York clients receive them.

These are the first steps in our program of giving quick and complete service to the investors and bankers on the Pacific Coast, at no additional cost. If you are not already a client, investigate our facilities to serve you.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—Curb market stocks today duplicated the wide fluctuations of the "Big Board" securities, opened fairly steady, crashed under the pressure of 20 per cent call money and then rallied before the close. A good number finished behind plus signs, although the day marked the worst credit crisis in nearly ten years.

Trading was not of record proportions, sales totaling 2,210,900, which were exceeded once before this year—on January 28, when 2,356,000 shares changed hands—and several times last year. The record is 3,046,400, established on November 23, 1928.

Losses ranged from fractions to 20 points. At the close, practically all sections of the list shared in the rally, and many of the early declines were either wiped out or reduced to fractions. Aviation and chain store stocks suffered the widest, and the utilities, which were under pressure practically all of last week, led in the recovery.

Ford of Canada, which recently sold up to 1150 on announcement of twenty-for-one stock split-up, sank to 886 and rebounded to close at 890 for a net loss of 21 points. Procter & Gamble broke 20 points, Libby Owen Sheet Glass 10, Budd Manufacturing 11, and Auburn Auto 10. Checker Cab "A" bounded from 65 to close at 74, for a net gain of more than a point.

In the utilities American Super Power "A" slipped down to 88⅛ and snapped back in the rally to 99⅛ for a net gain of more than 3 points. Central States Electric preferred advanced, and Electric Bond and Share closed fractionally higher at 77⅞, after a 4-point drop. Commonwealth Edison was off nearly 5 points and Electric Power and Light nearly 3.

In the heavily sold aviation shares, Alexander Industries, a recent strong performer, touched a new low at 13 and closed at 15⅞, off more than 3 points on the day, and Niles Bement Pond was down nearly 7 points. Fokker and Sikorsky, however, tallied small gains.

Metropolitan Chain Stores was the outstanding weak spot of that group, dropping 6 points. In the radios, Sparks Withington was down 6 and Grigsby-Grunow nearly 10. Goldman Sachs finished with fractional loss, and Fox Theaters a fractional gain.

Mining shares closed under minus signs. Newmont was down nearly 2 points. Losses in the oils were held mostly to fractions.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

Market Street Rail Income Off

Net income of the Market-street Railway Company for the year ended December 31, last, amounted to $129,778 after all charges, equal to $1.12 a share on $11,618,500 of 6 per cent cumulative prior preferred stock outstanding, against $258,158, or $2.22 a share in 1927, according to a statement issued yesterday by the company. Arrears on the prior preferred totaled 40 per cent December 1, last.

Operating revenues totaled $9,754,461 for the year, a decrease of $85,109, or .86 per cent. Passenger receipts dropped sharply during the last two months of the year, due to the inauguration of a new line by the municipal system within two blocks and paralleling the Market-street company's lines. Funded debt was reduced $635,500 to $10,366,000.

Bell Phone Plans New Bond Issue

NEW YORK, March 26 (Exclusive)—American Telephone and Telegraph Company directors have voted to call a special stockholders' meeting for Tuesday, April 30, to authorize the issuance of convertible bonds not to exceed $225,000,000 for the purpose of providing for the redemption of approximately $75,000,000 collateral trust bonds of the company, due July 1, 1929, and for new construction needed by the Bell system to care for additional business resulting from the constantly greater use of telephone service, according to an announcement today by W. S. Gifford, president.

Upon authorization of the issue of these bonds by stockholders and subsequent action by the board of directors fixing the terms of the issue, the bonds to be issued will be offered to stockholders in proportion to their holdings.

DIRECTORATE CHANGED

BOSTON, March 26. (Exclusive) S. H. Bedford, Jr., J. A. Van Wynen and G. S. Rand were elected directors of the Becon Oil Company today supplanting G. E. Hight, Jr., H. E. Plant and G. M. Mosset. Others were re-elected.

BOARD ENLARGED

BOSTON, March 26. (Exclusive) Albert Wiggin, Ray Morris and Lester Watson were elected directors of the American Woolen Company today. The board was increased from seven to nine members.

ATTENTION SECURITIES SALESMEN

One of the oldest and best known Investment Banking Houses on the Pacific Coast is increasing its capital and can use the services of two thoroly experienced securities salesmen to call on its clients and inquiries from investors being received now from large scale publicity being given this issue. (The 21 year earnings and dividend record of the company is making this issue one of the easiest ever sold.)

The men selected from this ad must be of high calibre and possess good address, and will make big money. For interview see:

"The Power of Merged Dollars"

"The Power of Merged Dollars" is a book describing in a simple manner how the merger "idea" with its new-found benefits may be applied with great effectiveness to the financial program of security investors.

CALIFORNIA COMPANY

Before a bond issue is purchased for our own account to offer to our customers, it must first measure up to our own strict standards.
When it is then offered to an individual investor, it must meet that investor's personal requirements.
This careful double scrutiny is one of the principal reasons why you can depend on California Company bonds.

Grain Futures Follow Stocks in Price Drop

CHICAGO, March 26. (Exclusive)—Drastic liquidation developed in the grain markets in sympathy with the break in stock markets, after a showing of strength early, but the highest interest rate on call money led longs to throw their holdings over later regardless of price. With stop-loss orders uncovered in profusion, wheat broke 5⅝@6⅛c and corn 4⅝@5⅝c from the high. Wheat fluctuated ¼@½c between sales at one time, running through stop-loss orders in parts of the pit, while in other parts it was impossible to fill resting orders to buy at higher figures.

Closing trades were at net losses of 2⅞@3c on wheat, with March 1.16⅛, after touching 1.15½ on the break, while May, which sold down to 1.18, was back to 1.19⅞@1.20⅛ at the last, with July 1.23@1.23⅛. Corn was off 2¾@2⅞c, with March 89⅞ and May 92½@92¾, being ⅞@1⅝c above the inside figures. July and September oats sold at a new low on the crop, with the finish at net losses of ⅛@1⅜c, March being 45, May 45½ and July 44⅝, while rye was off 1⅝@2¼c, with March 1.03¼ and May 1.03¾.

The break in the stock market and the high call money market, not only caused a sympathetic decline in grains, but in all other speculative commodities as well. Grain and provision interests have had no trouble in getting all the funds necessary to carry on business and no difficulty in this respect is anticipated, regardless of developments in the stock market. At the inside figures wheat showed 11⅝@13⅞c below the high figure of the 13th inst., and sold the lowest since January 9, while corn has declined 8⅝@9⅝c from the best figures on the 11th inst., and were the lowest since January 8.

Individual operations counted for little during the day, with all classes of traders on the selling side when the markets started to break badly. A feature in wheat was the selling of May and buying of September credited to transferring over of long lines for eastern account, while cash houses bought May and sold July. Export demand was not as large as expected, in view of the break, with sales of 300,000 to 400,000 bushels at seaboard, in addition to 1,000,000 bushels Manitobas late Monday. Winnipeg closed 2⅝@2½c lower and Liverpool was ⅝@⅞d higher, while Buenos Aires was 1⅛c lower. Crop reports from Kansas showed little change, although there was an increase in the number of claims that surface moisture was needed.

A better character of buying appeared on the break in corn than for some time and the impression prevailed that sold out bulls had entered into the market again. Shipping demand was fairly brisk, with sales of 178,000 bushels to local handlers, while purchases of 73,000 bushels were made to arrive. The spot basis was steady to 1c lower. Buenos Aires closed unchanged, after being ½c lower early.

Oats market showed more activity than of late and broke in sympathy with other grains, rallying later on short covering. Rye was weak with other grains and failed to rally to any extent, the close being within a fraction of the low point.

Provisions were irregular. Lard ruled higher, meeting with a fair demand from scattered sources, while bellies were lower as the result of pressure from houses with eastern and cash connections.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, March 26. (Exclusive)—Ignoring the comparatively quiet situation of the foreign markets, crude rubber values on the local exchange were boosted more than a cent in an active trading session today. Opening on an advance of 60 points in all deliveries, the market sagged on profit taking, but turned upward again around midday. The close on seven active deliveries was 80 to 120 points above previous finals. Sales were 1955 contracts or 4875 long tons.

Increased buying in the outside market pushed prices higher and closing spot was up 1c to 22½c. After slight easiness early in the session, London market firmed up and closed unchanged at 11d.

Spring to the Easterner . . every day to the resident of Bel-Air

Golfers winding up on one of the many pretty little paths on the course of Bel-Air Country Club.

Isn't it worth while to live in an outdoor country setting like Bel-Air and still be within the city of Los Angeles. Try to recall other places where there is suburban life with all urban benefits. Where in your travels have you found another Bel-Air? What other residential park is built around a wonderful golf course, and what other section of homesites is backed by mountains with their ever changing colors? Where can you build a home that will offer you a view of the blue Pacific ocean? What would residents of the plains cities of the Middle West not give for an evening atop one of Bel-Air's many knolls looking down on a fairyland of lights of the great city of Los Angeles?

These much sought after attractions are yours in Bel-Air. They can be had in large estates and in small homesites for an average of about twenty thousand dollars an acre.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, March 26. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: With an increasing flow of specifications to the steel mills, producers at Chicago are facing the possibility of extending deliveries even further than twelve weeks and turning down old customers on delivery promises. Specifications in the week just closed were the best in eight years, one producer reports. Specifications continue to pile in upon the makers and deliveries are becoming increasingly difficult to make. Indications are that the car building programs may be interfered with by delays in shipments of raw materials. This may somewhat relieve the tense situation in the steel market at Chicago. Pig iron is in a strong market at Pittsburgh.

Copper is strong but the situation is less tense. Prices are unchanged on the basis of 24c Connecticut. Zinc is showing strength and is quoted from 6.60c @6.65c East St. Louis. Lead is not strong as it has been lately and the market is quoted 7.65@7.80c East St. Louis and [illegible] New York. Tin is quiet at 48.75c for spot and future straits.

METAL PRICES

NEW YORK, March 26. (AP)—Copper quiet; electrolytic spot and future, 24. Iron steady, unchanged. Tin easy; spot and future, 48.62. Lead firm; spot New York, 7.75@8.00; East St. Louis, 7.75@8.00. Zinc firm; East St. Louis spot and future, 6.75. Antimony, 9.75.

RICHFIELD OIL BLAZING TRAIL

Trade With Far Off Pacific Ports Opening Up

Export Goal for 1929 Set at 3,000,000 Cases

Pathfinder to African Coast Sent Out Yesterday

BY WALDO DRAKE

A minimum of 3,000,000 cases of gasoline and kerosene will be exported from Los Angeles Harbor to the Orient, the Antipodes and the African east and west coasts during 1929 by the Richfield Oil Company, it was revealed by Richfield officials yesterday, co-incident with the sailing of the Danish steamer Uranienborg, with 150,000 cases of Richfield gasoline and lubricants for nine west coast of Africa and Indian Ocean ports.

The Uranienborg is the pathfinder for American petroleum products in Africa, but she will be followed, it was announced, by regular shipments to both coasts of Africa that will exceed 1,000,000 cases this year. The Uranienborg's cargo will be distributed among the following ports: Capetown, Beira, Delagoa Bay, Durban, Laurenco Marques, Port Elizabeth, St. Denis, Madagascar; Tamatava, Madagascar, and Port Louis, Mauritius.

Richfield new case-oil trade with the Australian west coast was inaugurated with the departure for Fremantle on the 16th inst. of the British motor ship Neptunian, carrying 22,450 cases and 5051 drums of kerosene. Annual exports to this range will equal that of the African market, it was said.

Approximately 1,000,000 cases of gasoline and kerosene will be sent to China and Japan this year also by Richfield, in addition to the company's bulk oil contract with the Kwang Wha Petroleum Company. Chartered vessels will be used exclusively by the company in all three trades, it was announced.

CONTRACT LET FOR REMOVAL OF DERELICT

Contract to raise the sunken whaling tanker Washtenaw from alongside Berth 94 has been awarded by the government to Capt. A. A. Morris and Fred Henderson, it was announced yesterday by Maj. C. P. Gross, U.S.A., district engineer at Los Angeles.

The contract, which was for $42,500, was signed, sent to Washington and on its return the salvagers will be given thirty days to start work and 110 to complete it. The craft will belong to them. The tanker sank mysteriously September 21, 1928, on the eve of its departure to whaling fields, and title was forfeited to the government.

Completing repairs at Bethlehem shipyards ahead of schedule, the Nippon Tankers oil carrier Koyo Maru loaded and sailed yesterday for Yokohama, twelve days after she went in for repairs. The job required replacing eleven plates at a cost of $31,500. The tanker was in collision last month with the British steamer Fishpool in the outer harbor.

Johnson motor liner Margaret Johnson from Sweden yesterday disembarked twenty-one of her forty-five passengers, including seven from the beleaguered city of Mazatlan. The rebel attack began before the ship sailed and firing was reported general the night the liner left. One American practically destitute was given passage personally by Capt. David Lilljequist.

Italian motor liner Pella in yesterday from the Mediterranean, disembarked Irving Asher, studio manager, and Maj. Frank M. Ballard, Canadian officer of Vancouver and Santa Barbara. Petris Stefano, first mate, was on the bridge, vice-Capt. E. Malonotti, ill at Marseilles.

Largest cargo ever dispatched from Los Angeles to the Orient, 5255 tons, will go out for North China today on the Oceanic & Oriental freighter, Golden Star, operated by American Hawaiian Steamship Company. Items include 100,000 cases of kerosene, 800 drums of naphtha, 2000 drums of gasoline, 500 tons of cotton for Kobe and 500 tons of old newspapers. More than 2000 tons at San Francisco will give the ship its capacity of 8188 tons. The Los Angeles cargo exceeds a January record by 100 tons, and typifies this port's predominance in offerings to Orient-bound O. & O. ships. A respite will see the Golden Sun next here, April 2, to load for South China.

Sympathy of shipping circles went out to W. H. Wickersham, pioneer broker, and his family, following the death at their home yesterday of their daughter, Miss Jane Wickersham, of blood poisoning. She was a student in San Pedro High School, where she was active in dramatics, music and tennis. She is survived by her parents and brother, Howard, and an aunt, pending whose arrival from the East, funeral arrangements have been delayed.

NAVY NEWS

The battle fleet will be minus Battleship Division Three, of which four ships are now on the east coast in varying stages of modernization, until March 15, 1930, when the "revamped" division will join the flag of Admiral Louis Mc. Nulton during the United States fleet concentration at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

This announcement by the Navy Department sets at rest reports that the flagship New York would during the summer return to the local base with the Oklahoma and Nevada, now nearing completion of modernization at the Philadelphia and Norfolk navy yards. The Pennsylvania and Arizona, to be replaced in the Third Division by the Oklahoma and Nevada, have just arrived on the Atlantic for $15,000,000 modernization at the above yards. Battleship Division Three has therefore been assigned to the scouting fleet until next March.

On next year's cruise, the battle fleet will depart Los Angeles Harbor February 15; hold maneuvers with the combined United States fleet off Guantamano during March and April; visit New York from May 8 to 18; and return to this base about June 14.

Personnel of the anual Navy selection board, of which Admiral William V. Pratt, commander-in-chief of the battle fleet, will be the head, has been announced by the Navy Department, which directs the board to convene June 3 at Washington to recommend line officers for promotion to the grades of rear-admiral, captain and commander. The detail, in addition to Admiral Pratt, follows:

Vice-Admiral Montgomery M. Taylor, and Rear-Admirals Louis R. De Steiguer, Charles B. McVay, Jr., Henry H. Hough, Joel R. P. Pringle, Frank B. Upham, David F. Sellers and Joseph M. Reeves, with Commander Charles M. Cooke, Jr., as recorder. The board is expected to name five new rear-admirals, fifteen captains and twenty-five commanders.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

The Plymouth Oil Company, which is drilling in oil sand in its deep test on the east side at Santa Fe Springs, has the good fortune yesterday to recomplete its Liberty No. 3 well on Anderson street at Signal Hill, as a 2100-barrel producer of 30-deg. gravity oil.

The hole was taken down to 7024 feet after it had produced for some time in an upper zone. The gas output of the new well is rated as being 3,000,000 cubic feet a day.

Reports Good Prospect

W. F. Beal, president of the Imperial Valley Petroleum Corporation, which is drilling a semiwildcat well a short distance from Brawley, in Imperial Valley, reports that the hole is down 2550 feet, and is getting encouraging showings of gas and oil.

The old Brawley wildcat, near which this hole is being drilled, showed oil and gas at 2650 feet. It is believed that the new hole is farther down on the structure, and that it should, therefore, pick up an oil sand at about 2750 feet.

Watchful Waiting

Failure yesterday of the Vance No. 1 well of the Standard Oil Company in the Lawndale field to develop into a producer resulted in a watchful waiting attitude being adopted for other wells in the same area.

The Standard's well showed no gas or oil after being bailed to 4200 feet. It is now standing, pending decision as to drilling deeper.

Nearly sixty wells have felt the disappointing showing of the Standard's well. The Vance No. 1 is just east of the Peck No. 1 well, which is a producer. The Petroleum Securities Company yesterday shut down its Brown No. 1 well.

Water Shut-off Test

The Schwuchow No. 1 well of the Petroleum Securities Company, near Redondo Villa, has been cemented at 3800 feet and will be given a water shut-off test in a few days.

Good Showing

The H. B. No. 25 well of the Western Oil and Refining Company at Huntington Beach, which is down 3700 feet, filled with oil yesterday after the water had been bailed down seventy feet. A six-inch liner is being run and a production test will be made in three or four days, it is asserted.

To Swab

A production test is to be made today in the No. 18 well of George F. Getty, Inc., at Santa Fe Springs. It is down 6870 feet and tubing was being run yesterday. The No. 21 well of the same operators, down 7036 feet and cemented at 6925 feet, began flowing water yesterday. The water shut-off test was not a success, so the hole was recemented.

To Recement

Leaking badly around the shoe, according to field reports, the Brunson No. 2 well of the California Eastern Oil Company at Santa Fe Springs, will be recemented today at 5933 feet. Bottom is at 7025 feet.

Lawndale Summary

Eighteen rigs stand completed in the Lawndale field. Forty-two wells are drilling, fifteen are idle and two are producing. Six new locations have been approved and are being prepared for construction of derricks.

Locations Made

Two new locations have been made by the Pacific Western Oil Company in the Kettleman Hills field. On Section 12 the site for the No. 27 well is being graded, and material for the derrick is on the ground. Location for the No. 54 well on Section 34 is also being prepared.

Will Drill Soon

The Landle No. 3 well of the Commodore Petroleum Company in the Santa Fe Springs field is now down 4800 feet. Four new wells will be drilled on the same tract. Locations for the new oil wells have been approved and work starts immediately.

The Wilshire Oil Company is drilling for the Commodore Oil Company in this development.

Good Producer

The Commodore Oil Company brought in its Babbinette No. 3 well at Santa Fe Springs Sunday from the Buckbee sand, making 4000 barrels of oil per day.

The Babbinette No. 5 well will be spudded in soon. Drilling is going ahead in Randall No. 3 well, which is down 5509 feet. Rotary is being rigged for the Randell No. 4 well and also for the Babbinette No. 4 well.

In Wet Sand

The Roberts No. 1 well of the Plymouth Oil Company, at Santa Fe Springs, had yesterday drilled into sixty-five feet of saturated oil sand, and four and three-quarters inch pipe now is being set for a production test. The hole is down 7800 feet in the Clark zone.

A week ago the Roberts No. 1 well was tied up with a fishing job. It is being watched closely by operators because it is the deepest test that has been made in the eastern part of the field.

Production Test

A water test soon is to be made in the No. 1 well of the Earl Petroleum Corporation at Lawndale, now down 5901 feet. Water sand was drilled into, and being run

FANNY LEA BASKING IN SOUTHLAND

Writer Here for Month to Study Country She Has Just Gone Through Before

Fanny Heaslip Lea, short-story writer who, in her quest for story material, has traveled to many corners of the world, is not acquainted with Los Angeles and Southern California. She confessed that herself yesterday at the Ambassador, where she has just arrived for a one-month stay.

"I have passed through here many times," she said, "but my comings and goings have been most transitory; from train to boat and from boat to train, you know. But now I am here for a real long stay and I mean to drink my fill of your wonderful Southland before I go back to New York."

But Miss Lea's sojourn will not be entirely given over to pleasure, she explained.

"I am, I confess, most deeply interested in motion pictures and, since the advent of the talkies I have evolved an idea for a story built around talking pictures. I am here to study, first hand, the technique of that new motion-picture art for my story. It will be hard work but I mean to find the time to go places in this sunshine country of yours and to see for myself the many wonders of which I hear so much."

But a whole day in which the writer could have enjoyed Southern California scenery was lost yesterday through the nonarrival of her trunk, which, through an inadvertence, has not kept pace with Miss Lea's train progress across the country.

Miss Haver May Delay Wedding

Although April 24 had been fixed tentatively for the wedding of Phyllis Haver to William Seeman, wealthy merchant of New York, it was said yesterday the date may have to be changed due to unforeseen delays in the making of her present picture at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio.

According to her mother, Miss Haver does not wish to announce a definite date until the picture is completed. The marriage, when it occurs, will be performed by Mayor Walker at the home of Rube Goldberg, cartoonist.

She will be accompanied on the trip to New York by her mother. Miss Haver is giving up a picture career, which she began as a Mack Sennett bathing beauty, for marriage.

PUBLICITY PALM GIVEN ANGEL CITY

Chicago Expert Declares City Best Advertised of Any in Whole World

Los Angeles yesterday was described as the most widely advertised city in the world. And that compliment came from William D. McJunkin, president of the McJunkin Advertising Company of widely advertised Chicago. Mr. McJunkin was one of two speakers at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Los Angeles Advertising Club at the Biltmore yesterday. His subject was "Random Shots by An Old-Timer."

"Advertising is a great economical force," Mr. McJunkin told his hearers. "A good advertisement always is written briefly and to the point and it always has a convincing tone," the advertising expert declared.

On the same program was O. C. Harn, managing director of the Audit Bureau of Circulation, also of Chicago, who described the organization of his bureau fourteen years ago, the nature of its work and some of its accomplishments. "Circulation liars," was the term he used to describe a certain type of publisher of the old days who falsified circulation figures in order to gain advertising and to increase advertising rates.

The advent of the Audit Bureau of Circulation has decimated the ranks of the circulation liars, he said, but he assured his hearers that the species is not extinct. Mr. Harn was the winner of the 1927 Bok gold medal for distinguished service rendered American commerce and industry through raising the standards of advertising.

Arcadia Pleads Water of Ranch Hurting Values

Water from the huge Baldwin Ranch in Arcadia, which sweeps down Duarte Road and Baldwin avenue during rains, was diverted illegally from its natural course by owners of the ranch, according to Arcadia city officials, who laid their complaint before Supervisor Beaty and County Road Superintendent Jones yesterday.

As a result property values in the areas have been affected adversely, it is stated, and some relief from the county is thought necessary.

Supervisor Beaty promised county officials will aid the Arcadia officials, and advised them to take the matter before Flood Control Engineer Eaton.

With Mayor Multer of Arcadia was G. C. Watson, City Engineer, and Attorney Leslie Tarr, special counsel for the city.

Old City Hall Lot Leased as Parking Place

The City Council finally disposed of the lease of the site of the old City Hall for a parking station yesterday by voting to grant it to James Lloyd, who offered to pay $2750 a month for it. The lease will be nominally for five years, but it will contain a sixty-day cancellation clause.

During the discussion of the lease yesterday it was brought out that the Council has not abandoned its intention to sell the site when it considers the time opportune, and that was the purpose in including the cancellation clause. The sale is being deferred at present because of the belief that if a definite decision is reached to locate the new State building in the civic center area the value of the old City Hall site will be enhanced.

PARK TO BE SCENE OF EASTER SERVICE

Roosevelt Memorial Park will be the scene of an Easter sunrise service Sunday at 5:15 a.m. The park is at South Vermont avenue and One Hundred and Eighty-second street. The program will be under direction of C. Harold Dick, organist.

GUARD'S REQUEST MET

The City Council yesterday approved the request of Col. Harcourt Hervey, commander of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry, California National Guard, that all city employees who are members of the regiment and can be spared from their duties shall be given leave of absence with pay to attend the annual encampment of the regiment, July 30 to August 4.

OIL CONSERVING DRIVE LAUNCHED

Three Hundred Operators to Pinch Down Wells

Leaders from All Parts of State Gather Here

Session at Alexandria Names Van Deinse Umpire

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

Three hundred oil operators from all parts of the State voluntarily agreed last night at a mass meeting in the Alexandria to pinch down their wells in order that there may be no unreasonable wastage of gas during the remainder of the year, and to bring about a production curtailment of at least 142,000 barrels of crude per day.

At the conclusion of the meeting Fred C. Van Deinse, former president of the old Ventura Refining Company, but more recently in the chain hotel business, was chosen as umpire for California, with the understanding that committees to be chosen by the operators in each field are to work with him in the prevention of gas wastage, the assumption being that if surplus gas is held in the ground there naturally will be brought about the desired curtailment of oil production.

It was pointed out by R. A. Broomfield, president of the Chamber of Mines and Oil, under the auspices of which the operators were brought together, that for some time upward of 400,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas per day have been going to waste in California, because of flush production from new wells.

FIELDS TO BE CUT BACK

Under a plan submitted by Herbert Macmillan of Long Beach the production of California fields is to be immediately cut back as follows: Elwood from 29,000 to 20,000 barrels per day, Santa Fe Springs from 172,000 to 125,000 barrels, Signal Hill from 183,000 to 140,000, Ventura from 56,000 to 51,000, Seal Beach from 38,000 to 33,000, Kern River from 17,500 to 13,500 and all other fields in the State from 298,000 to 270,000 barrels per day, to bring about a daily curtailment of 142,000 barrels from the present daily average output.

It was pointed out that California now is producing approximately 800,000 barrels of oil per day, with 3549 wells shut in or pinched down to the point where they are holding 138,000 barrels a day of potential production in the ground. Speakers stressed the fact that 605,000 barrels of oil per day from California would easily supply her natural markets, and that whenever the State produces a great deal more than that it has to export it at absurdly low prices. One marketer declared that after paying for transportation through the canal to the Atlantic seaboard, a California oil producer nets about 35 cents a barrel for the best of fuel oil which, compared with the fuel value of coal, should easily be worth $1.50 a barrel.

WANT TO GOVERN SELVES

The sense of the meeting was to the effect that California oil producers do not invite State or Federal regulation by drastic law, preferring to govern themselves if possible, through co-operation. They propose to support the enactment of a law which will make unlawful the unreasonable wastage of gas, and will undertake to curtail oil production by the umpire, backed up by the statute where operators are unwilling to work in harmony.

The Kettleman Hills field was declared to be a menace to the entire industry because of its potentialities, and it was asserted by several persons at the meeting that the government has asked the Standard Oil Company of California to call off its big drilling program in that district except in cases where the drilling of wells is absolutely necessary. Telegrams from Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, Gov. Young and others, urging the oil operators to conserve the State's gas supply, were read.

It is expected that the proposed legislation will obligate the lessor as well as the lessee and oil operator to see to it that natural gas is

JURY TRIAL RULING SOUGHT

Attorney Wants to Have Court Decide Fraud Case, But State Refuses to Consent

Whether the State can force a defendant in a criminal case to undergo a jury trial is a question raised yesterday in Judge Monahan's court in the case of William Aydelotte, attorney accused of defrauding Virginia Hiddleson of $7600.

Arthur B. Rose, attorney for Aydelotte, waived a jury trial when the case was called yesterday, but Dep. Dist.-Atty. Veitch refused to enter a stipulation agreeing that the case may be decided by the court. Following the failure of the State and defense to reach an agreement on the point, Judge Monahan continued the case to April 6, and in the meantime Atty. Rose will ask the Appellate Court for a ruling on the jury issue.

Briefly, the question to be placed before the higher court for decision will be whether the State can force a jury trial if the defendant wishes to be tried only by the court.

The appeal is regarded at the Courthouse as being of great importance in its relation to the recently adopted California law providing that juries may be waived in criminal cases. The law generally is interpreted, however, as meaning that such a waiver may be entered into only upon stipulation of the State and defense, made in open court with the consent of the defendant.

Aydelotte already has been tried on the charge and convicted, but a new trial was granted by Judge Bishop.

Divorce Gains Called Omen of Decadence

"If the cancerous growth of divorce continues to eat into the vitals of our national life, we have no reason to assume that the destiny of our country will be different from that of pagan Babylon, Athens and Rome," declared Dr. Walter A. Maier of Concordia Lutheran Seminary in an address yesterday noon at Philharmonic Auditorium.

"There were twenty-four times as many divorces in our so-called Christian country last year as there were in Canada," said Dr. Maier. "The open Bible and family altar seem as far away from many homes as the present generation of girls is from long skirts and long hair.

"The present situation is largely due to men who call themselves preachers and teachers and who rise up, openly and brazenly, to picture the home life that we all know and love as a discarded vestige of a backward yesterday, and begin to champion woman's entire independence of domestic duties, self-expression among children, the public dissemination of birth control information, the blessings of divorce and the indorsement of other conditions which really amount to promiscuous relations and free love."

ORDINANCE TO HIT VEGETABLE STANDS

On recommendation of its Health and Sanitation Committee the City Council yesterday instructed the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance prohibiting the use of newspapers or other soiled paper for the wrapping of vegetables, bakery products or other articles of food. It also will prohibit the use of newspapers or other soiled paper as covering for tables or counters.

Edward S. Harkness Donates Fund to Colleges as Drive for $15,000,000 Nears End

A gift of $1,000,000 by Edward S. Harkness, New York railroad magnate, toward the permanent endowment fund for six Near East colleges comprising the Near East College Association, was announced here yesterday by Mrs. Frank H. Vanderlip of New York and Palos Verdes.

The gift is a personal tribute to the late Cleveland H. Dodge and brings the association within $2,500,000 of the $15,000,000 goal, Mrs. Vanderlip announced.

CONDITIONAL GIFT

Mr. Harkness's donation is conditional on the completion of the fund by July 1, closing date for the campaign established by Mr. Dodge before his death.

The colleges to benefit by the endowment fund are Roberts College, Constantinople Woman's College, both in Constantinople; the American University of Beirut, International College of Smyrna, the American College of Sofia and Athens College, Greece.

According to sponsors of the association the colleges now are 50 per cent self-supporting from student fees and the endowment fund is expected to end all financial drives for the Near East institutions.

CITY ASKED TO PROVIDE NEW ARTERY

Boulevard Connecting Beverly Hills Area With Culver City Petitioned For

The City Council was petitioned yesterday to institute proceedings under the Mattoon Act for the opening, widening and improving of Beverly Drive between Pico Boulevard and Exposition Boulevard. The petition is signed by owners of 456 parcels of property out of a total of 635 in the assessment district.

The petition requests that the new highway be made 100 feet wide and asks for the opening, widening and improving of Monte Mar Place between its present terminus northeast of Monte Mar Terrace and Beverly Drive. The extension of Beverly Drive will, it is set forth, provide a direct connection between Beverly Hills and Culver City.

The City Council is asked to make an allocation of $100,000 from public funds toward the projects, which would be 20 per cent of the estimated cost assessable against property within the city limits of Los Angeles.

The improvement is indorsed by the chambers of commerce of Beverly Hills, Culver City, Inglewood and Ventura Boulevard and the San Fernando branch of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

R. F. Del Valle, Will E. Keller, William P. Whitsett, William Mulholland, E. F. Scattergood, F. E. Weymouth, C. A. Heinze, William G. Bonelli, P. M. Hall, Jess E. Stephens, Shannon Crandall, W. B. Mathews, L. M. Anderson, H. A. Van Norman, J. Hunter Clark, George E. Eastman and C. A. Dykstra.

PROPERTY RIGHTS DEFINED

Greenwood Case Verdict Fixes Boundary Lines for Separate and Community Holdings

When a married woman turns over to her husband money which is her separate property, with the intention that the husband invest it, he becomes her trustee and she may follow up the money into whatever property it may have been changed and make the husband account to her.

However, when the wife's intention in turning over the property is to commingle it with the husband's separate property, or with the community property to be invested in joint enterprises, the money loses its character as separate property and becomes community property.

DIVISION RULE

If afterward there is a settlement of the property rights and all the property of the parties is included in it, such a settlement covers not only community property but all the property rights of the parties, even though the separate property contributed by the wife is not directly mentioned.

The above rules were laid down yesterday by Superior Judge Yankwich when he decided in favor of the defendant in the action of Victoria R. Greenwood against S. J. Greenwood, in which Mrs. Greenwood sought an accounting from her divorced husband for the sum of $7274.25, which she had inherited from her parents and which she had turned over to him for investment in 1912.

JACOBSON GIVES VERSION OF RAID

He Declares "Blow on Neck" Pitched Him on Bed

Forcible Disrobing Charged to Group of Officers

Defense Tears Into Story of Accused Councilman

Councilman Jacobson's own story of his arrest on a morals charge eighteen months ago, told from the witness stand in Superior Judge Wood's court at the trial of five police officers and others charged with "framing" him was under intense fire from the defense on the adjournment yesterday.

The attack on the Councilman's direct testimony for the prosecution followed a detailed version of the affair by him in which he denied in practically every detail testimony of the first two State's witnesses.

While he probably will be on the stand for another day, the prosecution announced that Mrs. Jacobson and a daughter, Edna Jacobson, will be the next witnesses called by the State.

With an outburst of tears when he went to the witness stand, Jacobson declared he went to the Beagle-street home of Mrs. Callie Grimes in August, 1927, to discuss street assessments. He was inspecting the home, he said, "when something happened." He awoke to find himself disrobed and in the custody of officers, he testified.

"SLAP ON NECK"

"She suggested," he said on direct examination, "that we go through the house. We went into the hallway, saw the bathroom and she asked me if I wanted a drink of whisky. I told her that I did not drink.

"About the time she was showing me the bedroom and as I started to step into it I was given a slap on the neck and fell onto the bed.

"Next thing I remembered there were four flashlights in the room, like lights coming out of a dim fog. Wallis (Capt. Bert Wallis, one of the defendants,) was standing in the room with my trousers over his arm. I started to get my glasses, which had fallen under a piece of furniture, and someone slapped my hand.

"I had one shoe on and the other off. It was jerked loose when my trousers were pulled off. Then I heard someone say: 'Jerk his collar off!'

FRAMING CHARGED

"Then I saw Wallis again and I told him that I had been 'framed,' and that it would remain to be seen whether my reputation would stand against theirs."

After the prosecution had taken the highlights of Jacobson's testimony, Dept. Dist.-Atty. Dennison surrendered him for cross-examination.

"Didn't you say to former Police Commissioner Webster that you were guilty, but that you fell into a trap?" Attorney Schenck asked.

"No such statement was made," the witness replied. "I said I was framed."

While Schenck represents R. J. Lucas, a former officer, the examination, it was agreed, is being conducted in behalf also of the remaining defendants, who, in addition to Mrs. Grimes, are Captains of Detectives Wallis and Williams, former Police Investigator Raymond, Detective Cox, Charles Crawford, a Hollywood politician, and Albert Marco, convicted vice ruler.

STATEMENT SOUGHT

"Didn't you say," continued Schenck, "to former Police Commissioner Webster that you did not believe the officers who arrested you did the 'framing' and also say that they had been nice to you?"

"Yes," Jacobson said, "I said that because I realized that I was not the first one to take a ride with Lucas and the rest of them and I wanted to keep them in good humor. I didn't know what would happen to me."

"Didn't you say also to Webster that you were guilty of the charge but that a trap had been set for you?"

"No, I did not."

Jacobson said neither Mrs. Grimes nor any other woman was in the room when he was in there, nor did he see Mrs. Grimes wrapped in a bed sheet in the bedroom immediately after the raid.

DENIAL VOICED

"Didn't you say to Nathan that you were 'ruined'?"

"No, I did not."

"Didn't you later say to two reporters at your home, when they asked about the trousers being off, something about that being water already over the wheel, and for NACO—What gamblers admire is a good sport. They have great scorn for the squealer who loses and cries.

I have been witnessing the Spartan strength with which the fraternity loses. When the Mexican officials closed down the roulette wheels at Naco I can truthfully say that the gamblers all bore the blow without a whimper—because a whimper does not describe it. They cried and screeched and sobbed and bellowed.

Professional gamblers are the gamest little winners in the world, but as losers they act like fretful old women suffering from corns.

HIST! A SPY!

The war on the border has a complicated spy system.

The Consul of the Mexican government sits in his office across the line and watches the opposing army through the windows.

When anything happens his agents stampede across to give him the secret information. Everybody on both sides knows who all the secret agents are; so that saves a good deal of mental wear and tear on both sides. I have an awful suspicion that sometimes the spies do a little business for both sides—on the railroad principle that it is wasteful policy to send back empties.

WISTFUL DARKIES

The negro troops at Naco are sick at heart—at this writing. It is the refinement of torture for them to know that a grand free fight is going on within plain view across the line and they not in it.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS

Naco has seen so many battles that it does not interfere with their regular routine of life.

On Wednesday when the fiercest panic alarm came in, two amateur baseball pitchers spent the morning practicing in-shoots down the empty streets.

NACO'S HOLLYWOOD

Naco has a section called "Hollywood," but the tortures of the inquisition could not wring from me the awful secret of what that section is devoted to. Or what occupation the young ladies follow.

CRUELTIES OF WAR

The one wild alarm that is felt along the border is that the cruel war may interfere with this season's quail shooting. They consider it mighty inconsiderate that the rebels could not have shown a decent regard for the kind of shooting that uses real bullets instead of propaganda and stump speeches.

Man Killed in Elevator Cage

Crushed in a doorless elevator cage yesterday Frederico Meza, 70 years of age, who lived at the corner of East Fourth and Pecan streets, died before the arrival of an ambulance. Meza was suffering with toothache and was on his way to a dentist in the Higgins Building, Second and Spring streets.

Rev. Lucian Gonzalez, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Guadalupe, escorted Meza into an elevator. When the car started upward, the priest said Meza fainted and fell headfirst through the doorway of the elevator cage. The elderly man's head struck a second-floor projection and was crushed, police reported.

An ambulance took the body to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital from where it was sent to the Coroner. The elevator operator, R. F. Rosche, was not blamed by the police.

ENGAGED YOUTH KILLED IN PLANE

Wedding Was to Have Taken Place in May

Unlicensed "Jenny" Proves Death Trap

Body Badly Burned as Fire Destroys Craft

Death flew between P. Sumner Brown, Jr., son of a prominent Los Angeles real estate broker, and his fiancee, Miss Maude Ryan, when the airplane young Brown was piloting crashed to the ground yesterday morning near Telegraph Road and the Simons brickyard.

The 21-year-old flyer was killed instantly and his body burned to such an extent in the resulting fire that identification was not established for more than a hour after the crash.

Miss Ryan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan, of 555 Muirfield Road, announced the engagement of their daughter on the 12th inst. The wedding was to take place on May 29, next, and was a coming event of note in Los Angeles society circles.

WILL ASK INSPECTION

Following the fatal air plunge Coroner Frank Nance announced he will ask the Board of Supervisors to pass an ordinance providing for the inspection of all airplanes in the county.

A similar request was made of the Supervisors last year, according to Coroner Nance, but the matter was tabled without definite action being taken. Under existing laws, he said, Federal authorities are the only persons authorized to inspect airplanes and their duties are confined to planes engaged in interstate commerce.

Young Brown was killed when he took off in an old training plane to fly it to another airport, where he intended to borrow an air spray painting machine, the boy's father said yesterday.

The plane was owned by Larry Gillis, who was to have let Brown fly in return for reconditioning the plane, according to the father. The elder Brown said his son learned to fly four years ago, but had not been flying steadily since he completed his course.

IN POOR CONDITION

It was with the purpose of putting in enough solo hours in the air to qualify as a licensed pilot that young Brown agreed to work on the plane. He told his father, Mr. Brown stated, that the old plane was in poor shape, but that he had rewired it and believed it to be airworthy.

President Blair of the California Aircraft Operators' Association of Southern California said through his secretary that the crashed plane was a Jenny and was not licensed. Gillis, Blair reported, is not a member of the association.

Witnesses who viewed the accident said Brown cranked the plane and took off alone, circling the field at a low altitude, just clearing a power line along its border.

IDENTIFIED BY WATCH

Approaching the Simons brickyard, the plane faced another barrier of power lines and Brown attempted to zoom the plane over it, but it stalled and sideslipped to the ground, breaking into flames at once. A wrist watch provided identification of Brown's burned body.

J. S. Romo, an employee of the brickyard, rushed to the plane in an attempt to rescue the flyer, but the latter was burned beyond recognition by the time Romo and others arrived.

Time of funeral services for Brown will be announced today. It was stated at the family residence at 731 South New Hampshire avenue, where the flyer resided, that the services will be conducted from the Brown home under the direction of the Frank E. Geiger Company.

Besides his parents young Brown leaves a brother, Andrew Brown, and a sister, Dorothy Brown, all of Los Angeles.

them not to talk so loud because your wife might hear?"

"No, I did not."

After the arrest Jacobson was taken to the police intelligence bureau, where former Dist.-Atty. Keyes was called by the officers. There Keyes is asserted to have offered to take a statement and Jacobson replied that he would tell who "framed me when the proper time comes."

"Keyes told you that he would see that you got a chance, didn't he?" Schenck asked, "and, as a matter of fact, did go to the grand jury?"

"Yes," Jacobson said.

ADVICE OF COUNSEL

"And you refused to testify on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate you?"

"On the advice of counsel, yes."

"Didn't you say to Nathan that you were like a mouse after cheese in a trap and you got your neck broke?"

"I did not."

"Didn't you say to Nathan, 'Can't we fix this thing up?' and he said you had better not offer them money or you might get in trouble for bribery?"

"That is not so."

On the adjournment of court the attorney was continuing his attack on Jacobson with the latter's grand jury testimony, and the defense forces last night were organized to keep up the fire throughout today.

STORM AROUSED

In the final direct examination of the Councilman, Dennison got into a tiff with counsel for Mrs. Grimes. He had asked the witness if he had "seen Callie there."

"We object," stormed Attorney Dase, counsel for the woman. "He's trying to belittle this defendant by that use of her name." When the uproar subsided Dennison apologized.

"Why, I beg your pardon," he said. "'Twas said only in a moment of absent-mindedness and in affection."

Further examination of Jacobson brought other denials of former testimony in the record, and he declared that he did not send for any public officials on the night of his arrest, and that he did not demand to be taken to the police commissioner's home.

Before surrendering the witness to the defense, Dennison asked Jacobson the color of his underwear on the night of the arrest. He said it was light gray.

"You're sure it wasn't red?"

NERVOUSNESS SHOWN

When Jacobson was called to go to the witness stand he arose promptly from a seat beside his wife, passed by the bailiff's desk where he poured a drink of water for himself, refilled the glass and took it to the box. He appeared slightly nervous, a condition which became aggravated as the examination progressed.

The preliminary questions of the direct examination hardly were disposed of before the first fireworks exploded from the defense ranks. Several attorneys protested they could not hear what Jacobson was saying.

"He'll talk loud enough when he gets started and he'll tell plenty," Dennison growled.

"Well, he hasn't shown much inclination to do so before," Attorney White retorted.

"I object to that," Jacobson said to Judge Wood and received a rebuke from the court. Order was restored presently.

"How long have you known Rodney Webster," Dennison asked Jacobson, "and have you had any conversation with him?"

"I have met him once or twice," the witness replied; "once at a Police Commission meeting where we had quite a rumpus over a letter I had written to the commission."

"You met him again on the night you were arrested. What did he say then?"

"When he joined me in the car in front of his house that night he said: 'Well, Councilman, it doesn't pay to write letters to the Police Commission and have them published, does it?'"

BRIBE OFFER CHARGED

Jacobson also testified that he met Marco in 1926 near the City Council rooms and that the so-called vice ruler at first offered him $10,000 to refrain from his anti-vice attacks. Jacobson said the amount later was raised to $25,000.

"Marco made a statement as to what it would be worth to me to lay down on the work I was doing in the Council, and I told him that money meant nothing to me, $25,000 looked the same as 1 cent as far as I was concerned."

"Do you know Callie Grimes?" Dennison asked.

"Yes, I met her in July, 1927, at the City Hall."

The Councilman then explained that he met the woman while a group of residents in the vicinity of Beagle street were in the Council chambers protesting against proposed street improvements in the district. There he got her telephone number and address, he said.

MEETING DESCRIBED

According to the testimony Mrs. Grimes approached Jacobson saying that he should recognize her because she is an aunt of Hubert Russell, a boy to whom Jacobson became attached because of a strong resemblance to his dead son.

Young Russell lived with his family at Indio several years ago and met Jacobson while the latter was an engineer on the railroad in that town.

First tears from Jacobson came on the witness stand when the references were made to the Russell boy and his dead son. Under heavy emotional strain, the Councilman removed his glasses and wiped away the tears with a handkerchief. His voice quavered and he was unable to resume his testimony for some time.

Again in control of his nerves and emotions Jacobson gulped a swallow of water and resumed narration of Mrs. Grimes's asserted efforts to "lure" him to an apartment. He refused to go, he said.

TELEPHONE CALL

Later, he testified she called him at his home, and urged him to come to her Beagle-street cottage to discuss the pending street assessment. He agreed to visit her, and his testimony was dealing with preparations to depart from his home when court adjourned at noon.

Throughout his preliminary testimony, in which he was willing and voluble, the defense kept up a constant cross-fire of objections. Jacobson failed to halt his speaking when the objections arose on several occasions and the court remonstrated with him.

SHERIFF GIVEN PROBLEM AS JUVENILES DELUGE JAIL

Unless accommodations in State institutions set aside for the confinement of juveniles convicted of various crimes are increased at once, sixty youthful prisoners in the County Jail may have to spend several years there before they can be delivered to State authorities and start serving their sentences, according to Sheriff Traeger.

So serious is the situation, Traeger said, that he is leaving for Sacramento today for a conference with State officials in an effort to find some way to remedy the difficulty.

The prisoners have been delivered into the custody of the Sheriff from time to time by the courts with instructions to transport them to the Preston School of Industry at Ione, where they are to serve specified sentences.

But officials of the school decline to accept any more prisoners except occasionally when a vacancy arises and the Sheriff is confronted with the problem of keeping the juveniles prisoners in the County Jail indefinitely.

At the same time the youths face the outlook of a long sentence in the Preston School of Industry after they have waited transportation in the County Jail for many months.

Sheriff Traeger long has contended that special provisions should be made for such prisoners, segregating them completely from hardened criminals, with whom they frequently come in contact in the County Jail. At present the juveniles are kept in a special tank, but the segregation is not so effective as it should be, the Sheriff says.

McCLELLAN ORDERED TO SIGN BONDS

Palos Verdes Library District Wins Action in Appellate Court

Public libraries are as necessary to communities as public schools, the Appellate Court held in effect, when it ruled that public hearings to decide the boundaries of library districts are not necessary, as they are in street-lighting or park-improvement districts. The court upheld a decision ordering Supervisor McClellan to sign the bonds, and validate them for sale.

The case was that of the Palos Verdes Library district against Supervisor McClellan, who refused to sign $90,000 worth of 5 1-2 per cent library district bonds so a friendly suit could be arranged to determine the legality of the securities. Although the Library Bonding Act was passed in 1909, no bonds ever had been sold in the State. Assistant County Counsel O'Connor prepared the brief for the library district and argued the case before the Appellate Court.

Wrecked Car's Owner Refutes Tale of Death

Mystery surrounding the fate of W. G. Winhall of 6128 Long street, whose overturned automobile was found near Fillmore last Sunday, leading Ventura county authorities to believe he might have been killed, was dispelled here yesterday when Winhall announced he is very much alive.

Winhall, who is an employee of the Wetherby-Kayser Shoe Company, was driving with Mrs. Winhall when he crashed through a bridge as he attempted to avoid collision with another car stalled on the Fillmore road. Winhall's car turned over twice and he and Mrs. Winhall narrowly escaped death.

Shortly after the accident, the shoe man said, the couple were picked up by a passing machine and taken to Pasadena. Ventura county authorities found the wrecked machine and began checking morgues and hospitals to find the bodies.

DESERTION CHARGED

Mrs. Helen Louise Reynolds was granted a divorce from Earl Douglas Reynolds by Superior Judge Westover yesterday after the wife testified that her husband deserted her on July 16, 1927, and was convicted on a charge of forgery on November 23, 1928. The couple wed on January 26, 1921, according to the complaint.

JOINT ESTATE LAW DEFINED

that on October 26, 1925, in a suit begun by the husband, Superior Judge Fleming gave Mrs. Greenwood an interlocutory decree of divorce against her husband. In that decree the court approved a property settlement entered into by the Greenwoods on July 29, 1922. While Mrs. Greenwood did not appeal from the decree, later she asked that it be set aside. This was denied by Superior Judge Wood. An appeal now is pending.

ANOTHER ACTION

Mrs. Greenwood also instituted a separate action to set aside the decree and to invalidate the property settlement. That action was tried by Superior Judge Ambrose, who gave a judgment against Mrs. Greenwood on May 6, 1927, and upheld the property settlement and the divorce decree.

The present action was begun on August 29, 1928. In it Mrs. Greenwood sought an accounting from her husband for the money she turned over to him. Her contention was that even though the property settlement is valid, she is entitled at least to the return of her money with interest, because it is not covered in the agreement.

It was brought out at the trial of the case before Judge Yankwich that all the property which the Greenwoods owned, including the property to which Mrs. Greenwood's money was traced, was covered by the property settlement agreement. That, Judge Yankwich held as an indication that the parties intended to adjust all their property rights, whether relating to community or separate property by this agreement.

not unnecessarily wasted. Speakers declared that an oversupply of oil causes gas to be wasted and wrecks the markets to such an extent that no order can be maintained. Statistics were submitted to show that since 1923 the investment in the oil industry throughout the United States has paid as a whole only a little more than 3 per cent a year.

Thomas A. O'Donnell, pioneer oil man of Mexico and California, and five times president of the American Petroleum Institute, which is fostering the present production curtailment program throughout the United States, declared that the industry faces the need for a major operation, and advocated making it absolutely prohibitive to allow gas to escape into the air unused. He ventured the opinion that otherwise no real cure would result.

"If this wastage should go on for another twenty years," said he, "there wouldn't be a solid major company in the State."

Umpire F. C. Van Deinse is opening offices in the Security Building, and will undertake during the present week to call the Santa Fe Springs operators together and launch the big conservation movement.

Civil War Bride Taken by Death at Long Beach

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, March 26.—Mrs. Saphronia M. Russell, 84 years of age, died today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Woodruff, 1545 Locust avenue. Her death ends a married life which was in its sixty-fourth year. When the Federal soldiers returned to their homes at the conclusion of the Civil War, Albert J. Russell went back to Grand Rapids, Mich., to claim the girl he had left behind. They were married on October 1, 1865, and continued to live in Grand Rapids until twenty-five years ago, when they came to Long Beach, where they made their home. Here they celebrated their sixty-third wedding anniversary last October.

Mrs. Russell was interested in patriotic activities as a member of the Women's Relief Corps and the Daughters of the American Revolution. She was a member of the First Congregational Church. She kept up interest in public matters, reading The Times daily for the past twenty years. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Patterson and McQuilkin, undertakers.

NEW JONES ACT IN FORCE HERE

Nix Announces Adoption of Federal Penalties

Five Years and $10,000 Fine for Liquor Offenses

Misdemeanor Charge Ray of Hope for Bootlegger

Liquor cases handled by the City Prosecutor's office will hereafter be filed and prosecuted under the new Jones Act, which provides more severe penalties than the Wright Act, in force until recently, City Prosecutor Nix announced yesterday. The order takes effect this morning.

The Jones Act, known as the "five-and-ten law," on account of the provision for a maximum sentence of five years and a fine of $10,000 for sale, possession or transportation of liquor, has been feared by bootleggers since its passage by Congress, Nix declared.

"It is the law and has been in this State since the 2nd inst.," he said yesterday. "My office has been instructed to prosecute liquor violators to its fullest extent. The law was passed to put teeth into the Volstead Act, and I intend to see that they grind."

Only one ray of hope was offered bootleggers, in that liquor cases prosecuted in the Municipal Court will be filed as misdemeanors instead of felonies. The sentences imposed may be the same, but misdemeanors are punishable by imprisonment only in the County Jail, while those convicted of a felony are sent to a State prison. Every liquor case may, however, be prosecuted under the felony provision if officials so desire, in which case the trials will be held by Superior Court instead of in the Municipal Court.

ADOPTION OF GIRLS LEADS TO TROUBLE

La Habra Business Man Accused by Government of Bringing in Aliens

The story of three small Armenian girls who are said to have fled from their native country to the United States and freedom from Turkish attacks was revealed yesterday in the arrest of Charles N. Inman, business man of La Habra, who is accused of violating the Immigration Act by bringing them into this country while they were aliens.

It was stated by immigration inspectors that Inman in June of 1926, adopted the three girls, who were from 11 to 15 years of age, and brought them into this country. It was learned the three girls were nieces of Inman's wife, who is an armenian.

The girls were adopted at Ensenada, Mex., and thereafter were brought across the border by two persons, said to be prominent in La Habra.

Inman appeared before United States Commissioner Head, but was unable to furnish bail of $2500.

Judge Denies Alimony Rise for Divorcee

Young and sprightly divorcees need not expect to live on alimony all their lives, Superior Judge Schauer decided yesterday in passing on the case of Ina Winnett, divorced four months ago, and who wanted her alimony increased.

"The only purpose of alimony is to adjust a divorced wife's relations with life until she can find a means of livelihood," said Judge Schauer. "It is mighty easy for a young, active woman to find work and support herself, and she should lose no time doing so. If she is not too completely disillusioned she might even try getting married again."

Mrs. Winnett pleaded that her husband, Edward Winnett, had made a small fortune since he left her, and she wanted the sum of her monthly payments raised. Judge Schauer refused to raise the alimony, declaring that Mrs. Winnett had no part in accumulating the money.

Merit Awards to be Presented at Film Banquet

Presentation of merit awards for 1928 voted by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences will be made at a banquet at the Roosevelt Hotel on May 1, according to announcement yesterday from the office of the secretary.

The trophies consist of bronze and gold statuettes and are given in recognition of outstanding achievement in various branches of film work. Douglas Fairbanks, president of the organization, will present the awards to the winners.

The awards banquet, it is hoped by members of the academy, will become an annual event and one of the most impressive film ceremonies of the year. Fifteen awards will be presented to those who won recognition for outstanding performances, directorial work, comedy direction, writing, adaptation, cinematography, art direction, outstanding production, for production of the most unique and artistic picture, and other branches of the film industry.

HOLLYWOOD WRITER TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Dorothy Wooldridge, 1834 North Argyle avenue, Hollywood, writer for film magazines, was taken to the Osteopathic Sanatorium-Hospital yesterday suffering from an attack of intestinal trouble. She is under the care of Dr. Norman Sprague. Mrs. Wooldridge became ill Sunday and her removal to a hospital was decided on Monday afternoon.

The grandchildren are being temporarily cared for at the home of Officer Goerl—. They were present in the apartment home at the time but did not witness the shooting, police say.

Mrs. Brown was transferred late yesterday to White Memorial Hospital.

RESORT TO HAVE DAWN GATHERING

Palm Springs Planning for Easter Sunrise Rites on Slopes of Mountain

As the sun peeps over the eastern mountains and paints the desert in the varicolored tints so well known to artists, trumpeters will herald the dawn of day, next Sunday morning, and the Palm Springs annual Easter sunrise services will begin in the shadow of the cross, on the sloping sides of Mt. San Jacinto. The services are scheduled for 5:45 o'clock and will be attended, it is expected, by the largest early-morning outpouring of visitors since the inception of the annual event.

When the last notes of the trumpets have died away, the vocal and instrumental program will commence, soloists invited especially for the occasion participating. John Claire Montieth of Los Angeles will sing "Thus Saith The Lord," from Gaul's "Holy City," followed by Mrs. Marion Pulford of Los Angeles and Palm Springs, who will sing "Dawn," by Pearl Curran. In addition there will be an appropriate address and several selections by a special chorus.

Palm Springs, it is announced, has enjoyed its greatest season this winter, all three leading hotels being filled to capacity; and it is in view of this increased activity that the Easter Sunday committee at the desert resort has put forth additional efforts in the interests of the services this year.

The trumpeters for the occasion will attend through courtesy of Maj Harmon, commandant at March Field.

ZINNICKER ASKS TRIAL BY JURY

Asserted Father of Boy Pleads Not Guilty When Arraigned on Charge

Charged with failure to provide for Gale Dean Pinckard, 16 months of age, whom Mrs. Margaret Steinbusch Pinckard asserts is his son, Otto Zinnicker, 33, appeared in Municipal Judge Bullock's court yesterday.

A demurrer to the complaint was interposed by his attorney, P. C. Hill, and was overruled by the court. Hill then entered a plea of not guilty for his client and requested jury trial, which will be set this morning by Municipal Judge Bogue.

Zinnicker recently was found guilty of failure to provied for the baby by a jury and sentenced to serve two years in a county road camp by Municipal Judge Sheldon. His sentence was reversed by Superior Court. At the trial, Mrs. Pinckard told of buying a husband from an employment agency for $200 to give her child an honorable name.

Officer Back on Duty as Man Retracts 'Kick'

Detective Lieutenant W. J. Jolin was reinstated yesterday by Deputy Chief Lyons following the withdrawal of a complaint made the day before by Henry Marks of 808 North Benton Way.

Marks appeared at the Chief's office yesterday morning and made a signed statement before witnesses that he had made a mistake in the identity of the officer, and that he therefore wished to withdraw his charge that Jolin had beaten him in a cafe at 118 West Ninth street early last Monday morning.

Jolin was suspended by Lyons immediately after Marks registered his complaint. He denied that he struck Marks and declared it was another man resembling him who administered the beating. Marks admitted this yesterday. Jolin said he interfered only to break up the fight which involved Marks.

Special Acts Prepared for Screen Gambol

For the screen stars' gambol, which is to be given at the Shrine Auditorium next Monday, Al Jolson, Sophie Tucker, Clark and McCullough, Ted Lewis, Ukulele Ike, Bessie Love, Charles King, Ann Pennington, Buddy Rogers and others are preparing special acts.

The motion-picture industry is giving the affair to help finance construction of an arts building at Loyola University.

Special repertoires are being prepared by the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, which will occupy a prominent place on the program, and the Vitaphone Symphony Orchestra.

Tickets are selling rapidly, according to the sales committee, and it is expected that a sell-out will be recorded before the end of the week.

Wampas to Tell About Publicity

That students in Southern California schools and colleges aspiring to careers as publicity writers may have the benefit of the experience of men in this profession, the Wampas, an association of publicity and advertising men of the films, has just completed arrangements to aid instructors in courses.

The first of a series of lectures by Wampas members will be given by George Landy before members of the class in publicity writing at the University of Southern California. He will talk on "Publicity As It Applies to Motion Pictures," and will explain the methods employed in publicizing productions and stars.

More than $179,000,000 worth of American products were used in Argentina last year.

STABILIZING OF GASOLINE PRICES NEAR

Texas Company Increases Cost Nearly to Level of Other Large Producers

Definite end of the price controversy in the gasoline situation in Los Angeles was predicted yesterday when the Texas Company, the last major oil producer to make a wholesale adjustment, announced an increase in tank-wagon costs. The increase, however, still is 1 cent less than the prevailing price of the other large companies.

Texaco announced a new wholesale price of 15½ cents a gallon to the service-station operator, which means the tank-wagon price will be 17½ cents, permititng the dealer to retail at that price. This new scale will permit the service-station man handling Texaco products still to undersell other operators, although at a reduced margin of profit where there is brisk competition.

The general price of 18½ cents a gallon prevails at 95 per cent of the service stations, it is asserted.

An effort to establish this price as a general rule will be made tonight at a meeting open to all service-station operators at Angelus Hall, 1956 East First street. A movement to fix a sliding scale of prices for different sections of the county and city will be abandoned, it was asserted by those who started it.

In San Francisco, where gasoline usually sells at ½ cent more than in Los Angeles, the view taken by the dealers is asserted to be opposite to that of the Los Angeles service station men.

Probation for Instructor in Dance Denied

If Miss Patti Sockwell had not been a dancing instructor working in a dance hall, she probably would be enjoying freedom today instead of beginning a ninety-day jail sentence.

The sentence was imposed yesterday by Judge Emmett H. Wilson, before whom Miss Sockwell had pleaded guilty of driving while intoxicated. She had filed an application for probation, and it was reported Judge Wilson looked favorably on her case until it was disclosed she earned her living giving dancing lessons.

"It has been my experience that girls employed in dance halls are more often subject to the temptations of their environments than girls in other vocations," said the court. "For that reason this court is somewhat disinclined to dispose of this case entirely without making the defendant appreciate the severity of her offense."

The jail sentence then was pronounced.

Woman Ordered Fined or Jailed in Hickman Case

Mrs. Eunice McMillen Martin, found guilty by a jury of two charges of outraging public decency by writing letters and attempting to hold a meeting in regard to the Hickman case, was sentenced yesterday by Municipal Judge Sheldon to pay a fine of $300 or to spend thirty days in jail. The action followed Judge Sheldon's denial of a motion for a new trial, made by Mrs. Martin on the 11th inst., argument on which was heard yesterday. Following sentence Mrs. Martin's attorney gave oral notice of appeal, on which Judge Sheldon set bail of $500.

Mrs. Martin, who says she is a teacher of the new school of applied Christian psychology, attracted some attention between the date of her arrest and trial by threatening twice to kill herself. In a letter to Judge Sheldon following her second suicide note she declared that she had attempted to carry out her threat but had failed.

Suspect Shot in Flight Attempt Out of Danger

Hunter Albritton, shot and seriously injured on the 22nd inst. when he attempted to escape from Deputy Sheriff T. J. Hart, who had arrested him as a bank robbery suspect, was reported recovering slowly from his wounds at the General Hospital yesterday.

Albritton was removed to the prison ward from the Georgia-street Emergency Hospital yesterday when physicians reported him out of danger.

According to officers, the prisoner is wanted in Poplar Bluffs, Mo., on a charge of bank robbery. The officers also assert that Albritton escaped in 1926 from a Florida prison camp where he was serving a six-year sentence for robbery.

Evidence Backs Girl's Charges

Evidence supporting charges that Miss Ray Schade, 21 years of age of 641 Washington street, El Monte, was kidnaped and taken to an isolated cabin by her employer, Clayton C. Stafford, wealthy feed merchant, and then brutally choked and mistreated, was submitted to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Russell yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Hackett and Vejar.

Dept. Dist.-Atty. Russell, however, announced that he will not decide whether a complaint will be filed until he questions additional witnesses today.

The case was taken to the attention of Capt. William J. Bright, chief of the sheriff's homicide investigation detail, Monday by the girl and her parents.

Miss Schade accused Stafford of luring her into his automobile Saturday under the pretext of taking her to Puente to inspect the books of one of his branch stores, and then driving her to a cabin in Turnbull Canyon.

Today's Bible Text

Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee. Isa. xii, 6.

PANAMA OVERWORKED

A recent writer finds that the Panama Canal is being operated to more than 65 per cent of its full capacity and that in ten years it will be absolutely inadequate to fulfill the demands made upon it. As it is now ships may sometimes have to wait two or three days to get through. It is not a bit early to be figuring on a Nicaragua helpmate. There will be business for both.

SWEETS TO THE SWEET

Chemists in the University of California are doing a wonderful work for humanity. They are making candy which takes but 6 per cent of sugar instead of the 90 per cent normally required. The next thing will be to induce some of the girl students to try the stuff. But maybe the big idea is to produce a chocolate fudge that our loved ones may freely indulge and yet stay slim. That would make a big hit in the world.

SINGING SERPENTS

Some scoffing remarks have recently been heard in connection with statements made by a traveler in the back country of the Argentine. Among other marvels of the animal kingdom he tells of a singing snake. He heard it himself in his cabin in the pampas region. The reptile was under the floor. Possibly it was one of our rattlers whose voice had been cultivated. But almost anybody would be flustered in coming upon an anaconda with a baritone voice. Serpents have not been considered talkative since that episode in Eden.

TURN THE RASCALS OUT

Oklahoma legislators feel that they are negligent unless they are trying some official under impeachment proceedings. Having just fired a Governor they are now having a whirl at the chief justice of the Supreme Court and two of his associates. At the Oklahoma capitol it is like Saturday night in the barber shop. Everybody looks around to see who's next. The people elect their officers and the legislators impeach them and throw them out. It's a gay life and a lively one. If an Oklahoma Governor can get by without being impeached he may be at once awarded a front seat in the Hall of Fame.

THE NAVY AT PEAK

Los Angeles a few days ago welcomed the United States Battle Fleet back to its waters, and now it learns from Admiral Pratt, who soon will hoist the four-starred flag of supreme command, that in efficiency and morale it is the equal of any fleet afloat. Naval officers do not make such statements without good reason; they are compelled to weigh their words; and the admiral's estimate is an occasion for prideful congratulation.

The recent achievement of the fleet in sending 300 airplanes over the Panama Canal from a point well at sea, and in getting them all back safely, was an illustration in point. Without training and development over a period of years such a feat would not have been possible; and neither could the Navy's feat in gunnery and in communication have been accomplished without long and rigorous training.

All Americans hope that not a vessel of the fleet will ever fire a shot at a genuine enemy, and they will hope equally that they will always be prepared to do so should occasion require. The Navy is the nation's first line of defense; with it well equipped, morally and materially, the danger that the country ever can be subjected to a damaging surprise attack is very slight. The United States with no standing army to speak of, needs to be sure of time to prepare for land defense, and this an adequate navy makes certain.

It is no ordinary collection of vessels, therefore, that now lies at anchor off this port; these are the finest ships of their kind afloat, with the best personnel that ever trod decks; and the ships and their crews should be treated accordingly. It is a point of pride with Los Angeles to be the home port of such a fleet.

QUINN FOR MAYOR

Los Angeles is confronted with the difficult task of selecting from nearly a score of eager aspirants a Mayor capable of properly representing and administering the affairs of the city. If the community is to have honest, efficient, economical administration of its public business during the next four years a wise choice in the Mayoralty contest is the first essential.

After careful consideration of the merits and qualifications of the several candidates, The Times recommends the selection of John R. Quinn as the man who, as Mayor, will best serve the interests of the community.

This decision is reached solely on the basis of impersonal and unprejudiced analysis of the considerations and personalities involved in the contest. Quinn represents in his own life and accomplishments the type of citizen in whom public trust, confidence and responsibility may safely and profitably be entrusted. The municipal affairs of Los Angeles will be in capable and honest hands if Quinn is elected.

The Mayor's office is the keystone in the structure of city government. If the office is occupied by an able, alert, courageous individual, his example and conduct will permeate the entire organization of public affairs and serve as a guide and inspiration not alone for the officialdom of the city, but for the entire citizenship.

No necessity exists for pointing the attention of Los Angeles voters and taxpayers to the fact that the manner in which city business is administered represents dollars and cents value to all residents of the community. A part of every citizen's income goes directly or indirectly into the city treasury, where it is made either to serve the public welfare through good management or to represent waste and extravagance.

Hence, it becomes as necessary to civic well-being and progress to have real leadership, to have the virtues of personal integrity, energy, moral courage, and high personal ideals, in public office as to have efficient business administration therein.

There should be no Boss Parrot, no "Secretary Kinney," no figure-in-the-background control of the office of Mayor after next June.

The so-called Parrot-Cryer machine, despite the withdrawal of Cryer as a candidate, is active in the present campaign, giving support to more than one aspirant.

No candidate who accepts political aid or comfort from this scource, however free he may consider himself from private agreement, pledge or obligation, should be permitted to gain the office. Regardless of the individual candidate's talents, intentions and personal predilections, if he makes peace with the political gang headed by Parrot and kindred professional politicians he should be repudiated.

The one essential consideration in this contest is character—the character of a man who places duty above self; who values honesty more than popularity; who regards service to the public as having precedence over favors to friends; who finds attention to duty more attractive than the amenities of office, and who places unselfishness and courage ahead of expediency and self-interest.

Such a man, The Times believes, is John R. Quinn.

This newspaper feels a sense of pride in espousing the cause of such a citizen—clean, upright, able, a leader of men. He stands for the best type of American citizenship. In him the term "service man" finds its highest interpretation, for his service has been exceptional both in peace and in war.

He belongs to the generation of American manhood which is taking over the affairs of business and of government. He has been successful in his private business, that of banking, but has preferred to forget personal interests in devoting a major part of his time to the public service.

John Quinn brings an honorable and an enviable record for public scrutiny. Possibly there will be a disposition upon the part of his active supporters to stress as his greatest public contribution the effective administration of the California Veterans' Welfare fund of $30,000,000 during the last four or five years, but the business efficiency of this great task, in the opinion of The Times, is secondary in importance to the tremendous contribution he has made to good citizenship.

It is a relatively easy task to transform a citizen into a good soldier, but the process of readjusting a soldier to the status of good citizen calls for greater vision. Quinn's leadership in this great post-war problem is not confined to Los Angeles or to the State of California; his name represents inspiration and solid accomplishment throughout this country.

Born within 150 miles of Los Angeles, the son of a California farmer, Mr. Quinn is thoroughly conversant with local needs, aspirations and problems. He has been identified with the civic affairs of Los Angeles in many capacities, and while taking an important part here in the campaigns of President Coolidge and President Hoover, has not become identified with any local political faction or group.

John R. Quinn is his own man. He will stand or fall on the record he has established for candid expression, straight thinking and unpretentious, but effective service. He is an admirable citizen in all respects. As a candidate for Mayor he offers the electorate of Los Angeles an unusual opportunity for employing the capabilities of a man endowed with the qualities which are always desired, but not always found in our public servants.

The Times will give full and fair attention in its columns to the claims of all candidates for office, but in performing a duty which it feels due its readers and to the citizenship of Los Angeles as a whole this newspaper will urge the well-wishers of the community to center their efforts for good government behind John R. Quinn's candidacy.

NOT SO EASY

The new Postmaster-General insists that his department is a business proposition and not a political arena. The next thing is to convince the politicians of it.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA is a land of wonderful contrasts, but none is more striking than that between our marvelous modernity and progress and our clinging remnants of old-fashioned simplicity.

O.K.
WILMINGTON
OK

When, for instance, the Wilmington Transportation Company wishes to talk with one of its ships or tugs at sea, one of its executives steps to the radiophone, just like an ordinary telephone, and calls up the captain of that boat. Or the ship can call up the office with equal facility.

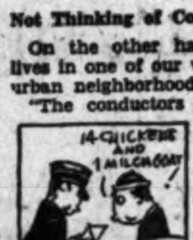
There Is No Rose, Etc.

This gives added safety insurance to travel between our harbor and Catalina. But if this thing keeps moving at the present rate it won't be long till a woman can step to her telephone and broadcast for her husband, and whether he's out on a yacht or up in a plane or down in a mine or a submarine or sitting with a sick friend in a private room at the club, that sweet voice he knows so well will reach him with the words, "Don't forget, dear, that we have a Philharmonic concert engagement for tonight." And he will have to answer: "Yes, I've just been trying to get queens, Bach to Bach."

Progress is wonderful, but it has its drawbacks.

Not Thinking of Commission

On the other hand, a man who lives in one of our very quietest suburban neighborhoods tells us this:



14 CHICKENS AND 1 MILCH COW!

"The conductors who run out to our community know everybody in it. The other day one of them—the one on the car I catch into town every morning—came and leaned confidentially over my seat.

"'Hear you want to sell your house and move into town?' he whispered.

"I was surprised, for it still was inside news. But I nodded. He took out notebook and pencil.

"'How much do you want for it?' he asked. 'And give me a brief description.'

"'Why?' I asked. 'Are you thinking of buying it?'

"'Oh, no,' said he. 'But if you give me the facts I can let everybody who rides this line know all about it, and it may help you a good deal. I just want to do you a neighborly service.'"

Should Grow Large

A chicken-ranch community near Artesia has given itself the significant and aristocratic name of Caponhurst.

The Appeal That Wins

In Wilmington we were paid a compliment so unusual that we can't help telling about it. A man we met there, casually, asked us if we hadn't found it an awful job to make out our income-tax report.

INCOME TAX?
A!AA!
HA!
HA!
HA!

"A news writer with a wife and five dependent children doesn't have to worry about much income tax," we replied. "What's your business?"

"I run a hot-dog stand."

Plenty of Something in 'Em

We've often thought, when eating a beach sandwich, that there was far more profit than ham in it.

Justified Complaint

This makes us understand the Santa Monica man who sharply criticized The Times reporter there.

"You ought of found out my business before writin' that piece about my accident," he said.

"Why, I did."

"Then the paper got it wrong. This piece says I'm a pedestrian, and I ain't. I'm a hot-dog man."

Slight But Not Trivial

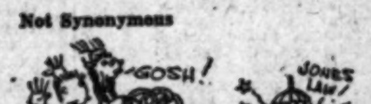
What a lot of difference one little letter makes sometimes. The Mexican rebels who come over to this side will be interned. Those that stay on the other side will be interred.

Modern Mythology

T. G. says that, anyway, the income tax should make a national hero of Socrates, now that so many people are specializing in deductions.

Maybe, but it would make harder work than ever for Diogenes, the lantern-bearer.

Not Synonymous



GOSH!
JONES LAW!

Some use the surnames, Jones and Smith,
Like Doe and Roe, to juggle with;
But, boy! this Jones law, banning gin,
Ain't what the Smith law would 'a' been!

SAVING YOSEMITE TREES

In the rush of events the important fact has been overlooked by many Americans that one of the last official acts of Calvin Coolidge as President of the United States was affixing his signature to the Interior Department appropriation bill, thus ending a four-month struggle to determine a policy for private land extinction in national parks and opening a new era in national park history. But the American Nature Association has not overlooked Mr. Coolidge's approval of the measure, which, if properly administered, the association says will remove for all time the bugaboo of the ax, the hot-dog stand and real estate "development" from the national parks.

The association congratulates the people of the whole country upon the success of the fight to preserve Yosemite timber and that of other parks. The bill appropriates $250,000 immediately and guarantees a sum up to $2,750,000 to match the subscriptions of public-spirited people who already have offered $1,000,000 to aid in the purchase of the privately owned timber lands, and can be relied upon to subscribe a much greater amount.

"Yosemite is saved," says Arthur Newton Pack, president of the American Nature Association. "Every member of our organization should be proud of the part we played in bringing about this triumph. The American people cannot help but be grateful to those who worked to prevent the ax from laying bare scenic acres."

Under the terms of the new measure 9000 acres of timberland may be added to the Yosemite. The authorization of condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of all private lands save those used for residential or religious purposes practically insures that the ax will not fall within park boundaries against the will of the people.

What California's quota of the $2,000,000 yet to be raised by public subscription to match the government guarantee of $3,000,000 to preserve the park timber is to be, has not been determined, but it probably will be much less than $1,000,000. Little difficulty should be experienced in raising it.

HARDLY PRACTICABLE

The State Railroad Commission, it is announced, will ask the Legislature to make it a traffic violation for automobiles to fail to come to a full stop just before venturing on a railroad grade crossing. This proposal has been advanced before and turned down for good reason—the impossibility of enforcing it without stationing a policeman at every crossing.

The present penalty for lack of caution at grade crossings is more severe than any the law can inflict. Such a lack may result in death or serious injury. Is the possibility that a fine may be imposed, if the offender happens to be caught, likely to prove more of a deterrent? Or will this merely be another law to which no one pays any attention? There are too many such on the statute books now.

Grade crossings are, in fact, used more often by automobiles than by trains, and more persons are carried over them, in the aggregate, by automobiles than by trains. Logically, therefore, if either user of such crossings is to be required to stop it should be the train. The Railroad Commission can see the objection to that. The objections to its proposed rule are as obvious.

A MATTER OF GRAY MATTER

By James J. Montague

Dr. Clark of Teachers' College declares that education cuts earning power

While my Uncle Abijah was going to college,
As a means of achieving his ardent desire
For the sharpness of wit and voluminous knowledge
Which attorneys at law are supposed to require
My Uncle Leander, who looked upon scholars
As milksops and sissies, who weren't very smart,
Was learning the value of hard silver dollars
By driving McCassidy's grocery cart.

My Uncle Abijah, though versed very deeply
In Parsons on contracts and Burdick on torts,
Was obliged all his lifetime to live very cheaply,
For he never was much of a star in the courts.
My Uncle Leander, though lacking in learning
And always abraded just back of the ears,
In matters of business grew shrewd and discerning
And now, wealthy, thinks lightly of college careers.

My Cousin Erasmus, who held erudition
And those who achieved it in reverent awe,
Saved all of his pennies to pay his tuition
For a difficult course in a college of law.
My Cousin Elisha would learn no profession,
Believing it wiser to take up a trade,
He hoped upon business to make an impression
By starting in life as a bricklayer's aide.

My Cousin Erasmus is wealthy and noted,
He is one of the few who have carved out careers.
My Cousin Elisha that same hod has toted
Every working day now for some twenty-five years.
And so—though I own it is highly distressful—
Whether college-bred men wake the world up or not,
Or untutored lads are extremely successful
Depends a good deal on the brains they have got!

THE HOOVER CABINET

BY FRED HOGUE

The ten members of the President's Cabinet are the fingers of the executive hands. He chooses them from the country at large, limited only to confirmation by the Senate. He assumes full responsibility and exercises unlimited control.

Naturally the eyes of the country are directed on the new Hoover Cabinet, dubbed by some Washington correspondents as the "dark-horse" Cabinet, because the selection of more than half the group confounded the prognosticators. Democratic editors scrutinized the list with magnifying glasses, but failed to find a single purely political appointment.

Service is the first requisite of a government, and the President seems to have been peculiarly happy in chosing a good, serviceable set of fingers. Back of each is a record of achievement; each has been thoroughly trained for service. As a group they are eminently qualified for the responsibilities they have been called upon to assume.

Secretary of State Stimson is a nationally known figure. Graduated from Harvard, he became a law partner of Elihu Root. A Cabinet position is to him no novelty, for he served as Secretary of War under President Taft. He served a term as United States Attorney in his home State, New York, and received from President Coolidge, two years ago, the appointment of Governor-General of the Philippines. During the World War he served as a colonel in the A.E.F. He fully qualifies for a place in the list of eminent Americans who have held the highly important position of Secretary of State.

Iowa and Illinois join in applauding the selection of James W. Good as Secretary of War, and each claims him as its own. He was born in Iowa, served seven terms as Congressman from that State; but he resigned in 1923 and has since lived and practiced law in Chicago. Perhaps his residence in Chicago might be urged as one of his qualifications for War Secretary; but he probably owes his selection to his distinctive service in Congress.

That Andrew W. Mellon should be retained as Secretary of the Treasury was to be expected. His name will probably be linked in future generations with that of Hamilton. The personal sacrifices he has made for the public service will not be forgotten. He is the first financier of the first government in the world.

William D. Mitchell's selection as Attorney-General was one of the upsets of the political dopesters. He is listed in "Who's Who" as a Democrat. With prohibition enforcement one of the disturbing influences in the country, and that function transferred from the Treasury, this appointment is one of the most critical in the Cabinet. According to general report, the office was offered to Senator Borah, who declined it. Political affiliations did not prevent President Coolidge from appointing Mr. Mitchell as Solicitor-General in 1925, and it did not deter Hoover from making him Attorney-General, although the precedent he has established in giving a Democrat a place in the Cabinet under a Republican administration is highly disquieting to the professional politicians. Bootlegging rings are already terrified; for there are new teeth in the prohibition law, and Mitchell knows how to use them.

Eminent service caused Secretary of Labor Davis to be retained. He has now served under three successive administrations. His record in office is that of noiseless efficiency. He has filled a highly critical position with the maximum of success and the minimum of trouble. His selection is an earnest that the President will not dismiss those who are making good in the public service in order to pay a personal or political debt.

Charles Francis Adams, Secretary of the Navy, comes from Boston. He is the descendant of a long line of ancestors illustrious in the service of their country. The first of these was John Adams, second President and known as the "Founder of the American Navy." Some of the paragraphers have chorteled over the selection of a "yachtsman" as head of the Navy; he was amateur skipper on the Resolute when it won an international trophy in 1920. Adams is another Harvard man in the Cabinet.

Iowa scored again when Ray Lyman Wilbur, born on her soil, was appointed Secretary of the Interior, a highly important position in these days of controversy over rights and leases in the public domains. But California is the State of his choice. He couldn't help being born in Iowa, but, like Hoover, he took the first opportunity offered to come West. He secured his college education at Stanford, although he later studied in Europe, and served for twelve years as president of that university. He first came to international notice when he served as chief of the department of conservation of food during the World War. He has never taken an active part in politics.

Arthur M. Hyde, the new Secretary of Agriculture, is a purely Middle-West product. Born in Missouri, he received his education in Michigan and Iowa universities. For four years he served as Governor of Missouri. Thoroughly versed in agricultural problems and wholly in sympathy with constructive, practical farm relief, he is well equipped for this very important branch of the Federal government. The President is known to have hesitated long over this appointment; and his final selection has been received with general commendation.

Secretary of Commerce Lamont is the second resident of Chicago to be elevated to a seat in the Cabinet; but he is a native of Michigan, and was graduated from the State University there. Lamont is an industrialist—a manufacturer, and has been director of a number of large corporations. He served in the War Department with rank of colonel during the World War, and is a recognized authority on world commerce. Unknown politically, he brings a thorough business training to an office for which it is an absolute essential.

Postmaster-General Brown of Toledo was serving as Assistant Secretary of Commerce when he received his appointment. Twenty years ago he was prominent in Ohio politics, but his partisan activity ended several years ago. He forms the third of the trio of Harvard graduates in the Cabinet. Brown is one of the "dark horse" appointments.

Washington observers all comment on the selection of a Cabinet without regional distinction, without any attempt to build political fences. The South is not represented. Most of the places went to college men. Chicago fared best of all. In the list are six lawyers, a banker and a university president. Four of the secretaries—Mellon, Davis, Lamont and Adams—are reputed to be millionaires.

The best recommendation for the eight new members is that Hoover selected them, and selected them not for their financial, political or social prominence, but because he has confidence that they are men who will fully justify the confidence that he and the country repose in them. It is a Cabinet that should aid vastly in keeping the wheels of government running at a uniform high speed without friction.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Mental Hygiene?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address: Louise L. Temple, care of The Times. All public school classes are suspended for the week of March 25-29, for the Easter vacation, reopening April 1.]

Mental hygiene is the science which teaches us to meet our problems of living through a better understanding of the working of our minds. In order to further hygienic thinking, the Sentous Evening High School, at 1205 West Pico Boulevard, has secured the services of Doncaster G. Humm to lecture on psychology each Friday evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Doncaster Humm's lectures are on a thoroughly sound basis, founded on the best of scientific practical psychology. His lectures are of the depth and accuracy of a university, but his gift of simple language places them within the grasp of all who are willing to concentrate on the great truths set forth.

The class has already reached such popularity that it has been necessary to use the school auditorium for the meetings. The auditorium is reached through the yard, without going through the main school building. The "P" car goes by the door of the school.

There is no charge for admission to these lectures.

RIPPLING RHYMES

THE VACANT CHAIR

We gather in the Blue Front store, an ancient dotard crew; but Johnson joins us there no more, he died last month of flu. He often bored us in the past, and gained an angry frown; an argument of his would last until the clock ran down. We often thought he talked too long, he grieved us graybeard boys; his wind was good, his voice was strong, he filled the place with noise. We often thought it would be good if he would stay away, and let the others saw some wood, and say what they would say. Now Johnson comes around no more, his voice we do not hear, and there is, in the Blue Front store, a silence tense and drear. At times some gaffer makes a move to say things through his face, but Johnson isn't there to prove that he is off his base. At times some old boy tells a tale that falls exceeding flat; for Johnson doesn't start a gale of merriment thereat. We realize now he is dead, how much we're missing him; his was the soul, his was the head, that gave our meetings vim. Although he sometimes made us sore, by talking without end, there's mourning in the Blue Front store, we miss our noisy friend. We're always missing people thus, when it becomes too late; we don't appreciate a cuss until he's in a crate. We meet a fellow every day, and mark each flaw and fault; but when they've carried him away to some dark churchyard vault, we then recall his virtues high, and wish he would return from his bright station in the sky where all the planets burn.

JACK MACKEY'S 75 TOPS FIELD IN PASADENA PLAY

Tricky Greens Defy Qualifiers on First Day of Invitation Event; Only Two Break 80 Mark

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Ably defended by the trickiest curves, convolutions and whatnots "Billy" Bell could design to take the "putt" out of putter, the elusive greens of the Pasadena Golf Club turned back first-day qualifiers for the club's invitational tournament yesterday with par figures still to be broken or even equaled.

It remained for a member of Southern California's "youngster" brigade, Jack Mackey of the Los Angeles Country Club, to lead the field of 113 entrants with a 75 after the first seventy-five qualifiers had failed to break the 80 mark. Paul Lavelle of the Fox Hills Country Club, who medaled in the San Gabriel invitational with a 69, was second with a 76. They were the only two to break into the 70's.

YARBO WINS OVER COLIMA

Colored Battler Has Whittier Idol Down Twice for Count to Annex Decision at Olympic

BY PAUL LOWRY

Bert Colima's chances of fighting Mickey Walker for the middleweight championship here this summer flickered out last night when Wilson Yarbo, Cleveland black boy, defeated him decisively in ten rounds at the Olympic.

Practically unknown in these parts Yarbo twice floored Colima with right-hand punches for counts of nine and eight, respectively.

The first knockdown occurred in the second round and caused Colima to evince great respect for the colored boy from that period on to the finish.

So great was this respect that the Mexican favorite's left-hand leads were almost invariably short, and his right hand was pocketed.

And the final knockdown coming in the tenth round wiped out whatever vestige of doubt Referee Harry Lee or anybody else might have had that Yarbo was not entitled to the decision.

As it was, Colima won three

Eighth-Inning Spurt Ruins Hollywood Club

Wetzel and Keating Fail to Finish on Mound

Ray French's Wallop Gives Senators Victory

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—Before a throng of 12,000 spectators Sacramento opened the Pacific Coast League season today by defeating Hollywood, 8 to 6. Although defeated, the Stars made it an interesting afternoon for the home crowd, coming from behind a 5-to-2 score in the eighth inning to take the lead, 6 to 5, only to see their advantage melt before a savage Senatorial assault in the same round.

"BUZZ" WETZEL.

As usual, Gov. C. C. Young participated in the opening-day ceremonies and later occupied a box. The Governor chose to take his "raps" and belted out a base hit off the delivery of Mayor Martin I. Welch.

Preceding the game, the players paraded through the downtown streets. Wetzel and Keating were the opening batteries, but neither could survive the hectic eighth inning. In this period Health and Rollings singled and Bassler walked, filling the bases. Walter Reig batter for Wetzel and doubled, scoring two runs. Chesterfield ran for Bassler and with Reig, rode in on a single by Bonowitz. That four-run rally made the count, 6 to 5, in favor of the Stars, but Marty, ne took Wetzel's place, threw one ball and the score was tied. Hank Severeid hit the home run. McLaughlin and Burke walked and French drove out a single to score a run. Monroe strolled, filling the bases and Harris also drew a walk to force over the final run, that coming off Johns.

Gould finished for Sacramento and held the Stars in check.

Hollywood dedicated the season with a run the first inning off

WALLACE KAYOES MEDILL

CLEVELAND, March 26. (AP)—Billy Wallace, Cleveland contender of Sammy Mandell's lightweight title, knocked out Joey Medill of Chicago in the fourth round of their twelve-round battle here tonight. Wallace's victory gave him revenge for a beating he took from Medill at Chicago several months ago. Medill had somewhat the better of tonight's bout until the knockout punch. Medill, who never before had been knocked off his feet, ran afoul of a smashing right to the jaw as he was rushing Wallace.

Holder of world's 400-meter record

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The California Bears, without sharp claws, will go to Los Angeles this week-end to engage in a dual track meet with Coach Dean Cromwell's well-trained Trojans. Coach Christie of the Californians figures to beat U.S.C. but there is not a dopester in or around these parts that will verify this remark.

The Trojans are high favorites, and how they can lose is far from easy figuring. For California to claim a victory is clean-cut optimism, and their needed points are sadly missing.

EMERSON SPENCER

Pogolotti, the Bear's star hurdler, has been a limping athlete for two weeks because of a sprained ankle. If he is able to annex a win in the highs and pull through with a second place in the lows the Californians will be satisfied. Much will depend on the showing of this lanky Californian, but with the lack of practice taken into consideration, Pogolotti is going to have more than his hands and legs full.

SPRINTERS FAIR

The Bear sprinter, Bisbee, ran through a fast ten flat hundred Saturday in a trial affair, and if he can repeat this Saturday he has a chance against Maurer. If Maurer keeps up with his consistent running, the slender Bisbee will not do better than a third. In the 220 the Californians Giguirre and Bisbee cannot be figured to take better than a third because they have shown absolutely nothing in the past meets.

Vic Williams will shatter the California hopes badly in the quarter mile, because this Trojan star will do forty-nine if needed to win, while the Californians, Johnson, Clark and Sparkes, will run fifty flat or possibly slightly better.

The half-mile is a toss-up with Gleese of U.S.C. a favorite because of his past performances and his known ability. Chase can do 1:58 and there is a chance for the Blue and Gold runner to snatch a well earned victory. Schurr of Troy and Rust of California will battle for the third place, and they are on a par.

The mile run, the event that Christie figured so much for points in early season, is and has turned sour. Of course, Carter should win against Fitzmaurice and Swede, but Cherry, who was figured a second place, has turned in some rotten performances during the past two weeks. Of course, he is figured to improve with great rapidity overnight, and his holding back will be used for a surprise, but he may guess twice too often because Fitzmaurice and Swede are the favorites to take second and third, respectively.

"Red" Mossman, brilliant sophomore, might run the mile, and if he does there may be a surprise. This small runner is good and can run any race from the half-mile up. However, he is figured only in the two-mile at the present writing, and the race between Woodruff and Mossman will be a battle this Saturday, with the Trojan favored because of his past record, although a win by Mossman will not be a great surprise. Patterson of U.S.C. is better than the other Californians, although there is a hunch that Carter will run this longer grind, and if he does he should take the third place.

VAULTERS BEST

In the pole vault it looks like a cinch nine points for U.S.C., with the California vaulters breaking their necks at heights of over 12ft. Segure, Bias and Lom, the Blue and Gold broad jumpers, are consistent around 23ft., and they should grab the majority of points in this event, with Jess Hill reckoned to take a second place, although he is capable of first.

The javelin throwers from California should make a clean sweep for Capt. Curtice, Aker, Baxter and Churchill have all thrown 190ft. or better. This is better than Mortensen's best throws. The high jump is a toss-up, with Enright, Jackievitch and Bingaman of California capable of 6ft., while for the Trojans, Bowen and Tintinger are just as good. However, Jackievitch may upset matters with one of his better than 6ft. leaps that he was capable of last season.

The shot put should result in a win for Schleimer, with Bradley of California taking a second place. Brown and Patten of California should battle it out with the Trojans for third place. In the discus throw Waters has done 131 feet, while his team-mate Californian, Patton, should do better, but cannot stay in the circle. If Patton can stay in the ring he may win the event. California is figuring one-two in this event and they may find their dope running true to form, although Bradbury of U.S.C. will dispute this very much.

In the above dope sheet the California hopes are given in all optimism showing where California has a chance to make it a close meet, and with a few upsets favoring the Californians the meet could result in a Blue and Gold victory. However, this is not the candid opinion of the writer.

MARTIN ZUNIGA TO GO EAST TOMORROW

Martin Zuniga, L.A.A.C. featherweight boxing star, leaves tomorrow with his coach, Clayton Frye, for Boston where he will be one of the favored entries in the national senior boxing championships. The meet is scheduled for April 8-10.

Zuniga has not been beaten in championship competition this year and Coach Frye feels confident that he will bring back another title to the Mercury club. Zuniga is the Pacific Coast and Far-Western featherweight champion and will compete in this weight at Boston.

CUBS OR ANGELS

THE Angels looked like the Cubs yesterday. They punched the horsehide all over the lot in the season's opener with Seattle, and even Bill Wrigley must feel proud of his Coast League entry this year.

Bill scorned his Angels last year and spent all his time wishing his Cubs into first place in the National League race. The boys didn't quite make the grade for Bill in 1928, but it looks as if this is going to be Bill's year—a double win with pennants in both the Coast League and National League.

While they finished far down the trail last year ye Angels are a real ball club this season. They may not be the finished product, defensively speaking. There seemed to be defects at second and short yesterday.

But when it comes to wrecking power the Angels have it in copious quantities. The boys taking Bill's dough for playing in Angel uniforms this season can lean on the apple with great intensity.

And who wouldn't rather see a booming triple or a homer than a sizzling putout? For the same reason they stress power in football these days they stress basehits in baseball.

The old Chicago White Sox of Fielder Jones's time wouldn't be popular today. The fans want hitting wonders—not "hitless wonders."

HEAVY SLUGGERS

IN THE Angels, 15-to-4 victory over Seattle every man but Barfoot of Marty Krug's starting crew got at least one basehit. The boys slugged themselves around and two over in the riotous third inning. Webb got two hits that inning—a single and a double. "Slug" Tolson was the only guy easy for the Indians. He made two outs for the enemy—a strikeout and a foul to the first baseman in the third.

Wes Schulmerich, the old Oregon Aggie fullback, carries his gridiron power into the diamond, and he had the honor of dragging down the first hit.

Bobby Jones, who followed him in the line-up, couldn't snatch that honor but he rattled out a homer—the first of the year. These boys collected the first two runs and they are entitled to opening-day bleats.

Johnny Butler made the first error of the season, and although he figured in a couple of fast double plays in the first two innings his work around the short pasture was anything but giltless.

WALLY GETS THE HAND

THERE were a lot of interesting sidelights to the opening festivities.

Wally Hood, the former Angel, was given the biggest hand of the day when he appeared at the plate in the second inning for Seattle. Wally rose to the spirit of the occasion and spanked out a beautiful single into left center field.

Paul Strite, the demon photographer, was struck in the camera by a ball from Jacobs's bat. Marty Krug, who was in the coaching box, retrieved the ball and offered it to Mr. Strite as consolation, but Mr. Strite in a moment of Spartan-like fervor spurned the missile and returned to his chores.

Sheriff Bill Traeger appeared with the biggest bay window in captivity to catch Mayor Cryer's slants. It's almost unfair to pick on a guy's form when he passes forty, but the old boys who remember Bill as a svelte athlete at Stanford can't help but make comparisons.

There's only one ex-athlete I can remember with a bigger bay than Bill's. That was Locomotive Smith, old California fullback, who appeared on the Berkeley campus one Alumni Day with a front porch that would have shamed an Alderman.

President Harry Williams showed up in the press box to see how his former confederates were behaving themselves, and Beans Reardon reported he would soon be on his way for his annual umpiring snooze in the big leagues. Earl Houck, the blind tenor, was there—three innings late.

CHEER FOR MORGAN

SOME of the Seattle scribes were on deck for the opener, but they lost all interest in the proceedings after that third-inning barrage.

Mr. Leo Lassen perked up in the first inning when Ernie Johnson doubled Muller over the pan. "That's a great break for the skipper," he announced, but two innings later he had succumbed for the day.

Mr. Lassen is an old boyhood friend of Tod Morgan, who defends his junior lightweight title here next Tuesday. He says Tod has not been in the best of health for the past two years, but believes the boy's recent fast pulled him out. He expects him to beat Zorilla.

Pirates Trim Detroit Crew

PHOENIX, March 26. (AP)—George Grantham's war club, combined with some wierd infielding on the part of the Detroit defense, gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 7-to-4 win over the Tigers this afternoon in the first major league engagement of the season at the local baseball park. A crowd of 2000 fans were in their seats for perhaps one-half of the game, that half when they were not on their feet cheering and raving like it was a gridiron battle they were watching instead of an exhibition ball game.

Grantham started the Pirates off to a lead in the first inning with a two-base hit and later gave a perfect impersonation of the hometown boy making good by lifting the ball over the right-field fence for a home run with Jones treading the path and scoring before him.

The Detroit infield was shaky, every member of the inner works contributing a boot to the box score.

Only once did the Bengals from the automobile city forge ahead. This was in the fifth when Shea clouted a deep one to the left, clearing the fence by a long margin. Score:

Hollywood and Magyar Soccer Squads Tangle

Owing to unforeseen developments Hollywood will not make the journey north to San Francisco to play in the all-California cup this week-end. The schedule for the local fans has therefore been rearranged and the film men will meet the Magyars in a grim ninety-minute battle for the points at Loyola Field Sunday.

Hollywood is now virtually League champion. Magyars, who are runners up, can be depended on to make the Sheiks step out in what should prove to be a sensational battle. This will be the feature tilt. Richfield Oil and Sons will open the program in a fast game at 1 o'clock.

Soccer fans should note that the games at Pasadena on Sunday will be played at the Pasadena Tournament Park, as the Rose Bowl is otherwise engaged. The events slated for Pasadena are Vikings and L.A.A.C. at 1 o'clock, and Scots and Pasadena at 3 o'clock. Both events should prove interesting affairs and provide the fans with an excellent day's sport.

Cards, Bruins Battle Today

Stanford's varsity tennis team will encounter the strong U. C. L. A. netters this afternoon on the courts of the Palomar tennis club at Cheviot Hills. This is the first of the dual meets between these teams and the stars of the California and U.S.C. squads.

The powerful Redshirts, even without the services of either Johnny Doeg or Charles Weesner, first and second singlists, respectively, will be favored to down the Bruins in this afternoon's games.

Capt. John Wheatley, Larry Hall, Lawrence Driscoll and Ted Easton of Stanford will meet Capt. Bob Laird, Leanore Dworkins, Rodman Houser, Frank Westsmith and Frank Struble. Five singles and two doubles matches will be held.

MIXED BATTLES MAY BE BANNED

but there are ways and means of "discouraging" mixed battles. It is feared that the eventual outcome of these matches would be bloody race riots.

Nine thousand spectators were in the Coliseum last night when a fight started in one of the balconies. There were yells of:

"Kill the nigger!" and presently Herman Landfield and Alonzo Strou were hurled from the balcony upon the heads of people packed tightly below. Landfield died this afternoon from his injuries. Meanwhile general fighting was in progress in the balcony and it spread to the main floor.

The house electrician had turned off all the lights except the big spotlights over the ring and had taken a position well up in front where he could see the fight. It required five minutes for him to battle his way through the fighting mass and turn on the lights. Someone set up the cry of "fire," creating the wildest disorder. Hundreds started for the exits, trampling down a number of persons, including several women.

After the lights came on and something like order had been restored, the bodies of thirty-five unconscious persons were picked up from the floor and removed to hospitals. More than 100 others suffered severe bruises, broken arms and other injuries, but went to their homes or were taken away by friends. Hundreds of chairs were broken in the scramble or in the general fighting among the partisans. Guns and knives were freely displayed, but there appears to have been no shooting.

LEGIONS TO CHARGE FOR RING BOUTS

Amateur Boxing Clubs Put Under Supervision of Athletic Commission

American Legion posts throughout Los Angeles county sponsoring amateur boxing clubs, in the future will charge admission to all events and come directly under the supervision of the California State Boxing Commission, Dist.-Atty. Fitts announced yesterday.

The agreement was reached following a conference between Jim Woods, head of the commission; Wayne Jordan, assistant chief deputy District Attorney, and representatives of seven Legion boxing clubs in Los Angeles county.

Under the State law, clubs and organizations giving amateur boxing bouts come under supervision of the State Boxing Commission only when admission is charged for the events.

Representatives of the State commission contended that various Legion clubs were evading inspection by charging members for short memberships and then permitting them to attend amateur bouts without additional charge. Others were accused of charging parking fees for spectators and then permitting them to enter the stadiums without charge.

A conference on the matter was precipitated when Atty.-Gen. U. S. Webb ruled recently that such practices do not alter the circumstances and that all such clubs must come under supervision of the Boxing Commission.

Those present at the conference are Chairman Woods, Scotty Chisholm and Frank Moran, two of his assistants, and Clark Wallace and Tab White, representing the Compton Athletic Club; M. W. Horn and M. L. Shucart, Belvedere Gardens Legion Athletic Club; T. H. Jennings, Centinela Athletic Club, Ben Webb, Howard Clark, and J. O. Taylor, Whittier Athletic Club; Clark Wallace, Burbank Legion Athletic Club, and Paul Gilmore, and Charles D. Hamilton of Whittier.

Holder of world's 400-meter record

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The California Bears, without sharp claws, will go to Los Angeles this week-end to engage in a dual track meet with Coach Dean Cromwell's well-trained Trojans. Coach Christie of the Californians figures to beat U.S.C. but there is not a dopester in or around these parts that will verify this remark.

The Trojans are high favorites, and how they can lose is far from easy figuring. For California to claim a victory is clean-cut optimism, and their needed points are sadly missing.

EMERSON SPENCER

Pogolotti, the Bear's star hurdler, has been a limping athlete for two weeks because of a sprained ankle. If he is able to annex a win in the highs and pull through with a second place in the lows the Californians will be satisfied. Much will depend on the showing of this lanky Californian, but with the lack of practice taken into consideration, Pogolotti is going to have more than his hands and legs full.

SPRINTERS FAIR

The Bear sprinter, Bisbee, ran through a fast ten flat hundred Saturday in a trial affair, and if he can repeat this Saturday he has a chance against Maurer. If Maurer keeps up with his consistent running, the slender Bisbee will not do better than a third. In the 220 the Californians Giguirre and Bisbee cannot be figured to take better than a third because they have shown absolutely nothing in the past meets.

Vic Williams will shatter the California hopes badly in the quarter mile, because this Trojan star will do forty-nine if needed to win, while the Californians, Johnson, Clark and Sparkes, will run fifty flat or possibly slightly better.

The half-mile is a toss-up with Gloege of U.S.C. a favorite because of his past performances and his known ability. Chase can do 1:58 and there is a chance for the Blue and Gold runner to snatch a well earned victory. Schurr of Troy and Rust of California will battle for the third place, and they are on a par.

The mile run, the event that Christie figured so much for points in early season, is and has turned sour. Of course, Carter should win against Fitzmaurice and Swede, but Cherry, who was figured a second place, has turned in some rotten performances during the past two weeks. Of course, he is figured to improve with great rapidity overnight, and his holding back will be used for a surprise, but he may guess twice too often because Fitzmaurice and Swede are the favorites to take second and third, respectively.

"Red" Mossman, brilliant sophomore, might run the mile, and if he does there may be a surprise. This small runner is good and can run any race from the half-mile up. However, he is figured only in the two-mile at the present writing, and the race between Woodruff and Mossman will be a battle this Saturday, with the Trojan favored because of his past record, although a win by Mossman will not be a great surprise. Patterson of U.S.C. is better than the other Californians, although there is a hunch that Carter will run this longer grind, and if he does he should take the third place.

VAULTERS BEST

In the pole vault it looks like a cinch nine points for U.S.C., with the California vaulters breaking their necks at heights of over 12ft. Segure, Bias and Lom, the Blue and Gold broad jumpers, are consistent around 23ft., and they should grab the majority of points in this event, with Jess Hill reckoned to take a second place, although he is capable of first.

The javelin throwers from California should make a clean sweep for Capt. Curtice, Aker, Baxter and Churchill have all thrown 190ft. or better. This is better than Mortensen's best throws. The high jump is a toss-up, with Enright, Jacklevitch and Bingaman of California capable of 6ft., while for the Trojans, Bowen and Tintinger are just as good. However, Jacklevitch may upset matters with one of his better than 6ft. leaps that he was capable of last season.

The shot put should result in a win for Schleimer, with Bradley of California taking a second place. Brown and Patten of California should battle it out with the Trojans for third place. In the discus throw Waters has done 131 feet, while his team-mate Californian, Patton, should do better, but cannot stay in the circle. If Patton can stay in the ring he may win the event. California is figuring one-two in this event and they may find their dope running true to form, although Bradbury of U.S.C. will dispute this very much.

In the above dope sheet the California hopes are given in all optimism showing where California has a chance to make it a close meet, and with a few upsets favoring the Californians the meet could result in a Blue and Gold victory. However, this is not the candid opinion of the writer.

MARTIN ZUNIGA TO GO EAST TOMORROW

Martin Zuniga, L.A.A.C. featherweight boxing star, leaves tomorrow with his coach, Clayton Frye, for Boston where he will be one of the favored entries in the national senior boxing championships. The meet is scheduled for April 8-10.

Zuniga has not been beaten in championship competition this year and Coach Frye feels confident that he will bring back another title to the Mercury club. Zuniga is the Pacific Coast and Far-Western featherweight champion and will compete in this weight at Boston.

RABBIT PUNCHES
BY PAUL LOWRY

CUBS OR ANGELS

THE Angels looked like the Cubs yesterday. They punched the horsehide all over the lot in the season's opener with Seattle, and even Bill Wrigley must feel proud of his Coast League entry this year.

Bill scorned his Angels last year and spent all his time wishing his Cubs into first place in the National League race. The boys didn't quite make the grade for Bill in 1928, but it looks as if this is going to be Bill's year—a double win with pennants in both the Coast League and National League.

While they finished far down the trail last year ye Angels are a real ball club this season. They may not be the finished product, defensively speaking. There seemed to be defects at second and short yesterday.

But when it comes to wrecking power the Angels have it in copious quantities. The boys taking Bill's dough for playing in Angel uniforms this season can lean on the apple with great intensity.

And who wouldn't rather see a booming triple or a homer than a sizzling putout? For the same reason they stress power in football these days they stress basehits in baseball.

The old Chicago White Sox of Fielder Jones's time wouldn't be popular today. The fans want hitting wonders—not "hitless wonders."

HEAVY SLUGGERS

IN THE Angels, 15-to-4 victory over Seattle every man but Barfoot of Marty Krug's starting crew got at least one basehit. The boys slugged themselves around and two over in the riotous third inning. Webb got two hits that inning—a single and a double. "Slug" Tolson was the only guy easy for the Indians. He made two outs for the enemy—a strikeout and a foul to the first baseman in the third.

Wes Schulmerich, the old Oregon Aggie fullback, carries his gridiron power into the diamond, and he had the honor of dragging down the first hit.

Bobby Jones, who followed him in the line-up, couldn't snatch that honor but he rattled out a homer—the first of the year. These boys collected the first two runs and they are entitled to opening-day bleats.

Johnny Butler made the first error of the season, and although he figured in a couple of fast double plays in the first two innings his work around the short pasture was anything but giltless.

WALLY GETS THE HAND

THERE were a lot of interesting sidelights to the opening festivities.

Wally Hood, the former Angel, was given the biggest hand of the day when he appeared at the plate in the second inning for Seattle. Wally rose to the spirit of the occasion and spanked out a beautiful single into left center field.

Paul Strite, the demon photographer, was struck in the camera by a ball from Jacobs's bat. Marty Krug, who was in the coaching box, retrieved the ball and offered it to Mr. Strite as consolation, but Mr. Strite in a moment of Spartan-like fervor spurned the missile and returned to his chores.

Sheriff Bill Traeger appeared with the biggest bay window in captivity to catch Mayor Cryer's slants. It's almost unfair to pick on a guy's form when he passes forty, but the old boys who remember Bill as a svelte athlete at Stanford can't help but make comparisons.

There's only one ex-athlete I can remember with a bigger bay than Bill's. That was Locomotive Smith, old California fullback, who appeared on the Berkeley campus one Alumni Day with a front porch that would have shamed an Alderman.

President Harry Williams showed up in the press box to see how his former confederates were behaving themselves, and Beans Reardon reported he would soon be on his way for his annual umpiring snooze in the big leagues. Earl Houck, the blind tenor, was there—three innings late.

CHEER FOR MORGAN

SOME of the Seattle scribes were on deck for the opener, but they lost all interest in the proceedings after that third-inning barrage.

Mr. Leo Lassen perked up in the first inning when Ernie Johnson doubled Muller over the pan. "That's a great break for the skipper," he announced, but two innings later he had succumbed for the day.

Mr. Lassen is an old boyhood friend of Tod Morgan, who defends his junior lightweight title here next Tuesday. He says Tod has not been in the best of health for the past two years, but believes the boy's recent fast pulled him out. He expects him to beat Zorilla.

Pirates Trim Detroit Crew

PHOENIX, March 26. (AP)—George Grantham's war club, combined with some wierd infielding on the part of the Detroit defense, gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 7-to-4 win over the Tigers this afternoon in the first major league engagement of the season at the local baseball park. A crowd of 2000 fans were in their seats for perhaps one-half of the game, that half when they were not on their feet cheering and raving like it was a gridiron battle they were watching instead of an exhibition ball game.

Grantham started the Pirates off to a lead in the first inning with a two-base hit and later gave a perfect impersonation of the hometown boy making good by lifting the ball over the right-field fence for a home run with Jones treading the path and scoring before him.

The Detroit infield was shaky, every member of the inner works contributing a boot to the box score.

Only once did the Bengals from the automobile city forge ahead. This was in the fifth when Shea clouted a deep one to the left, clearing the fence by a long margin. Score:

Hollywood and Magyar Soccer Squads Tangle

Owing to unforeseen developments Hollywood will not make the journey north to San Francisco to play in the all-California cup this week-end. The schedule for the local fans has therefore been rearranged and the film men will meet the Magyars in a grim ninety-minute battle for the points at Loyola Field Sunday.

Hollywood is now virtually League champion. Magyars, who are runners up, can be depended on to make the Sheiks step out in what should prove to be a sensational battle. This will be the feature tilt. Richfield Oil and Sons will open the program in a fast game at 1 o'clock.

Soccer fans should note that the games at Pasadena on Sunday will be played at the Pasadena Tournament Park, as the Rose Bowl is otherwise engaged. The events slated for Pasadena are Vikings and L.A.A.C. at 1 o'clock, and Scots and Pasadena at 3 o'clock. Both events should prove interesting affairs and provide the fans with an excellent day's sport.

Cards, Bruins Battle Today

Stanford's varsity tennis team will encounter the strong U. C. L. A. netters this afternoon on the courts of the Palomar tennis club at Cheviot Hills. This is the first of the dual meets between these teams and the stars of the California and U.S.C. squads.

The powerful Redshirts, even without the services of either Johnny Doeg or Charles Weesner, first and second singlists, respectively, will be favored to down the Bruins in this afternoon's games.

Capt. John Wheatley, Larry Hall, Lawrence Driscol and Ted Easton of Stanford will meet Capt. Bob Laird, Leanors Dworkins, Rodman Houser, Frank Westsmith and Frank Struble. Five singles and two doubles matches will be held.

BELANGER STOPS WINE

MINNEAPOLIS, March 26. (AP)—Charley Belanger, light-heavyweight champion of Canada, won a technical knockout over Frankie Wine of Barberton, O., in the fifth round of a ten-round bout here tonight. The referee stopped the bout when Wine, bleeding profusely, was unable to put up much of a fight against the Canadian.

but there are ways and means of "discouraging" mixed battles. It is feared that the eventual outcome of these matches would be bloody race riots.

Nine thousand spectators were in the Coliseum last night when a fight started in one of the balconies. There were yells of:

"Kill the nigger!" and presently Herman Landfield and Alonzo Strou were hurled from the balcony upon the heads of people packed tightly below. Landfield died this afternoon from his injuries. Meanwhile general fighting was in progress in the balcony and it spread to the main floor.

The house electrician had turned off all the lights except the big spotlights over the ring and had taken a position well up in front where he could see the fight. It required five minutes for him to battle his way through the fighting mass and turn on the lights. Someone set up the cry of "fire," creating the wildest disorder. Hundreds started for the exits, trampling down a number of persons, including several women.

After the lights came on and something like order had been restored, the bodies of thirty-five unconscious persons were picked up from the floor and removed to hospitals. More than 100 others suffered severe bruises, broken arms and other injuries, but went to their homes or were taken away by friends. Hundreds of chairs were broken in the scramble or in the general fighting among the partisans. Guns and knives were freely displayed, but there appears to have been no shooting.

Due to the trouble which arose in naming the official for the Emanuel-Tommy Loughran bout in advance, the name of the third man in the ring will probably be kept secret.

The only voice Frank Churchill and Wirt Ross, managers of the boxers, will have, probably is to be asked their preference from a list of available referees. But the final say-so will rest with the commission.

The Morgan interests are most concerned over the third man since Tod is defending a world title. Contenders have to do the best they can.

The bout is very likely to be decided on points and not a knockout. Neither Morgan nor Zorilla are one-punch fighters.

Fans are widely apart in picking the winner of the bout at this stage in training of the two principals. Most of the boxing men like Zorilla's chances.

Smart money, however, is sticking with the champion. Also men, who make their selections strictly on condition of the boxers, like Morgan.

Zorilla's strongest backers come from the outlying districts. The Panamanian made himself at home in suburban clubs. He is especially strong at Culver City, Wilmington and Pasadena.

The San Francisco draw which the two fought last December, was a hummer.

Neither Morgan nor Zorilla will be satisfied with a draw verdict next Tuesday night.

"If I win decisively or if I have a shade I want it," declare both fighters.

The seat sale is moving right along and the doubters who thought the title match wouldn't pull are wrong again. The bout figures to draw $30,000.

AMATEUR YACHTSMEN OFFERED MOORIN

Amateur yachtsmen and boating enthusiasts of Los Angeles will welcome the announcement just issued by the playground and recreation department of the rental of moorings and other facilities at the Cabrillo Municipal Boathouse at San Pedro Harbor.

Moorings will be available for any type of craft up to thirty-five feet in length at very nominal rates, the announcement stated. These rentals will include the protection of a night watchman and tender service to the boats.

The new boathouse at the end of the breakwater will also rent dunnage lockers, outboard motor stalls, and other facilities needed by salt-water boatmen in the care of their craft.

opening games, was hit rather freely by the Indians yesterday and didn't have his customary control, but at that he didn't have much to worry about after the first couple of rounds. Barfoot finally retired in the eighth, after the game had been cinched, and Harry Child blanked the Tribe in the last rounds.

Barfoot was in trouble in the first two innings, but got by with only one run scoring, a couple of snappy double plays engineered by Johnny Butler, Ray Jacobs and Slug Tolson pulling him out of trouble. Clyde's only bad round was the fifth when, after two were out, Eckhardt's double, Steinecke's single and a home run over the left-field fence by Dave Barbee gave the Indians their last three markers.

Collard, who started on the mound for Seattle, lasted two and one-third innings before the Angel attack. Collard was replaced while the Angels were in the midst of a six-run rally in the third and Ault, his successor, didn't fare much better before the Cherubs. Lefty Fisch replaced Ault in the sixth and got by with three unearned runs being scored off his southpaw slants.

The Indians started off as though they were going to be real hostile when Muller was safe on Butler's boot and scored when Skipper Ernie Johnson, off to a good start on his new job, doubled over Schulmerich's head in deep center. Eckhardt popped out but Steinecke singled infield to give the situation a nasty appearance for our Angels. Barbee, however, rapped into a double play that ended the excitement.

JONES BUSTS HOMER

Schulmerich opened the Angel first with a single to left and the Seraphs found themselves suddenly out in front when Jones followed with a home run that landed in one of the ice cream peddler's baskets out in the right-field bleachers. Webb walked and Tolson singled infield but Collard disposed of Berger, Jacobs and Butler to end the inning.

Wally Hood, who was given a big ovation as he came to the plate in the second inning, and Ellsworth singled to make things again look bad for Barfoot, but another double play killed off this Indian uprising.

The Seraph war clubs got into action with a vengeance in the third and six runs were driven across the plate to soak most of the interest out of the contest. Webb lined a double to left for a starter, but Tolson struck out. Berger walked and then Ray Jacobs singled a hit to left that counted Webb. Butler doubled down the left-field line to count Berger and that was all for Collard. Warren greeted Ault by slamming a double into the center-field corner, Jacobs and Butler pattering over the plate. Barfoot popped to Ellsworth. Schulmerich walked and Jones smashed a single off Ault's glove to fill the bases. Webb, up for a second helping, singled to center and Warren and Schulmerich scored. Tolson, on an attempted hit-and-run play, fouled to McDaniel for the third out.

Some snappy footwork by Berger, who singled infield to Ellsworth, went from first to third on Butler's infield out and came home on Warren's solid safety to center gave the Angels another run in the fourth.

TRIBE SCORES THREE

The Tribe mare its last demonstration of the afternoon in the fifth when, with two away, Eckhardt doubled, Steinecke singled and Barbee homed for three runs. McDaniel also hit safely, but Hood forced him to end the round.

The Angels made their last six runs in clusters of three in the fifth and sixth stanzas. In the fifth Schulmerich led off with a line drive home run over the left center field barrier. That was Schulmerich's third homer in his last three games, he having hit for the circuit in both of the Angels' performances against Detroit at Phoenix last Saturday and Sunday. Jones followed the homer with a double to center. Webb popped out and Tolson drew a walk. Berger forced Tolson on a nice play by Muller, Jones reaching third. Jacobs walked to fill the sacks. With the count three-and-two on Butler and two out, all the runners started with the pitch and Jones and Berger scored when Johnny beat out an infield tap to Ellsworth.

Seattle's defense blew up in the sixth and the Angels got three unearned runs off Fisch. A bobble by Ellsworth, singles by Jones and Webb, a missed third strike on Berger by Steinecke for what should have been the third out, and a wild heave to center by the same gentleman accounted for the last of the Angel scores.

The boys will meet again today and a closer contest is expected, inasmuch as Jim Edwards, ace of Seattle's pitching staff, is to oppose Carl Holling. Score:

Foul Tips

Funny part about the Angels' lopsided victory in the opener yesterday is that Slug Tolson, Walter Berger and Ray Jacobs, who are supposed to do a big portion of the Seraphs' slugging, only got one hit apiece. It's a good thing these three weren't hitting along with the rest of the Cherubs or the score would have been about 30 to 4.

Berger pulled off a couple of sensational catches out in left field and on both occasions Muller was the victim of the Angel ball hawk. In the sixth inning Walter ran over into the extreme left field corner to snatch Muller's high fly near the box seats, while in the eighth he caught the Tribe infielder's high foul after a long sprint from deep left field.

Harry Child, who relieved Barfoot in the eighth, fanned Barbee and McDaniel and had two strikes on Hood in his attempt to whiff the side, but Wally waited the Angel hurler out for a walk.

Hood, by the way, is still a great favorite with Los Angeles fans. Wally got a bigger hand than any of the Seraph players when he came to the bat in the second inning. Wally responded with a single.

Bill Steinecke and Dallas Warren are supposed to be the best looking young catchers in the league. Warren certainly looked much better than Steinecke yesterday, but maybe the latter just ran into a bad day. Warren punched out a single and double in three times at bat and hit the ball hard.

Carl Holling, who was with the Missions last season, will be Marty Krug's hurling choice for today's game. Holling always has been a great spring pitcher and he says he is in good shape for his first start. Jim Edwards, the southpaw from Mississippi, who keeps in shape during the winter by throwing rocks at squirrels, will be on the mound for Seattle.

Slug Tolson made a great play to rob Ernie Johnson of a hit in the fifth inning. Slug knocked down Johnson's sizzler, ran over toward second to pick up the ball and then whipped it to Barfoot just in time to make the putout at first.

FIREMAN BALL TEAM DOWNS BRUIN VARSITY

The Bruin baseball nine of the University of California at Los Angeles yesterday lost a diamond struggle to the team of the Los Angeles Fire Department in a game played on Moore Field. The final score was 5-to-1. Coach A. J. "Sturzy" Sturzenegger of U.C.L.A. started Capt. "Whitey" Graham on the mound for the Bruins, but only kept him in long enough to give him a mild workout. George "Buddy" Forster finished the game as hurler for U.C.L.A. The Firemen had previously played the Bruins a 3-to-3 tie, earlier in the season.

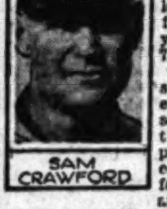
Four Stanford Hurlers Are Routed by Locals

Rallying in the eighth to gather six hits and score four runs, overcoming a three-run lead that the visitors had established in their half of the same frame, Sam Crawford's Trojans won a league ball game from Stanford yesterday, 8 to 7.



SAM CRAWFORD

The Cards started the eighth with the score 3-4 against them and promptly rounded up five hits for four runs, and a 7-4 lead. But Harry Wolter's four chuckers couldn't hold the lead, and the Trojan sluggers picked up six straight hits for four runs, and the ball game.

Three hits gave the Trojans two runs in the third, and three more bingles brought another pair in the fourth. Stanford finally found Schulz in the sixth for a run, and two more in the seventh.

Cook led off with a single in the eighth for the visitors, and Berg followed with another. McGrath sacrificed them along, and Johnson's sizzling hit down the third-base line sent both runners home. Laird flew out, but Lewis doubled to score Johnson. Wilton hit to the same spot to score Lewis, but Churchill lined out to Schulz to stop the rally.

Boswell led off with an infield hit, and Kreiger dropped a beautiful Texas leaguer into left-center for a single. Stanier tripled against the left center-field wall, and Smalling replaced Lewis in the box for the visitors. Gorman doubled, scoring Stanier, and was out trying to stretch the hit to a triple. Von Aspe singled to left, and went to third when Hunken let the ball go through him. Taylor replaced Smalling, and Ward smashed the first ball thrown to center to score Von Aspe with what proved to be the winning run. Taylor struck out Schulz and Hanby.

Schulz turned in a nobby twirling exhibition except for the eighth frame, and, in addition, had a brilliant day in the field, with eight assists and a put-out. Von Aspe, with three bingles, led the Trojan stickers, with everybody but Tarchone getting at least one hit. Laird, with three hits in four tries, and nine cleanly handled chances, was Stanford's all-around star.

The same teams play again today. The Cards play the Bruins Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. The box score:

Bears Profit on Football

BERKELEY, March 26. (AP)—Gross receipts from football at the University of California reached the high total of $622,547.67 last year, W. W. Monahan, general manager of the associated students, revealed today.

Net earnings of the college treasury amounted to $161,236.78, Monahan said, and out of this sum $150,000 was paid to the university regents on account of new athletic development.

Although the gross receipts for football were large these receipts as well as those from other major sporting events had to be shared with other schools, sharing in the competition, reducing the total gross revenue to $372,125.

Also, some of the other major sports showed a loss, the total deficit from basketball, baseball and track events alone being $76,062. Field maintenance and stadium expense came to $63,724. Debts payable reduced the net earnings to $161,236.67.

STARS BOW TO SOLONS, 8 TO 6

Keating. Lee, the season's first batter, drew a walk, and Maloney singled him to second whence he scored on Carlyle's one-base hit through short.

Sacramento wrested the lead from the Stars in its half of the inning. French walked and Monroe forced him. Cammilli reached first on Maloney's fumble and both runners trotted in when Joe Harris hit the top of the left-field fence with a hard drive. Rey Rowher also hit safely for a base, scoring Harris, making the run total for the inning, three.

The Solons chalked up another tally in the second frame when McLaughlin got an infield hit, advanced to second on a base on balls to Burke, and scored on an infield out and a sacrifice fly.

Both clubs scored a bachelor tally in the fifth inning, the Stars getting theirs as the result of a single by Lee who stole second and scored on a double by Albert; while the Senators came back with a matching run after two were out, Cammilli drawing a walk ahead of singles by Harris and Rohwer.

MUSHY OUT TO BEAT CARR

Callahan Plans to Reverse Decision on Jackie; Champ in Good Shape for Bout

Mushy Callahan is still trying to make his comeback and his ambition right now is to wipe out the defeat Jackie Carr handed him six months ago at Hollywood. Callahan feels as though he is right for the fight tomorrow night at the Hollywood American Legion stadium.

During Callahan's training period he has been working with southpaws, so he will be accustomed to that style of fighting when he faces Carr. Mushy beat the best southpaw fighter on this Coast when he turned back Dode Bercot. Up to that time Callahan had never faced that style, so he doesn't think that was the cause of his defeat when he met Carr.

For more than two weeks Callahan has been working out every afternoon at the Main-street "gym," and he claims he is better right now than when he fought Arizona Joe Rivers. His judge of distance and timing is better.

Having never seen Filimino Pisons, the Filipino flyweight champion of the navy, in action, the boys will string with Clayton Gouyd to win the semi-wind-up. The Filipino is a socker and has a long string of knockouts in his fleet fights. He looks like a good short-ender to cop.

Wallie Fraser and Art Pertille, a couple of heavyweights, are making their Hollywood debut in the special event.

STASIAK TO WEAR TUBE ON STOMACH

Seeks to Protect His "Tummy" from Tackles by Sonnenberg

Stanley Stasiak, the 235-pound Polish giant, who will clash with Gus Sonnenberg, the world's mat king, in a title finish wrestling bout at the Olympic one week from tonight, announced yesterday he believed he had perfected ways and means to lessen the punishment "Dynamite" Gus is likely to deal out with his flying tackles.

In a secret workout, Stasiak found a way to protect his stomach which he believes will be permitted, as, he says, there are no rules in the catch-as-catch-can group issued by the California State Athletic Commission, which will prohibit its use.

Stasiak intends to wear a slightly inflated pneumatic rubber tube, about eighteen inches wide, around his midriff the night of the match, to take the jar and pain out of all of Sonnenberg's flying tackles. The Polish giant declares the use of the inflated tube, in his opinion, is just as permissible as an elastic band on a knee, wrist or ankle, or the rubber glove Joe Malcewicz used when he wrestled Ed (Strangler) Lewis here last year.

The Pole stated he has already ordered the stomach protector made and will wear it in the ring, although he expects to encounter plenty of opposition to the plan from both Sonnenberg and his manager, Paul Bowser. Should the champion and his manager lodge a protest with Promoter Lou Daro over the use of the pneumatic tube, the question will probably be taken to Athletic Commissioner James Woods for the final say.

Stasiak, in the meantime, is holding two workouts a day getting ready for the title bout. He has scheduled a secret workout for the mornings, and an open workout for the afternoons, the latter being held in the Manhattan gym. The big Pole is working out a defense to use against the flying tackle, Sonnenberg's most punishing and most sensational hold, and he is also building up the walls of his stomach to be better able to withstand all of the punishment the champion may pump into his midriff.

Jaysee Loses to Poet Nine

LONG BEACH, March 26. (Exclusive)—The powerful Whittier College baseball nine added another win to their belts here today at the expense of the Long Beach Junior College horsehiders. The final score was 11-1 in favor of the Poets. Talbert, the Jaysee pitcher, although striking out twelve Whittier batsmen, had poor support.

All the scoring was done in the first and fifth innings. In the initial session, Whittier pounded out six runs, while the junior collegians got their lone score. In the fifth, the Poets chased five more markers across the plate bringing their total up to 11.

Sheldon and Percy Lewis both of Whittier, led the hitting, both getting two bingles out of four trips to the plate.

Tennessee Baseball Team Favored to Win Pacific Fleet Diamond Championship Race

SAILORS START SUMMER SPORTS

Maryland Expected to Give Strongest Opposition

Flyweight Champion Tries Professional Career

Raceboat Crews Preparing for Annual Battle

BY FRANK T. HARVEY

Athletes of the battle fleet, fresh from a string of victories in the all-navy athletic competition in Panama last month, arrived home last Friday and this week started out with a burst of speed looking for new fields to conquer.

Baseball is the major athletic topic at present, and the teams from all battleships are going through stiff practice sessions this week on the navy diamond at San Pedro.

The eliminations to decide the west coast service title will commence in May and will be decided before the fleet leaves here in June. At present it appears as though Ensign E. J. Sullivan's Rebel Sailors from the dreadnaught Tennessee will offer the greatest threat for the title. The Rebels have won eleven and lost one game this season, and their only defeat was at the hands of the U.S.S. Wright team, which annexed the all-navy title at Panama.

It is probable that the Tennessee will meet the Pacific Steamship nine at San Pedro on Sunday, and other games with civilian teams are this week being arranged.

Reports from the battleship Maryland, which returns here on Thursday, are to the effect that the "Hoover ship" has an excellent ball team. The Free Staters are being coached by Ensign Tom Hamilton, former Naval Academy star, who will play behind the plate this year.

BERNHEIM TRANSFERRED

Jimmy Bernheim, veteran navy raceboat coach, who was transferred from the dreadnaught Mississippi to the naval hospital at San Diego several weeks ago, has again been transferred. Bernheim is now at the naval training station in the southern city. He is credited with having coached more winning raceboats than any other man in the service.

PISONS ON CARD

Pilema (Poison) Pisons, hard-punching flyweight champion of the entire United States Navy, is in excellent shape for his first professional tilt at Hollywood on Thursday night when he engages Clayton Gourd in the semifinal bout. Pisons is expected to prove a sensation in his bout at the cinema city stadium. In twenty-seven starts he has scored twenty-four knockouts and has as yet never been defeated.

Sailor Harold Henderson, welterweight champion of the battle fleet, who swings his hammock aboard the U.S.S. Maryland is booked for a preliminary bout on the same card. Henderson is under the management of Johnny Buff, former flyweight champion, who recently was given an honorable discharge from the navy. Pisons is under the management of Johnny Williamson of San Pedro.

RACES ON TAP

Raceboat crews of the battleships are this week churning up the water in the outer harbor in preparation for the spring regatta season which will open next month. Two of the most important pulling events on the navy calendar will take place while the fleet is in the north this summer. They are the Seattle Times cup race which will be pulled over the Lake Washington course and the Olympic cup race which will be pulled at San Francisco. Both races are for three miles and each battleship will be represented.

EVENING SMOKERS

The aircraft carrier Saratoga has arranged to hold several evening smokers during the ship's stay at this base. Men of all weights from each division will be pitted against one another and in this way it is hoped to develop many top-notch leather pushers to represent the carrier in the coming battle fleet eliminations.

HUSKIES PREPARING FOR MEET WITH CARDINALS

SEATTLE, March 26. (AP)—Night indoor work in the Washington athletic pavilion was the schedule outlined today by Coach Hec Edmundson as his athletes started tapering off training for the dual meet here Thursday evening against the crack Stanford track and field aggregation.

Edmundson took his men into the pavilion last night for the first tryout under artificial light in order to get them accustomed to the change from daylight work. The men, especially Steve Anderson and Capt. Bill Shelley, hurdles, found the new conditions much different from running during the day time.

With the Cards slated to arrive here tonight, final changes are being made in the pavilion for Washington's first big indoor meet. Fred Stury, Yale pole vault star, was also expected to arrive tonight from New York. He, with Ward Edmonds, Stanford ace, will attempt to shatter the world's indoor record of 14ft. 1in., held by Sabin Carr, Yale.

The Stanford team is made up of veterans while the Huskies present a group of untried men. Nine huskies have yet to compete in a big meet. It will be upon the shoulders of these untried sophomores that much of Washington's success will depend.

Elvert Sellers, first year man, is the ace of the two-milers. Whiting, sophomore sprang into the limelight a few weeks ago as a broad jumper and low hurdler. Adams and Nelson, also first year varsity men, are the javelin heavers. Talbot Hartley will mee tcompetition as a varsity man in the 440 for the first time, while Bale, in the same event, is in his first year on the squad. Wentworth and Ramstedt, high jumper and shot putter, respectively, are rated sophomores, but will be out of the meet because of injuries.

KELLY SIGNS WITH CINCY BALL CLUB

CINCINNATI, March 26. (AP)—George Kelly, first baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, considered a hold-out for more money, but who has been practicing with the team at Orlando, Fla., for several weeks, today signed his 1929 contract. The terms were not anncunced.

PALMER STOPS FEGUARO

DAYTON (O.) March 26. (AP)—Peddlar Palmer, Columbus, O., negro light-heavyweight, knocked out Roleaux Feguaro of Cuba in the third round of their ten-round bout here tonight.

JACK MACKEY'S 75 TOPS FIELD

man, Danny Sangster, Buddy Thompson, E. F. Combs, Jr., Winston Fuller and other low-handicap players who have reserved starting times for today, will be able to do with the course, remains to be seen.

While it is true that a stiff wind had something to do with yesterday's high scores, the greens that "roll away from the mountains" had the biggest finger in the pie. Three and four-putt greens were the rule rather than the exception. That is no reflection on the greens, which are relatively new, but in excellent shape and lightning fast, but due more to the fact that up-hill putts appear to be down hill and vice versa.

The figures show just how tough Pasadena proved to be yesterday. Out of the 113 who turned in cards, two were in the 70's, thirty-nine in the 80's, forty-seven in the 90's and the rest over the century mark.

H. A. Greene of Rancho and J. W. Morgan of Mountain Meadows tied for third place with 80. William Hunter of El Serrano was next with 82.

Martin, winner of the San Gabriel and Lakeside invitationals, will have the advantage of having walked over the course with Lavelle yesterday. He has not played the course since the Southern California open was held there several years ago. Martin should score well on the course, as his long game will give him an advantage from tee to green, and he is usually a consistent putter.

C. C. Henry, chairman of the tournament committee, is host to the visiting golfers.

Match play begins tomorrow in ten flights of sixteen. Following are the results of yesterday's play:

TWO ACES RECORDED AT BRENTWOOD

Freddie Tongue writes in that two holes-in-one have been scored at the Brentwood Country Club recently on the 213-yard sixth hole. E. N. Perry scored his while playing with J. E. Figley. The other was made by Clyde Handrie in a threesome with D. G. Bevis and Olin Dutra.

Voigt Leads at Pinehurst

PINEHURST (N. C.) March 26. (AP)—George Voigt, Washington (D. C.) amateur, took the lead in the North and South open golf tournament here today by negotiating thirty-six holes on the rugged Pinehurst Country Club course in 139.

Five strokes behind came Tommy Armour of Detroit, last year's runner-up, and Horton Smith, Joplin (Mo.) flash, each crossing the halfway mark in 144 to start the second day's play in second place.

Trailing the leaders in order were "Wild Bill" Mehlhorn of New York, who made a game bid for the lead in the afternoon, but turned in a 145 for the day; Billie Burke of Westport, N. Y., defending champion, with a 146, and Jack Forrester, Oradell (N. J.) pro, who pulled a 146.

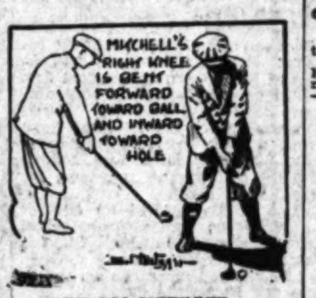
Most of the favorites fared poorly. Johnny Farrell, United States open champion, tied for sixteenth place with two others at 151. Walter Hagen, British open champion, had a 149 to tie with Emmett French of Youngstown, O., for tenth place.

Leo Diegel of Tia Juana, Mex., Canadian open and P.G.A. champion, took 150 to tie with three others for twelfth place and Ross Somerville, Canadian amateur champion, is on even terms with Joe Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y., and Al Houghton of Washington, for seventh place. They had 148's.

Ed Anderson Selected for Husky Stroke

SEATTLE, March 26. (AP)—Selection of Ed Anderson as the stroke of the University of Washington varsity crew was announced today by Al Ulbrickson, head coach, settling one of the most important problems surrounding the final boatings of the Husky shell for the regatta with the University of California on the Oakland estuary April 13. Ellis MacDonald, varsity captain, will probably be shifted to No. 4 oar in the varsity shell.

Position of Right Knee Stressed



MITCHELL'S RIGHT KNEE IS BENT FORWARD TOWARD BALL AND INWARD TOWARD HOLE

BY SOL METZGER

The importance of the position of the right knee in Mitchell's system of driving cannot be overstressed. As this detail concerns itself with one's stance and not with the swing, where the main idea must be to hit the ball, it is easily mastered.

Mitchell bends his right knee slightly forward toward the ball and slightly inward toward the other knee. The reason for this position is that it keeps the right side from tightening up during the swing. Golf, especially driving, is done with the left arm in control, a straight left arm, too.

When one pivots during the backswing the weight automatically shifts in greater proportion upon the right leg. A stiff right knee now tends to brace that side and also to make for wrong right hip action during the backswing. It also causes the weight to shift to the right heel, instead of to the ball of the sole of the right foot.

Keep the right knee slightly bent throughout the backswing to prevent the right hip swaying back or becoming rigid. The reasons for this will come along in a later article. Tomorrow—where the ball is to be teed for best results in driving.

Good putting makes good golf. Write Sol Metzger, care of The Times, requesting his leaflet on putting. In writing inclose stamped, addressed envelope.

COLIMA LOSES BOUT TO YARBO

rounds, one was even and Yarbo copped the other six.

Yarbo fought Colima the way the Mexican does not like to be fought—long left-hand booms to the stomach with a flailing right to the side at close quarters.

COLIMA ROCKED

And both of the openings Yarbo had for clean wallops to the head he capitalized on with a vengeance.

As a matter of fact he practically scored another knockdown in the second round soon after the nine count. A biff to the head sent Colima rocking backward half-way across the ring. The ropes caught his body as his head snapped under the upper strand, and he emerged from the tangle upright.

Yarbo is a short, close coupled black boy who is hard to fight. He covers well, blocks well and hits to hurt.

Colima sensed this to extremes and put up probably the worst fight of his extensive career in this city. He was short incessantly with his left, and he kept his right anchored until the ninth round, when he caught the black with a hard belt just as the bell sounded.

Colima started the tenth as if intending to make a dynamic stretch drive, but Yarbo crashed home a right and the Mexican lit on his face in the resin dust. He got up at eight, but his fighting was perfunctory up to the closing bell.

IN FIGHTING TRIM

Colima was in good fighting shape, weighing 157 1-4. Yarbo scaled 160 even. The house was comfortably filled, there being 8780 paid admissions for a total of $9143 at $2 tops.

Before the main event started Santiago Zorilla, challenger, who fights Tod Morgan for the junior light crown next Tuesday, was introduced from the ring.

Zorilla created a near riot with his get-up—brown suit, flowing kerchief, big "rock" in his tie and a brown derby. He was given a huge reception.

Joe Lohman found Willie Henry, another black boy too tough in the semi-wind-up and the old-timer was forced to bow after six rough rounds. The special event was terrible, but Sandy Garrison won from Johnny DeCourcey in six rounds.

Leonard Bennett drew with Teddy Palacios in four rounds of a good flight, and Manuel Travino won the decision over Pal Shoaf.

BEARS FIX DATE FOR KANSAS CASABA TRIP

At last—a new and still better Eastern oil for the motoring West

Suppose somebody said—

"I can increase power in your engine. I can preserve your engine's first-year feel for 30,000 miles."

You'd want to know how and why. The "how" is the New Mobiloil. The "why" is told below.

In spite of our scientific prejudice against superlative language, we are prepared to make some very strong statements about the New Mobiloil.

For example: We are willing to say that use of the New Mobiloil will help your engine develop more power than other oils of equal viscosity. Our road and laboratory tests have repeatedly shown this to be true.

Our assurance that the New Mobiloil will stand up better and consume more slowly under high speed is a conservative reflection of the speed-test records made in thousands of miles of running at the Atlantic City Speedway. And it is an established engineering fact that the oil which lasts longest and stands up best at high speed lubricates best at any speed.

We believe that, with regular draining and refilling and with reasonable care of your car, the New Mobiloil will keep the first-year feel in your engine for at least 30,000 miles. Actually, Mobiloil has done so in many engines for more than twice this distance.

E. Arnold, charged with ing his best friend, Sergt. E.
Baab, following a wedding
y and birthday party in r's home Saturday night, arraigned before Municipal Aldous yesterday and his inary hearing fixed for April at 9:45 a.m.
arraignment came shortly the murder complaint was is-by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Richard-following a verdict by a Cor-jury accusing Arnold of slay-Baab. The jury, how-was unable to reach a conn as to the reason for Arnrted act.

PARTY DESCRIBED

the inquest yesterday witnesses

's death, telling of the birth-and wedding dinner and how Baab was standing in the
of his home thanking his

of this testimony came
E. Mathes, a motorcycle and eyewitness to the shoot-
Mathes said that a few min-before the shooting Arnold had taken Thomas Wallace, another guest, home and returned, sitting in the front room for a short time. Suddenly Arnold leaped to his feet, seized Baab's revolver from a dresser, dashed into the kitchen and fired three shots, two of which killed the officer, according to Mathes.

MATHES MAKES ARREST

Mathes then arrested Arnold, he said, and demanded an explanation for his actions, but Arnold's only statement was: "I don't know why I did it. He was my best friend."

This testimony was confirmed by Frank Condaffer, detective lieutenant, who said that Arnold admitted shooting Baab, but would give no reason for the slaying.

Sergt. Baab will be given full police honors at the funeral services at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the Brown Brothers' funeral chapel, 935 West Washington street, it was announced. Interment will be in the Rosedale Cemetery.

PROTEST HEARINGS WAIT

Hearing of protests against the ordinance of intention for improvement of streets in the Moore Drive and Schumacher Drive improvement district was postponed yesterday by the City Council to April 23. Meanwhile the Council's Public Works Committee will hold a special hearing on the project April 9. The Council yesterday also postponed the hearing of protests against the lighting of Davis street between Effie street and Lilac Terrace to April 23.

IT'S REAL MISSION FURNITURE

Chair Relic of State's First Industry

Miss Inez del Valle Kirby and Heirloom

RECALLING yesterday the fact that the old missions were California's first factories, Miss Ines del Valle Kirby, a niece of R. F. del Valle of Los Angeles, brought out for display a true mission chair from the family heirlooms. The chair was originally part of the furnishings of the Camulus ranch at Piru, Cal., long the home of the Spanish del Valle family. Camulus ranch also has literary distinction, being the principal scene of Helen Hunt Jackson's story, "Ramona."

Attired in one of her grandmother's old Spanish shawl costumes, Miss Kirby told how the chair was associated with California's industrial beginnings.

In the early days the missons were industrial as well as religious and social centers. The padres taught the Indian converts agriculture and crafts, among the latter the craft of furniture making.

QUARRY INQUIRY WILL SPEED UP

Session a Week Added to Bell Hearing

Cement Proposal Testimony Given by Experts

Engineers Tell Quality of Rock Deposit

Yielding to an insistent demand that some effort be made to speed the matter up and bring it to conclusion within some reasonable time the City Planning Commission voted yesterday to add one more session a week to the hearing on the Alphonzo Bell rock-quarry application.

The hearing has been going on since February 26, last, sessions being held each Tuesday afternoon and evening. The applicant has not completed his testimony as yet and still has more witnesses to call. The protesting property owners, wearied by the long-drawn-out hearing, still have their case to put in. Recognizing that some step must be taken to prevent the hearing becoming a long-drawn-out affair the commission yesterday voted to hold an additional hearing each Wednesday evening in addition to the sessions on Tuesday.

OTHER MATTERS

President Miller and other members of the commission said they are as anxious to bring the hearing to a close as anyone, but that the commissioners not only have their own personal business to attend to, but also other matters before the commission have to be taken care of.

When it was intimated that not all the commissioners might be able to be present at the added session, Attorney Smiley, for some of the protestants, joined by Attorney Siegfried, made an urgent request that the complete commission be present because of the extreme importance of the matter pending. Commissioner Thomas, acting as chairman of the hearing, said he will make an effort to be on hand, but that he might be detained. He is running for office in the Municipal Court and has a campaign on his hands.

The bulk of the session yesterday afternoon was taken up with the testimony of experts, chemical and mining engineers telling the commission the nature and extent of the limestone deposit which the Los Angeles Mountain Park Company proposes to quarry and turn into cement.

LAWYERS CLASH

Opposing counsel clashed frequently over the testimony of W. C. Bass, a chemical engineer, when Bass permitted himself to be drawn into the field of the economics of cement manufacturing. Under a persistent fire of cross-examination by Smiley, Bass admitted he had not intended to pass on the economic aspect of the Bell project. The commission had to admonish him to be specific in his answers and not to indulge in arguments with counsel.

He fixed the cost of quarrying rock at about 40 cents per ton and the cost of manufacturing the cement at 90 cents to $1.10 per barrel. There were so many qualifications, however, that it was difficult to get a definite price. He stated that, in his opinion, the Bell people could manufacture cement cheaper than companies now operating.

O. C. Hart, another chemical and mining engineer, from Brigham City, Utah, followed Bass on the stand, and gave more technical testimony. He expressed the opinion that the limestone in the deposit is remarkably good for the manufacture of cement.

SIZE OF DEPOSITS

During the evening session, Hart estimated the deposit of limestone on the Bell property included in the quarry application to be about 43,000,000 tons. Should quarry operations be conducted at the rate to supply the proposed 2000-barrel a-day cement mill, there is enough limestone there to carry on quarrying for about 224 years, Hart testified.

More technical testimony as to the quality of cement that can be produced from the limestone was given by F. E. Emme and W. J. Beman.

At the regular meeting of the commission this afternoon results will be reported of the official investigation into charges that a woman had circulated petitions in the Beverly Hills district on the representation that the City Planning Commission and the City Council were in favor of the project.

BOY SCOUTS' SHOW DRAWS HUGE CROWD

Today Marks Closing and Attendance Total Due to Approximate 12,000

With the first two days attendance at the second annual Boy Scout Exposition in the Chamber of Commerce Building far exceeding the highest expectations of Scout leaders, it is estimated the close of the show today will show a total attendance of approximately 12,000 persons. Last year's attendance was 4000.

Chief Scout Executive DeGroot said yesterday that from a standpoint of public interest, record-breaking attendance and number of booths, the exposition this year has been a signal success. It was necessary to refuse some sixty applications for booths on account of lack of space, and next year arrangements will be made to represent every one of the ninety Scout merits, as well as various other phases of Scout work.

Twenty-two Southern California cities sent delegates to attend the show. All of the booths were conceived and executed by the Scouts and each display is designed to illustrate a Scout merit and the type of work required to win the merit badge.

Various prizes and badges will be awarded to troops and Scouts today.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Among the many very attractive visitors to our Southland this spring are Mr. and Mrs. Clark L. Ingham and their daughter, Mrs. Ingham-Van Clief, of Buffalo, who are guests during their sojourn in Southern California at the Huntington in Pasadena. Many delightful affairs are being given in honor of the visitors. Mrs. Ingham is a girlhood friend of Mrs. Sloan Orcutt of the Langham, who is giving a large luncheon Monday afternoon in the Music Room of the Biltmore to honor Mrs. Ingham and Mrs. Van Clief.

Saturday evening Dr. and Mrs. Rufus Bernard Von KleinSmid are entertaining with a dinner party at their home in West Adams street honoring the visitors while Thursday morning Mrs. Alexander Buchanan Barret of Hollywood is giving a breakfast at La Mirada, taking her guests afterward to the Huntington Art Galleries and this evening Mrs. Orcutt will be hostess at a dinner party at the Writers' Club in Hollywood with the eastern visitors as special guests of honor.

Mrs. Marl Baldwin Lewis also gave a beautifully appointed luncheon for Mrs. Ingham and Mrs. Van Clief at the Women's Athletic Club and April 5, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Walton of Pasadena are giving a dinner in their honor. The following day Mrs. Gurdon Wallace Wattles is planning a garden tea at her home in Curson street, Hollywood, for them and April 8, Mrs. Robert Ladd Gifford is giving a reception tea for them at her Pasadena home. Mrs. Ben Givens gave a luncheon recently for them.

They were also given a luncheon last Sunday and afterward were taken to a box party at San Gabriel to see the Mission Play. They are planning to remain in Southern California until about the middle of April.

Luncheon Party

A very elaborate function was the luncheon given in the Turquoise Room of the Victor Hugo last Saturday for the members of a bridge club by Mrs. Clarence Conlin (Cora Boetcher.) The tables were beautifully adorned with iris in shades ranging from pale lavender to deep purple, and were covered with metal cloth in orchid and silver. Cards, favors, and other appointments were carried out in the same colors.

Among those included were Mrs. Perry Greer, Mrs. J. P. Connolly, Mrs. Joe Dickinson, Mrs. Jessica Barham, Mrs. Ed Modine, Mrs. William Shreyer, Mrs. Fred Jungquist, Mrs. Albert Ralphe, Mrs. Loren Foreman, Mrs. George Sunday, Mrs. Walter B. Allen, Mrs. Clifford Gillespie and the hostess.

For Bride-Elect

A beautifully appointed luncheon and bridge was given last Friday by Mrs. Arthur Yanow, of 1825 North Whitley Drive, honoring Miss Dorothy Yanow, whose engagement to Dr. Gilbert Tepper was recently announced. The affair was given at the Beverly Hills Hotel. A color scheme of green and white predominated, the centerpiece of the large table being a wedding bell made of gardenias and green fern; green ribbon streamers from the bell were attached to the place cards which were tiny bridal slippers. There were more than thirty guests bidden.

Smart Affair

An affair of interest to the younger set was the bridge tea and miscellaneous shower given in the Chinese Room of the Mary Louise Tea Room the 23rd inst., by Miss Dorothy Doyle, 4355 Victoria Park Drive, in honor of one of the season's charming brides-elect, Miss Marie Taylor of Clark Drive, whose wedding to Jim Jansen of Belvedere, Ill., will be an event of June 1. The guests included Mrs. Lacy Sears, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Albert Crocker, Mrs. Harold Reed, Mrs. R. Sellers, Mrs. G. W. Richards, Miss Lucille Lindenstadt, Miss Anne Mitchell, Miss Jean Beard, Miss Helen McGinnis, Miss Ione Sellers, Miss Alice Jones, Miss Zora Clark, Miss Rhoades, Miss A. E. Adelot and Miss Betty Stewart.

For Visitors

Mrs. E. J. Shinn of 547 Cahuenga avenue was hostess at a beautifully appointead tea in honor of a number of friends from the East who are wintering in California. Mrs. Shinn was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Robert Eyth, Mrs. George Simmons and Mrs. John Judd while Mrs. Paul William Lawrence presided over the exquisite tea table in the Chinese dining-room. All of the appointments were carried out in the floral designs even to the dainty rose and leaf cakes and candies, to match the lovely flower decorations of the tea table and the various rooms of the home.

Among those bidden were Mrs. Albert Hollingsworth, Mrs. Grant Thornburg, Mrs. P. Moyer, Mrs. M. Stewart, Mrs. D. Dalby, Mrs. B. Rich, Mrs. C. Waddington, Mrs. Ralph Scott, Mrs. B. Sabin, Mrs. Bert Weston, Mrs. D. West, Mrs. Judge Snell, Mrs. Ellsworth Jones, Mrs. K. Patrick, Mrs. Catherine Bucannon, Mrs. E. Spiegel, Mrs. V. Welcome Home

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wetherby of Occidental Boulevard, who have returned from an extended stay of several years in Florida, to again make their home in Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. William Boothe Guyton are giving a buffet supper at their home in South Irving Boulevard, Sunday evening.

Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Beich of Bloomington, and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Asserson of Chicago, entertained a party of friends at a dinner at the Elks' Club, in honor of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asserson, Mrs. George A. Tye, on her departure for Panama and South America on the Steamship Virginia, to join her husband, George A. Tye, who represents the Monroe Chemical Company of Quincy, Ill.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knittel and Carl Knittel of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. GROWING UP WITHOUT FEAR

Parents take upon themselves a grave responsibility when they bring children into the world without themselves having the proper knowledge of the newer science of child psychology. Children are more in need of models than teachers, and the education of the child must begin with the parents.

Those parents who are not well either mentally or physically can still help themselves by studying and applying the best methods for helping their children.

The habits of most children are controlled principally through fear. Their little minds are constantly in a muddle with the "don'ts" and "do nots" and the fear of what will happen if they "do."

Children like to be active. This is the first point to remember in child training. Let them be active at something which is pleasing to them and yet constructive at the same time. If you, as a parent, think it wise for your child to play in his his own yard, see to it that he has interesting toys to play with. If you want him to read good books buy them for him, but don't make the mistake of having these books too "highbrow." Simple, wholesome stories can be selected which teach admirable traits and ideals and still without the revolting tales of murder and disaster.

Children love such toys as bicycles and kiddy-kars, etc. The use of these helps in the development of their bodies. Children like to "go fast." A bump or two will show them how fast they should go. Avoid scaring them about the dangers of falling or running into something. Probably not one child in ten thousand is ever seriously injured by falling from a bicycle, but almost without exception they are injured mentally from the teaching of what might happen but seldom does except in the imagination.

Courage, fair play and pride of achievement are ideals which can be inculcated in the young mind, where there should be no place for imaginary fears.

Most people are afraid of every policeman they see. This is because as children they were warned that if they did certain things the policeman would be called. Policemen are hired and paid by the taxpayers to help people and not to hurt them. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. A POINT OF ARGUMENT BETWEEN FRIENDS

Mrs. McN. writes: "I have a friend who has two little girls 4 and 5 years of age. She is bringing them up very nicely and will not let them play with other children because she says they are too tough. She provides them with good toys and they play all alone. She feels that the children might try to imitate the tough children and forget her good training. Do you think she is right?

"Is a child of 3 too young to go without a daytime nap? She sleeps from 8 to 7:30 o'clock."

Answer: The answer depends entirely on the ages of the other children. If they are of the same age I doubt whether the companionship would hurt either of them. There is no reason to feel that these two children, who have been so admirably reared, should lose their training entirely due to temporary companionship with other children.

However, if the mother continually tells her good children that these others are "tough" and terrible she will make them so fascinating that once the children come into contact with them they will undoubtedly imitate them and then get a great deal of satisfaction out of the consternation of their mother. It hardly seems right to let any child grow up with a consciousness of his superiority over other children. Different he may be, but each can respect the other's differentness and remain himself. Even children aren't too young to learn this lesson. We come into contact with members of society whose manners, customs and ideas are far different from our own, but we don't refuse to listen to them, or feel that in their society we are likely to become like them and entirely lose our own individuality.

Mothers have to choose their children's companions when they are young, and she should choose children who are of similar ages. But I doubt if any child of 4 or 5 could be so "tough" as to hurt any other child of a like age. Home influences which are constant and consistent ought certainly to have much more lasting value than this mother feels they have.

The usual 3-year-old child does not want a daytime nap. But if the nap time is approached in the right way the child won't mind playing quietly in bed for an hour with some favorite toy and with doors open and the blinds up.

RECEPTION WILL START ART EXHIBIT

Nonjury Affair Opens on April 1 Under Auspices of Cultural Groups

The opening evening of the nonjury art exhibit, April 1, in the Architects' Building at Fifth and Figueroa streets, will be the occasion for a reception in honor of the exhibiting artists, their friends and the general public, it was announced yesterday by Antoinette Sabel, executive director of the Civic Bureau of Music and Art of Los Angeles. Mrs. H. G. Everett is chairman of the reception committee, other members of which will be announced later.

The exhibit, which will be open every day from April 1 to 15 and remaining open until 9:30 o'clock every evening, is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the Civic Bureau of Music and Art and other leading groups of the city interested in cultural advancement.

Already more than 1000 exhibits have been received and include a wide variety of subjects and types of fine arts and handcraft sent by artists from every section of Los Angeles county. BELT LINE UNITY PLAN VILIFIED

Political Football Made of Economic Question

Municipal Ownership Idea Pushed in Limelight

Joint Harbor Cannot Afford Perilous Undertaking

BY CHARLES C. COHAN

When any phases of the unification project for the harbors of Los Angeles and Long Beach are seized on by ruthless hands for politics-playing purposes in municipal campaigns, they certainly are manhandled.

The belt line unification for port area service is the outstanding example of what political machinations can do to a perfectly legitimate proposition.

Governmental and other technicians gave extended study to the question of railroad service at the proposed unified port area. Out of that study and conference came the agreement between the city and the four railroad organizations concerned. Details of that unification plan now are before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the confident expectation is for a favorable report on all phases of the belt line procedure submitted.

Dragged into the pending municipal campaign is this belt line plan. It is vilified, misrepresented and plastered with municipal-ownership flapdoodle. About as costly a thing as the city or both cities could assume would be a municipally owned belt line at the unified port. What would be left of its managled financial carcass would be utilized as a football for political patronage.

CONTRACT INVOLVED

It is urged by a citizen who has been actively in close touch with the unification project situation that there is but one answer to the attacks lately leveled at the belt line plan via political palaver, and that is:

A contract, in effect and force, has been entered into between the city and the railroads concerned and it is a contract that only governmental invalidation through adverse findings via the Interstate Commerce Commission can set aside. Anyhow, it has the weight of sound economics back of it that no amount of municipal-ownership vagaries should be permitted to budge.

Another interesting highlight that has been called to the writer's attention in connection with obligations already assumed in furtherance of the greater harbor project, pertains to Long Beach breakwater construction.

It is pointed out that a very considerable length of the $3,000,000 Long Beach breakwater is identical in location with the line of the breakwater extension specified in the unification plan. This, it is held, is a compliance which has the effect of a fulfillment of contract between the communities that are party to the project and the government.

TALKING POINT

The particular value attached to this version of the Long Beach breakwater construction is that it affords a pertinent talking point at the hearing before the Federal board next April. It surely is evidence of good faith in meeting the terms of the Federal conditions.

It is understood that the Los Angeles and Long Beach harbor boards are to meet at San Pedro early next month at luncheon and jointly view the harbors. Presumably the unification project will come in for the attention of the commissioners and the joint meeting will afford an admirable opportunity for furthering the project. In fact, the harbor commissioners of both cities being closely in touch with harbor expansion requirements and in position to visualize the mighty growth of commerce through them, naturally are expected to be important factors in helping to carry the unification project through to completion. The joint meeting will furnish a splendid opportunity for unselfish service to both communities in that regard.

Easter Lilies Shipped to East

Easter lilies for the first time are being shipped from California by freight in carload lots to distant points this week, according to an announcement yesterday by F. E. Scott, assistant freight traffic manager for the Southern Pacific Company in Los Angeles.

At a time when the sentiment is "say it with flowers" the States of the East are muffled with snow or too numb with cold to speak the language of flowers. California growers of lilies have been deluged with SOS calls. Year-around sunshine has enabled California to answer the appeal.

Next Sunday there will be California lilies nodding from Chicago to New York.

Philatelists Supplied Tips

Postmaster P. H. O'Brien yesterday announced for the formation of philatelists and collectors of first flight covers that effective April 1, Toledo and Cleveland, are embraced for supply on route C. A. M. 27. A special cancellation will be used at Toledo and Cleveland on air mail dispatched from those offices direct to Route 27, which is from Bay City, Mich., to Chicago. Those two offices also will backstamp on April 1 air mail received from that route and addressed for delivery in their cities.

Mr. O'Brien also announced that air-mail rates to Cuba and Bahamas is 5 cents a half-ounce, to Haiti and Dominican republic 10 cents a half-ounce, and 25 cents a half-ounce for countries beyond the Canal Zone.

Beavers have lungs large enough to hold an air supply for several minutes, which enables them to swim under ice.

PLAYWRIGHT IN CITY TO SUPERVISE PLAY

Mrs. Florence Clay Knox

Mrs. Florence Clay Knox, playwright and poet, is in Los Angeles to supervise the production of one of her latest plays, "Many Happy Returns of the Day," which will open in a Los Angeles theater next month.

Mrs. Knox is the author of "For Distinguished Service," a popular one-act comedy, which after a four-year run all over the country is still in demand. It recently was produced by the Beverly Hills Community Drama Club, running for two weeks. Besides being a playwright, Mrs. Knox also enjoys a reputation as a poet of the modern school. She came here from New York and Waterloo, Iowa, the latter city being her home town.

"I love California," she declared last night, "and shall never wish to return east." While here she lives at 2205 West Sixth street.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

"The Wedding of the Bunnies," elaborate dance fantasy presenting show girls as Easter rabbits, will be introduced at the Pom-Pom, Hollywood, tonight, in "Tropical Nights," current musical revue, under the direction of William Meiklejohn. Wearing startling costumes of white rabbit fur and "lucky foot" slippers, the Pom-Pom girls will perform a dance pantomime in which Peter Rabbit and Bunny Cottontail are wed with story-book pomp and ceremony.

AUTHOR BANQUETS CAST

Bernard McOwen, author of "The Skull," which completed a successful engagement last Saturday evening at the President Theater, entertained the entire cast with a banquet recently in Polly's Cheerio Tea Room, on Hill between Sixth and Seventh streets. Mr. McOwen gave the banquet for the purpose of thanking each member in the cast for making the show a success.

GRANADA POPULAR

The Granada Cafe, on South Lafayette Park Place near West Seventh street, now is under new management with Mrs. Marie L. Berry as hostess. French, Italian and American luncheons and dinners are served. The Granada Cafe with its Old World atmosphere and charming environment is one of the popular tea rooms for the society elite who entertain with bridge luncheons and afternoon teas. A delightful affair was held there last week when Mrs. M. Eckhart of the Bryson Apartments entertained a party of fourteen friends. The table was artistically decorated with pastel colored center-piece and a profusion of spring flowers.

REVUE AT MONTMARTRE

This evening at the Montmartre has been dedicated as Educational Studio Night, with Betty Boyd, Educational film player, as guest of honor. A highlight of the evening will be the Easter fashion revue staged by the May Company, which, it is said, will be the most beautiful of any so far shown. The cafe has recently undergone its spring renovating and has been artistically decorated for the Easter season.

PARIS-ROME FEATURES

L. Tinti, proprietor of the Paris-Rome Cafe, located on Wilcox avenue near Hollywood Boulevard, states that many of the viands served in his cafe are imported by him direct from Paris and Rome, thereby assuring his patrons of genuine European dishes. French and Italian luncheons and dinners are featured daily and a special full course dinner Sundays. The large comfortable booths are added attractions for those who prefer dining in privacy.

TREATS 'EM ROUGH

"Taming the Wildcat" is the sensational dance presented noon and evening by Senorita Nite Del Valle and her partner, Senor Roberto Moreno, at the Italian Village, on West Eighth near Hill street. In this dance the senorita loses hanks of hair when as the finale to the dance the troubadour lifts his partner by the hair, whirls her around several times and then hurls her across the stage. Concern was expressed over Miss Del Valle's loss of hair by patrons, but the senorita states that she is able to grow new tresses almost overnight.

EASTER BREAKFAST

Many worshippers planning to attend the Easter sunrise service in the Hollywood Bowl will breakfast at the Roosevelt Hotel after the rites, according to Eugene Stark, managing director. A record advance reservation list for the special breakfast next Sunday is reported.

BETTY BOYD LUNCHEON

An elaborate luncheon will be given tomorrow in honor of Betty Boyd, leading lady for Educational Pictures and 1929 Wampas baby star, at Madame Helene's tea room in J. J. Haggarty's, Seventh street and Grand avenue. This is another of a series of luncheons given in compliment to the Wampas stars and will be attended by other of the young film luminaries recently chosen by the Wampas as future screen stars.

KMTR GETS NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR

Duties Will Include Similar Position at KPLA

Paul Finstein Leaves KNX Studio Activity

Formerly Conducted Florida Orchestras

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

By far the majority of radio artists and show people change around so frequently that their happenings are not often recorded in the press.

PAUL FINSTEIN

But when one who has established a record in broadcast circles makes a change the event is well worthy of being chronicled.

When KNX first went on the air, four and a half years ago, Paul Finstein, who previously had conducted a chain of orchestral groups for the Flagler hotel system in Florida, was engaged to direct a concert ensemble.

TWO STATIONS

Since then the personnel of the group has remained unchanged. Their evening dinner music concert hours especially have been rather well received by members of the radio audience, as well as their later evening programs on the air.

The announcement was made last night that he now becomes music and program director for both KMTR, Hollywood, and KPLA, Los Angeles. As such he will personally supervise the program activity and music affairs of the two stations, including the instrumental and vocal talent.

In the new position the original string group will accompany him, and studio staffs will gradually be assembled for the symphony, dance band and the symphonic jazz group.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

To the new field he will undoubtedly carry the good wishes of thousands of fans who have listened to his previous radio concerts.

By way of compliment to the new director, KMTR will present a program of Easter music at 8 o'clock next Sunday night, which will feature his initial radio appearance in the new position.

In addition to his pioneer work in radio circles, Mr. Finstein was also engaged in the field of radio publishing through a monthly illustrated fan magazine, Radio Entertainment, of which he is editor and publisher.

CATHOLICS TO VIEW RITES OF TENEBRAE

SOLEMN PERFORMANCES WILL BE CONDUCTED AT ST. VIBIANA'S CATHEDRAL

St. Vibiana's Cathedral, Second and Main streets, will be the scene tomorrow and Friday evenings of solemn performances of the office of Tenebrae, one of the most important ceremonies of Holy Week in Catholic liturgy. The name Tenebrae, meaning darkness, is given the ceremony from the fact that during its course every candle and light in the church gradually is extinguished, symbolizing the deprivation of the light of faith suffered by those who put Christ to death. At St. Vibiana's two Paulist missionaries will be intrusted with the performance of the Tenebrae rites. The services will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

KIWANIANS AND SONS WILL BANQUET TODAY

Intention to Fight Charges Hinted by Attorney

A delay until April 1, next, at 2 p.m., was granted Rev. R. P. Shuler yesterday by Municipal Judge Bogue, when his attorney, Paul D'Orr, interposed a demurrer to the charge of criminally libeling Mayor Cryer, to which Shuler was to enter his plea.

D'Orr told the court he had been employed by Shuler only three days before and had not had time to familiarize himself with the case. The date was set by the court after agreement between D'Orr and Claire Eberhard, Chief Trial Deputy City Prosecutor, who will handle the case for the State.

D'Orr's demurrer asserts that the facts set out in the complaint are not sufficient to constitute a public offense and that the complaint contains matters of innuendo which are irrelevant to the charges of a public offense and not essential to the crime of libel.

The first point is similar to one made in his demurrer against the complaint, which charged Shuler with libeling the Knights of Columbus some time ago before Municipal Judge Reed, which was overruled before the pastor's trial on that charge. The case ended in a disagreement of the jury and is scheduled for retrial on April 26, next.

In case the demurrer filed yesterday is overruled by the court it was indicated that Shuler will enter a plea of not guilty to the libel charge and will ask trial by jury, which probably will be set by Judge Bogue for the latter part of April.

Mother Finds Son Suicide

Depressed in mind because of the tediousness of the tasks of his profession as a wood carver, it is believed, Frank Koller, 26 years of age, ended his life yesterday morning by hanging himself [illegible] the garage at the rear of his home at 22'3 Fargo street, police report.

His mother, Mrs. Lena Wen[illegible], and a neighbor, Jack S[illegible]le, found the body suspended from a rafter on a piece of clothes line. It was removed to the County Morgue. Mrs. Wener told police that the [illegible] before her son had been examined by Dr. Victor Parkin, alienist.

Medicine Maker Cruel, Wife Says

Alfred MacLaren, patent medicine manufacturer, made "bad medicine" for his wife, Mrs. Henrietta MacLaren charges in her divorce complaint on file yesterday.

After dragging her out of bed, Mrs. MacLaren asserts, MacLaren chased her to the roof of an adjoining building and wouldn't let her come back in. On other occasions he attempted to administer various punishment, she says. She asks division of community property worth $170,000.

EASTMAN ASKS AID FOR DRIVE

Chamber and All-Year Club Held Worthy of Help

Business They Bring to City Benefits All Citizens

United Support Advocated in Campaign for Funds

Outstanding features of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce and the All-Year Club for the benefit of the community were emphasized yesterday in a statement given out by George L. Eastman in connection with the joint campaign being conducted to raise funds for the 1929 budgets of both organizations.

Mr. Eastman, a former president of the Chamber of Commerce and one of the chairmen directing the funds drive, said:

"Two of our important civic agencies, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the All-Year Club, might be likened in their cooperative business-building efforts to a giant magnet. The Chamber of Commerce, as one pole of the magnet, is active in the development of new industries, new pay rolls, increased domestic and foreign trade; and the All-Year Club as the other pole of the magnet, is successful in attracting increasing numbers of summer and winter tourists, which means new cash expenditures and investments locally and new customers for established lines.

"That virtually all lines of business benefit from tourists' expenditures is well known. We should all know, in addition, what the bringing of a factory means to local business activity. Just one factory obtained for Los Angeles last year, for example, provided for expenditures in its erections of $1,269,708, in raw materials used the first year $710,950, and a pay roll of $2,000,000 per year with employment for 1300 persons, 65 per cent of whose wages went for retail purchases, 20 per cent for rent, and 15 per cent for fuel, light, taxes, doctors, recreation, etc.

"In other words, virtually every person in the city benefits directly or indirectly when a new industry comes here or when our tourist business is increased. From active personal observation I know the striking and successful development work these two organizations are doing for local business, and urge the solid support of business interests to the joint fund campaign now in progress."

U.C.L.A Man to Lecture on Mystery of Age

Einstein's theory of relativity is only one example of the attempt of mathematicians and logicians to solve the mystery of time and space since man has pondered on the subject, according to Dr. Earle Hedrick, professor of mathematics at the University of California at Los Angeles. He will deal with this subject in the fifth annual research lecture which he will deliver at U.C.L.A. April 26.

His lecture will be entitled "Logical Reasoning in Mathematics and Science" and it will attempt to state the fundamentally logical difficulties of which the Einstein discovery is only one manifestation in the hundreds of years of history and mathematics.

"Even the public is aware of a tremendous upset in views on space and time," said Dr. Hedrick in discussing his forthcoming lectures. "This possibility of uncertainty about these things and the underlying principles, particularly the axiom about parallel lines, has been known to mathematicians long before Einstein, and had given rise to serious discussions on the logical foundations of geometry and even arithmetic. My lecture will attempt to answer the question, 'What is it all about.'"

Court Criticises Glendale Police

Severe criticism of the methods of the Glendale Police Department in passing on motorists suspected of being intoxicated was voiced yesterday by Judge Wilson of Superior Court in the case of Fred L. Watrous. Watrous had pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated and the case was before the court for disposition.

Following a report from the Glendale Police Department that Watrous was drunk, Judge Wilson declared he was not inclined to place a great deal of credence in the police department's tests.

"I have had a great deal of experience recently with drunk driving cases from Glendale," said the court, "and in most instances the testimony of the police surgeon has been wholly unsatisfactory. If the Glendale Police Department expects any convictions from this court in cases where intoxication must be shown it had better improve its methods of taking such tests."

It was said the two police officers who had arrested Watrous were not certain that he was intoxicated, and the court disposed of the case by imposing a $300 fine.

Suspended Police Pair Also Fined

Motorcycle Officer M. J. Fetterhoff and Patrolman Roy G. Norton, suspended from the police department by Chief Davis on charges that they removed articles from the scene of the Automobile Show fire at Hill and Washington streets on the 6th inst., were fined thirty days' pay each by the Police Commission yesterday, at the conclusion of a hearing requested by the two men.

Fetterhoff was charged with removing an outboard motor valued at $60 and Norton, who was on duty at the premises, was accused of taking a roll of brake lining. The officers admitted taking the articles but stated they had been given permission to do so by two men representing the underwriters.

FOX TO MAKE HOLLYWOOD OPERA

First National Buys Talking Rights to Many Stories; Matty Kemp to Get Long-Term Contract With Pathe; Priscilla Dean to Play Lead in Big Cruze Film

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Of course, it was just bound to happen—the immortalizing of Hollywood in a sound picture with a light-opera motif.

To Fox belongs the honor of producing such a sound picture. The name of its story is "Married in Hollywood," and it was written by no less a composer than Oscar Strauss.

The production will be directed by two directors. They are Marcel Silver and Edward Royce, it was announced yesterday.

Further word is to the effect that Fox is preparing to make the Movietone picture one of the most important of next year's offerings. Noted singers and artists will be engaged for its principal roles, we learn, but as yet no one has been signed.

SAM RORK SELLING STORY TALK RIGHTS

Maybe you can occasionally keep a good man down, but that man is certainly not Sam Rork.

We have just learned that Rork didn't go to New York for his health, although we hear his health has been benefited by the trip. But whose health wouldn't benefit by the earning of a great deal of money?

Not to keep you in suspense any longer, the producer is coming home to Beverly Hills on Sunday with his pockets bulging with money, the result of selling the talking-film rights to all those plays which he formerly filmed as silent pictures.

We learn that he has sold the talking-picture rights, the plays and stories to First National, the works changing hands including "The Rosary," "The Talker," "Fonjola" and "Wandering Daughters," with probably one or two others not named in the list before us.

Rork was formerly a stage producer, and we hear that he is returning to his old love. It is not likely that he will make another picture until after he has produced at least one new play. This play, we hear, he is also bringing home with him.

The producer formerly put on musical plays at the Morosco, but was probably ahead of his time, as he brought west several New York stars and plays which at the time failed of appreciation by theatergoers. It is likely that the same plays, or others relatively as up-to-date as the ones he produced, staged today, would pack the houses.

Matty Kemp With Pathe

It is understood that Matty Kemp, that pleasing juvenile who lately won his freedom from his Mack Sennett contract, is shortly to sign with Pathe, if indeed, he has not already done so.

MATTY KEMP

Matty had his film debut under the Sennett banner in "The Goodbye Kiss," and made a most favorable impression. He has appeared since then as juvenile lead in a number of Fox, Pathe and other films.

It is not yet settled in which Pathe production he will make his appearance.

Priscilla Dean With Cruze

Priscilla Dean is busy these days, playing a leading role in the last of the two-reels which James Cruze is making. These pictures are to be the subject of a guessing contest, each being an unfinished story, with theater patrons invited to win prizes by furnishing the best ending to the stories.

PRISCILLA DEAN

Cruze is planning to produce a big subject following the completion of these shorties. The story has been written by Ben Hecht, but the title of the story and its nature are not disclosed.

Priscilla Dean, it is understood, is to play the feminine lead in the new Cruze film.

Hoot Gibson Is Host

Hoot Gibson tomorrow will play host to his young admirers at a pony-ride party.

The Universal star has taken over for that day Archie Ricks's Toluca Lake Pony Ride, and wants all the children who can be accommodated to be his guests and ride on the docile little Shetlands.

Gibson will be present to welcome his guests personally, and to show them the ropes. He plans to be at the party during the greater part of the day.

John Cromwell's New Contract

John Cromwell, directorial recruit from the New York stage, has been given a new contract by Paramount as a director of all-talking pictures, according to announcement yesterday of B. P. Schulberg. Cromwell with Edward Sutherland is now directing "Burlesque." He and Sutherland recently completed "Close Harmony." "Burlesque" is being made with four members of the original New York cast, including Hal Skelly, Charles D. Brown, Ralph Theadore and Oscar Levant.

The director signed first as an actor, playing a role in "The Dummy." While playing this role he studied the technique of talking pictures, with his new contract the result.

Nance O'Neil Remains

It is quite likely that Nance O'Neil, who at present is appearing as star of the Repertory Theater at the Figueroa Playhouse, managed by Simeon Gest, will remain in Hollywood, following that engagement, to appear in talking pictures.

NANCE O'NEIL

It is known that Miss O'Neil has been made a number of offers for talkers.

In the meantime the actress will go to San Francisco to continue her role in "The House of Women," which finishes its Los Angeles run on Saturday night.

William Powell Returns

All vacations must end some time or another, and so William Powell had no power to prolong his, but has returned from his long stay in New York and points south. But one holiday ends in another, as he has been assigned to a featured part in "The Marriage Holiday."

William Powell

For the past several weeks, the Paramount player has been seeing Broadway, New York; Palm Beach, Havana, Mexico City and Vera Cruz. Yesterday B. P. Schulberg announced that Powell had been cast for the above role. Following that he will appear in "The Greene Murder Case."

In "The Marriage Holiday," Powell joins a cast which already features Ruth Chatterton, Clive Brook, Mary Nolan, Laura Hope Crews, Florence Eldridge, Lorraine Eddy, Claude Allister and a number of other notables.

Dolores Del Rio Travels

Dolores Del Rio is beginning to thoroughly sympathise with Evangeline. She has traveled enough in the filming of her present United Artists starring vehicle, "Evangeline," almost to qualify as a full-fledged member of the marines.

After eight weeks at Carmel, Dolores hurried to Laguna Beach for two days' work, after which she left for St. Martinsville, La. Three weeks were spent there working in scenes for the picture, after which the star returned to Hollywood, and now after a single day's work at Tec-Art studios, she is going away again.

This time Miss Del Rio is going to Belden, Cal., in the Feather River Canyon, where Edwin Carewe will direct her in scenes depicting the continuance of the heroine's long search for Gabriel.

ONE-ACT PIECES DUE

Writers' Club Offers Varied Group of Dramas This Week

When the next group of one-act plays is shown at the Writers tonight and tomorrow night, seventeen actors will make their appearances on the stage, and in seven different plays.

The work of six playwrights will be seen for Tay Garnett has contributed two playlets.

The players are Walter Long, Robert Emmett O'Connor, Virginia Cleary, Belle Mitchell, Wallace McDonald, Carlo Schipa, Edward Deering, Shep Camp, Carmelita Geraghty, Irving Bacon, James Finlayson, Paul Nicholson, Billy Bevan, Victor Potel, Jane Winton, Clyde Cook and Robert Ober.

The authors are Edwin Justice Mayer, Robert Lisman, Vernon Smith, Madeline Blackmore and H. H. Stinson.

PLAY SHOP LINES UP PIECES FOR STAGING

Ralph Herman, impresario of the Cordova Play Shop, announced a line-up of one-act plays to be staged at the Play Shop on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Thursday, for one night only, three one-act plays will be given, namely, "Mammy Lou," "Trouble Brewing" and "Rushlight."

The fourth one-act production will be "The Shock," with Rosa Rosanova, to be staged only on Friday and Saturday.

EXAMINATION OBJECTION WITHDRAWN BY FIREMEN

Prepared to combat a protest from firemen who failed in the examination of October 6 for fire captains, the Civil Service Commission yesterday became limp from the reaction when a delegation of firemen came in and approved the test as fair and properly conducted.

A week ago an attorney representing thirty of the firemen filed a petition asking that the examination be thrown out as irregular, on the ground that applicants were given no credits for seniority and that during the examination applicants were allowed to use handbooks for questions on mathematics.

The commission met yesterday to hear the protests. Before the firemen arrived General Manager Amsden and the examiners satisfied the commission that the examination had been conducted in a regular manner. Primed with this information, and with copies of the rules and regulations before them, the commission was ready for a "battle," when the fireman's delegation filed in.

The delegation proved to be a committee appointed by the fifty men who topped the list in the examination. They informed the commission that the firemen had held a mass meeting and convinced the protestants that their claims were without foundation, so the protesting delegation withdrew the petition and did not appear at the meeting.

The commission voted approval of the examination and also approved the eligible list of fifty-seven men from those making the highest grading. A total of 313 passed the examination out of 616 candidates.

Two More Add Names to List Asking Election

With only two days remaining within which candidates for office at the coming city elections may either take out or file nominating petitions, two more candidates appeared in the field yesterday.

They are Robert C. Wygant of 2258 Hidalgo avenue, who entered the race for City Attorney, and Isaac Pacht, an attorney of 3057 Los Feliz Boulevard, who added his name to the list of those running for membership on the Board of Education, making eighteen candidates to date for the four board memberships to be filled.

AIR CRASH RESOUNDS IN SUIT ON BORROWER

That flying in borrowed airplanes is exceedingly expensive, at times, is evidenced in the $3060 judgment returned yesterday against Joe Brown in favor of James E. Granger by Superior Judge Burnell. Brown, according to Granger's complaint, borrowed the latter's Swallow airplane for a little spin in the air. Everything went all right until Brown attempted to land at Ross Field at Arcadia, when something went wrong and the flyer and borrowed plane crashed into an interurban railway pole. The plane was reduced to junk, it was asserted.

ELLIOTT RESTS WELL AFTER OPERATION

The condition of Elias Leavenworth Elliott, founder of the Illuminating Engineering Society, was reporter satisfactory last night following an emergency operation for acute appendicitis performed yesterday at the Physicians' and Surgeons Hospital, Glendale. Dr. Joseph J. Jellinek performed the operation. The patient, who is 65 years of age, has been touring the country lecturing on illuminating problems, and was scheduled to have read a paper before the Los Angeles branch of the society at a meeting last night.

TOM MOORE WILL ACT FOR DUFFY

"This Thing Called Love," by Edwin Burke, Listed for April Production

"This Thing Called Love," Edwin Burke's comedy, which has been one of the hits of the current theatrical season in New York, has been secured by Henry Duffy and will be offered at the Hollywood Playhouse, starting with the Sunday matinee April 7, next.

Tom Moore, the picture star, has been engaged to play the leading male role in the comedy, that of Tice Collins, the mining engineer. This will be Moore's first stage appearance here in several years.

"This Thing Called Love" has a novel and refreshing plot. Tice meets Ann Marvin at a dinner party and immediately proposes marriage. Ann has her own ideas about marriage, and accepts the proposal on the condition that, while she agrees to be a perfect hostess for her husband's household, to see that he has his meals promptly and that his bath water is heated to the proper temperature, no love shall enter into the bargain, and she shall receive a fixed salary for her services. In other words, she regards marriage as a job and expects to be paid for it exactly as she would if she were in the business world.

How this novel contract works out is told in three mirthful and hilarious acts.

Rehearsals will start at once under the direction of Edwin H. Curtis.

Terpsichore a Loser by One

Elise Bartlett Schildraut had no thought of the dramatic stage while she was studying dancing in Europe. She wanted to be a Terpsichorean example, and spent several years of her girlhood being trained under the best teachers.

When she returned to New York, a friend had gone on the stage—and Elise decided that she would like to act rather than dance. She went to several theatrical agents, but none seemed to realize that great talent was being offerd them.

So she unpacked her French accent—she is an unusual linguist—and visited another agent, speaking in broken English. As a result she was engaged as a French maid for a Broadway production; and rose rapidly to leading roles in such plays as "At 9:45," "Scrambled Wives," "Please Get Married" and the Theater Guild's productions of "The Adding Machine," "Liliom" and "Peer Gynt."

Producers Plan Fashion Display

Europe may keep its celebrated fashion experts, state Rowland and Pearce at the Mayan Theater. New York the same, they announce jubilantly. Rowland and Pearce claim to have discovered in "Irene," who is creating and designing the gowns that will be seen for the first time on any stage—at the Mayan upon the occasion of the premiere of "Little Orchid Annie"—another Lady Duff Gordon, or the equal of any of the noted designers of what milady will wear for this or that season.

All of which presages a timely Easter fashion show for first nighters at the Mayan beginning April 4. The first act of "Little Orchid Annie" is laid in a fashionable Fifth-avenue gown shop.

Impromptu Love Scene Amusing

Probably one of the most poignant and yet laughable scenes in "Broadway," the melodrama of the cabarets now at the Vine Street Theater, is that wherein the "hoofer" makes love to his chorus girl sweetheart attired only in his B. V. D.'s. The public, always more eager to laugh than to see tragedy, scarcely hears the anguished little clown, struggling with the indignities of his ludicrous make-up as he makes a rapid change between show numbers, conveying pathetically in backstage jargon the sentiments of an impassioned Romeo. . . .

The leading role in this internationally known hit is Roy Lane, the "hoofer" at the Paradise Night Club, a part played by Franklin Pangborn. "Billie" Moore, his chorus girl sweetheart, is portrayed by Anne Cornwall.

Marion Harris Now Recovered

Marion Harris, the popular stage, screen and phonograph star, who suffered an attack of illness during her first performance at the Hillstreet, Sunday, and was forced to curtail her act, has entirely recovered and is now appearing at the regular performances in a new cycle of song hits.

STOCK EXCHANGE NOT SO LARGE—JUST BUSY

Statistics used in producing "The Wolf of Wall Street," now playing at Lazarus's Alhambra, reveal the unusual fact that the actual trading floor space on the New York Stock Exchange is only 109 by 144 feet, or about the average size of a residence lot in Beverly Hills.

Scenes in this picture show the exchange in action during a frenzied 5,000,000-share trading day, with crowds of brokers scrambling about the various trading posts and executing their orders.

George Bancroft is starred in this talkie of the bulls and bears.

STAGE STUDIO OPENED

Earle Wallace, nationally known American ballet master, has opened a drama department in his Studios of the Stage. Wallace has been able to secure the services of Kenneth Croft, director from Chicago and London, to take charge of special coaching.

Duffy Play Strikes Serious Note

Flora Bramley

Has a leading role in "Courage," one of the producer's less frivolous comedies, which is current at El Capitan Theater in Hollywood.

H. Ellis Reed Directing "Mr. Pim Passes By"

H. Ellis Reed, for many years associated with dramatic and musical projects in Southern California, is directing the fifth production of the Los Angeles Repertory Theater, the A. A. Milne comedy, "Mr. Pim Passes By," which begins a two-weeks' engagement at the Figueroa Playhouse on Monday evening.

Reed assisted in organizing the Washington Square Players in New York, now the New York Theater Guild, when it was started in a Washington Square basement on MacDougal street. He also was with it when the organization moved to the Band Box Theater.

During the war Reed made more than 300 speeches for the sale of Liberty bonds, being awarded second prize for his $1,500,000 sales with a personal commendation from the late President Wilson.

During the summer of 1918, Reed produced "The Light of Asia" with Walter Hampden on Krotona Hill in Hollywood, a production fostered by Mrs. Christine Wetherill Stevenson. He aided the organization of the Hollywood Bowl in 1919 with Mrs. Stevenson and during its construction was superintendent in charge of building.

He later organized the Pilgrimage Play with Mrs. Stevenson, and created the roles of John the Baptist, Pontius Pilate and the apostle, Peter. At the Hollywood Bowl three years ago he also produced "Julius Caesar," which had 3500 players in the cast. William Farnum portrayed Marc Antony.

'Fancy Baggage' Here Tomorrow

"Fancy Baggage" is the 1929 flaming youth modification of the term "baggage" which in days better or worse was often used by the gossips in referring to ladies who "went places and saw things" at a rather rapid pace.

Audrey Ferris is the "stepping" daughter in the picture, a Warner Brothers Vitaphone talkie which opens tomorrow at Loew's State. Her extravagances bring about financial disaster for her father. The story, thus begun, involves the daughter's campaign of feminine cunning to defeat her father's business enemies and redeem herself. Myrna Loy, George Fawcett, Edmund Breese, Wallace MacDonald, Hallam Cooley are in the cast.

Blue's Talker About Trains

Monte Blue's newest starring talkie, "The Greyhound Limited," will open at the Fox Boulevard Theater tomorrow night, inaugurating the new policy of Thursday change date instead of Friday.

"The Greyhound Limited" is a Warner Brothers' Vitaphone production, and gives the star the role of a train engineer, a position which he once filled in real life before coming to Hollywood.

Edna Murphy and Grant Withers have principal supporting roles.

REVELS AT MIDNIGHT

"Midnight Revels" is the title of the new burlesque offering this week at the Follies Theater. All that the name implies, the current vehicle is a harmonious, fast moving, tuneful burlesque up to the Follies slogan, "As You Like It." This week the chorus of misses are very much in evidence, with attention paid to snappy dance numbers and costuming. Unique musical numbers are in the hands of Mary Walton, Melene Chorka and Evelyn Myers, while the comedy end of the program is handled by Max Coleman and Billy "Bumps" Mack. Louise Kellar is featured soubrette.

STARS SCRAMBLE FOR SEATS

"Coquette," Mary Pickford's first all-talking picture, has started a scramble for premiere seats. New reservations were made yesterday by William De Mille, Norma Talmadge, Charles Kenyon, Alan Hale, William Krafft, Bennie Zeidman, Tristram Tupper, Robert Welch, Joseph Farnham, B. P. Fineman, Dennison Clift, Kathleen Clifford and many others prominent in the screen world.

Star Portrays Actor-Manager of Old London

The next attraction at the Mason Theater will be Walker Whiteside in "The Royal Box." Whiteside will open his engagement on Monday evening, appearing in the role of James Clarence, a talented actor-manager of the famous old Drury Lane Theater in London in the days of the Georges.

The play had its genesis in Alexandre Dumas's drama, "Kean," written around that eccentric genius of the stage, Edmund Kean, who startled London, when he appeared at the Drury Lane Theater after years of hardship and struggle. An episode in his caeer gave the plot to Dumas, and the play Walker Whiteside will offer is an adaptation of that drama, which is still a favorite on the continent of Europe.

The scene that gives the play its title shows the interior of Drury Lane Theater during a benefit performance being given by James Clarence for his former employer Robert (Tightwire) Widgetts. During the performance Clarence becomes enraged over what he considers lack of appreciation for his art, and hurls insults at H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, who is seated in his royal box. This outburt from Clarence brings the Drury Lane scene to an abrupt finish, and later causes his exile to America.

Humorist Now a Fixture Within Orpheum Walls

A new Pacific Coast record for consecutive weeks played in a Radio-Keith-Orpheum theater will be established Saturday night, when Jack Benny, New York musical-comedy favorite, completed his fifth successive week at the Orpheum here.

Charlotte Greenwood, Fannie Brice and Ted Lewis jointly held the previous record, each having played three consecutive weeks at the Orpheum here. Benny has equaled this record in New York and Chicago theaters. With one intervening week, he also has equaled it here.

Currently he is doing a new act of his own in addition to introducing those of Sophie Tucker, Nick Lucas and others.

Mystery Novels Public's Choice

Recent data gathered by the Paramount research department discloses that detective stories top all other types of fiction in popularity with card holders of the Los Angeles Public Library, with "The Canary Murder Case," by S. S. Van Dine, leading the list.

The all-talking screen production of this novel is now playing at Lazarus's Million Dollar, featuring a notable cast, which includes William Powell, James Hall, Louise Brooks and Jean Arthur.

"The Canary Murder Case" is said to be based upon the actual murder of Dot King, popular Broadway stage beauty. The murderer in this case was never caught. The case was taken by Van Dine and expanded into a baffling detective story which proved one of the best sellers of the year.

SIDE BY SIDE

By curious coincidence, two oddly contrasting productions will vie for attention at Pasadena Community Playhouse early in April, when Eugene O'Neill's massive spectacular play, "Lazarus Laughed," which opens April 1 for two weeks only, and Perry Dilley's funny little puppets in two typical play bills will hold the boards. Last year these two attractions were billed in similar manner, and illustrated a good example of the broadness of the Playhouse program and policy. The Dilley puppets are scheduled for April 5 and 6, at matinee and evening performance in Recital Hall, with the O'Neill play in the theater auditorium.

"CONQUEST" AT TOWER

"Conquest," a Vitaphone talking picture featuring Monte Blue, is the new attraction at the Tower Theater commencing today. The story deals with the aerial exploration of the Antarctic. Blue and H. B. Warner play the roles of aviators. Lois Wilson has the leading feminine role.

GLEE CLUB BOOKED BY PARAMOUNT

Stanford University Men Occupy Prominent Spot on Incoming Program

The Stanford University glee club, one of the best-known gatherings of men's voices in the country, has been signed by the Paramount Theater for a week's engagement starting Thursday, when "Wolf Song" takes the screen and "Bubbles" will be the main stage divertissment.

The Stanford organization is well known to radio fans, having been heard on San Francisco stations, and, more recently, over the American Broadcasting Company's national network. Obregon, former President of Mexico, before his untimely death, had entered into negotiations with the glee club for a concert in Mexico City this spring.

The men will be heard in a specially devised and staged presentation, under the direction of Paul Oscard.

The regular Publix unit of the week, "Bubbles," features the Gatanos, Ross and Edwards, Martie Martell, Gene Sheldon, Marta Kay and the Dave Gould girls.

Milton Charles, organist at the theater, will handle the baton for the stage presentation and will act as master of ceremonies.

"Speakeasy" to Have Elaborate Exploitation

With the Fox studios, West Coast Theater and the Fox-Criterion Theater all busy on plans for the launching of "Speakeasy," 100 per cent Fox talking picture of New York night life, at the Fox-Criterion on Saturday, word comes that W. R. Sheehan, Fox studios chief, will arrive in Los Angeles Friday to be present at the premiere the following day.

Sheehan attended the premiere of "Speakeasy" at the Roxy Theater, New York, where it broke attendance records.

As a result of the success they scored in "Speakeasy" all the important players in the cast have been lifted toward stardom. Lola Lane and Sharon Lynn have been given featured roles in Fox Movietone Follies, while Raul Page has been given an important part in Fox's picture, "Protection," and Henry Walthall is featured in Fox's "Black Magic" which is just getting under way.

The Fox-Criterion announces that the theater's program starting Saturday will be a 100 per cent talking picture program. Christe's talking play, "Post Mortems," has been obtained for a special showing in addition to the feature, "Speakeasy." With other Fox stars in short talking subjects, Creatore's augmented orchestra and the Fox Movietone, the theater will be able to boast of a gala line-up.

Birthday Will Be Signalized by Premiere

Although the world premiere of Warner Brothers all-singing and talking Vitaphone production of "The Desert Song" is almost two weeks off, the demand for seats indicates a sellout long in advance of the actual date, which is April 8. Since this event celebrates the birthday of Warner Brothers Theater in Hollywood, the Warners are going to make it a gala affair in every way.

"The Desert Song" is "the big picture of the talking-picture regime" from the Warners. Sigmund Romberg's melodies, "One Alone," "Desert Song" and "The Riff Song" will be sung by choruses, and the spectacular desert scenes, many in technicolor, are said to be thrilling. John Boles, New York musical-comedy star, sings the role of "The Red Shadow," and Louise Fazenda, Carlotta King, Johnny Arthur, Myrna Loy, Edward Martindel and John Miljan all have prominent places. Roy Del Ruth directed.

Vernon Steele Cast in Drama

Vernon Steele, the English actor who recently scored a hit here in "Escape," has been engaged by Belasco and Curran to appear with Doris Keane in the forthcoming production of "The Pirate," by William Du Bois, which will follow "The Silent House" into the Belasco Theater here.

Steele has appeared with Miss Keane before both in America and in England, and when she heard that he was in Los Angeles, she urged the producers to secure him for one of the most important roles in her new play, which will be shown here before it is in New York and London.

STAR REMAINING WITH UNIVERSAL FOR ROLE

For the first time in approximately five years, Jean Hersholt is selecting his own acting roles. The star's contract with Universal having expired.

Hersholt is at present completing work in a talking picture which the Laemmle organization is producing, as yet untitled. Following the final touches in this opus, he will be starred in "The Climax," another all-dialogue production which Renaud Hoffman is to direct for the same organization. Hersholt, it is understood, has agreed to appear in this picture in order to fulfill a verbal promise made to Carl Laemmle, Jr., associate executive.

Hersholt is seen currently at the Criterion in "Abie's Irish Rose," in which he is seen and heard as a sympathetic character. Since the advent of talking pictures, his linguistic abilities have been put to a severe test, he having thus far spoken in English, German, Swedish, French and Hebrew.

Dead Mining Man's Room Found in Downtown Hotel

Letter Said Victim Lived With Slayer as His Wife

Closing their investigation of the slaying Monday night of Mrs. Harriet Ponder, 24-year-old cashier, by Albert W. Degenhart, 58-year-old mining engineer, who afterward shot and killed himself, police yesterday located Degenhart's local address.

HARRIETT PONDER

In a hotel room at 1413 West Ninth street Detective Lieutenant Ryan found a penciled note which stated: "If anything happens to me, notify Harriet Ponder. She has been living here with me as Mrs. Bartlett." The note was signed Jack Bartlett and below this was a second signature, Al Degenhart. Near by the note the detective found an enlarged picture of the cashier bearing her name and torn once across.

It also was learned that Degenhart formerly was employed by the Fairbanks-Morse Company in Salt Lake City and that a brother-in-law, Monte Pickle, lives in that city. It is believed that his widow is Maud Degenhart living in Bakersfield.

The detectives are trying to get in touch with Mrs. Ponder's husband here. Information was given them that Mrs. Ponder and her husband were separated. There will be no inquest, it was stated. Funeral arrangements are pending further advices from relatives.

Mrs. Ponder was seated at the cash register in Murray's Cafe at 418 South Spring street early Monday evening when Degenhart walked in and, without warning, whipped out a revolver and fired five shots into the woman's body. Then quickly, while numerous diners stared horror stricken, he drained a small bottle of poison and fired the sixth shot into his own head.

Greer to Fight Campaign Talk

Denying rumors that he plans withdrawal from the mayoralty race P. H. Greer, who is conducting a campaign on his record as a business man in Los Angeles for more than twenty-six years, yesterday reiterated his faith in victory at the polls.

"That time-worn weapon of disheartened politicians—rumor of the withdrawal of candidates who are feared—is being used widely against me," declared Mr. Greer. "Disregard it; it is false. I have assured my campaign committee, district managers, and those who have volunteered to assist me, that we will fight this rumor as we would any other."

Chamber Tour Bookings Open

Advance reservations for the annual excursion of the Chamber of Commerce to the Hawaiian Islands are now being received in the field secretary's office of the chamber, A. G. Arnoll, secretary and general manager, announced yesterday.

The party will leave Los Angeles Harbor on the City of Honolulu July 27 and return after a three-weeks' tour of the mid-Pacific islands. Charles P. Bayer, field secretary of the chamber, will conduct the tour. Reservations can be made in his office.

OLD BEATING CASE UP TO BOARD AGAIN

Police Commission Tries to Decide on Hearing for Officers Accused in 1923

When the question of whether a hearing should be held for four officers accused of beating James H. Bate, a negro janitor, in 1922, came up for a decision of the Police Commission yesterday it was deferred again for an investigation and recommendation by Chief of Police Davis.

Bate, before his death at 66 years of age in 1925, obtained a Superior Court judgment of $2515 against the four men now on the force and a fifth man, no longer with the department. The four are William J. Jolin, James R. Jester, J. K. Caris and G. E. Ruppers.

Counsel for Mrs. Bate, the widow, seeks to have the men discharged from the department. The commission is undecided whether the work of former commissions and police chiefs should be reviewed, since the officers were not dismissed at the time of the asserted beating.

The Chief was requested by the commission to turn in his report on the asserted Bate beating in 1923 by next Tuesday.

Walton Appeal in Forgery Case Meets Defeat

An appeal filed in the District Court of Appeal by M. K. Walton, alias Kelly Walton, from the judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county in which he was convicted and sentenced on a charge of forgery was denied by the higher court yesterday. Walton set forth in his appeal that the trial court erred in denying his attorneys a continuance which they sought because, they said, they had not had time to prepare their defense and further, because of an absence of material witnesses. It was also asserted by the petitioner that the court erred in refusing to grant a motion for a new trial, based on the discovery of new testimony.

The Court of Appeal held, in denying the appeal, that there was no apparent show of reasonable diligence on the part of the defense to discover the new testimony before the verdict was returned and that there was nothing to show in the application that, in the event of a new trial, the new testimony would have caused a different verdict to be rendered. The judgment of Superior Court Judge Craig was affirmed by Justice Crail, with Justices Houser and York concurring.

Helen Ferguson May Administer Another Estate

Helen Ferguson, film actress, yesterday asked Superior Judge Gavin to appoint her administratrix of the estate of her brother-in-law Albert Russell, who died two weeks after the death of Miss Ferguson's husband, William Russell, for whose estate she was named administratrix several days ago.

The will of Albert Russell, which was made after the death of his brother, from whom he inherited $10,000, left the whole estate to his son Albert. It read:

"I am of sound mind, and know how things should be taken care of, as my beloved brother Bill has done. I am leaving everything to my son Albert, to be held in trust for him until he becomes 28 years of age, as by that time he will have sense enough to look out for himself."

Driver Seized for Long Skid

Sixty feet of skidding led yesterday to the arrest of Frederick P. Dahlstrom, 25 years of age, an engineer of 1394 Edgecliff Drive, on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Georgia-street station police officers made the arrest six days after Dahlstrom skidded at the intersection of Ninth and Carondelet streets. The skidding ended in a bump against a Yellow cab driven by R. E. Webster of 722 West Third street. The impact knocked the cab thirty feet, overturning it and slightly injuring the driver and a passenger, the police report.

One-half hour later Dahlstrom was examined by a police surgeon at the station and pronounced "not intoxicated, but having been drinking." On the 20th inst., Dahlstrom was permitted to go. The police measured the skid marks and yesterday arrested him.

Suit Aimed at Arbuckle for Jewelry Debt

Suit for $1000 was filed against Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle in Municipal Judge Valentine's court by Edgar L. Strauss for a local jewelry company. Strauss asserts that the former film comedian's wife, Doris Arbuckle, failed to pay that amount for an emerald bracelet.

Mrs. Arbuckle kept the bracelet and a pearl dress set which had been sent to her on approval, Strauss declares, and paid only for the dress set. In his answer, Arbuckle declares that he is not responsible for his wife's debts.

The case was set for trial on April 8 by Judge Valentine.

Mabel Normand Gains Strength in Life Fight

Mabel Normand, once popular as a screen star, slowly is gaining strength in her fight against tuberculosis, according to reports yesterday. Her physician, Dr. C. E. Fishbaugh, and close friends say she has rested more comfortably in the past week than in several months.

Her husband, Lew Cody, who is recuperating at Palm Springs from a breakdown, also is on the road to recovery and expects soon to return to Hollywood to be near Miss Normand. It will be several weeks, however, before he can expect to return, it is said.

Miss Normand is eating more regularly and it is believed she has passed the crisis.

During the afternoon the visitors were shown about Vail Field by officials of the company.

POLICE BUDGET GETS APPROVAL

Commission Indorses Plea for 500 More Men

Total of $10,603,323 Also Provides New Station

Enlarged Liquor Fund Quota Meets With Protest

Carrying a total of $10,603,323, the police department 1929-1930 budget, providing for a modern three-story jail, a new central station, new substations and an immediate addition of 500 officers and men to the force, was approved yesterday by the Police Commission, following assurances by Councilman McAllister, who was present, that the City Council, in his opinion, will act favorably upon it. No changes in the figures, as presented by Chief Davis a week ago, were made.

Increase of the present allowance of $60,000 a year for use in obtaining evidence against liquor and narcotics-law violators to $90,000, asked for next year, was criticised by Commissioner Thorpe. He declared he is opposed to the system of purchasing evidence on which to convict bootleggers, declaring a case came to his attention where a young officer now is lying at the point of death in a hospital as the result of sampling evidence on which to arrest a bootlegger.

ILL FOR LIFE

"This officer was not accustomed to drinking," said Thorpe, "and fell to the floor. The doctor tells me that if he does recover he will never be a well man again. I would like this commission to issue an order against the practice of any officer testing liquor in these cases, but that the chemical laboratory be used in the test."

Chief Davis said the system is necessary to get evidence of liquor violations. He admitted that the practice is to the detriment of the officers who taste the liquor, that it undoubtedly injures them morally and physically.

"That is the price the police department must pay to enforce the law and to save hundreds and thousands of citizens from drinking poisonous liquor," said Chief Davis. "This price must be paid to protect the public just the same as officers must take their chances in protecting the public from burglary, banditry and other major crimes. The increase in the amount is asked because it will cost more to apprehend bootleggers with the application of the new Federal law providing greater penalties for violators."

THORPE SECONDS MOVE

Thorpe finally seconded Commissioner Pierce's motion to approve the budget as it stood, Acting President Gollum casting the third vote in favor. Commissioners Schweitzer and Gilmore were absent.

During the budget discussion, Mrs. Elga M. Qually of the Highland Park Improvement Association, who had appeared before the board a week ago asking for more police protection for that district, and had been referred to the City Council, again renewed her request, stating that she was informed by a Council committee that no formal request for more men has been made.

At the direction of Gollum, Secretary Jeffers read a report on the number of times the commission had in his last five years asked for more men in the annual budget and had been turned down by the City Council.

The commission then renewed formal request to the Council for more men and asked that the provision for 500 additional officers in the new budget be put into effect immediately as an emergency measure.

FINANCES UP TO COUNCIL

Just where the money for them is to come from is a matter the commission left for the City Council to solve. Similarly, in regard to the increase of $3,691,204 for new stations, a jail and other improvements asked in the budget, there was no recommendation, although the matter of a bond issue for the improvements was discussed.

A communication from the Bureau of Budget and Efficiency asking details on the location, size and description of the new central police station, new jail and substations was referred to Chief Davis for his report.

The budget, as adopted by the commission, provides $8,247,625 for salaries, $60,000 for marksmanship bonuses, $504,890 for expenses, $150,000 for equipment, $2,285,250 for new buildings, $1,115,040 for 500 additional police, $143,140 for additional civilian employees, and $91,778 for expenses and equipment.

Estimated cost of the new central police station is $1,750,000; a new station at Venice, $100,000; one at Van Nuys, $160,000; the new Lincoln Heights Jail, $250,000, and $440 for a stockade fence.

COUNCIL VOTES DRY FUND INCREASE

Raising of the police department's special prohibition enforcement fund to $5000 a month for the remaining three months of the fiscal year, as requested by Chief Davis, was approved yesterday by the City Council. At present this fund amounts to $2500 a month but, in answer to a question put by Councilman Hall, Chief Davis said that in its budget requests the department will ask that it be fixed permanently at $5000 a month.

Although the Council's vote on the increase was thirteen to one, there was considerable discussion of it before the vote was taken, due to Councilman Hall's insistence that it be referred to the director of the bureau of budget and efficiency for recommendation as to the source of the additional money.

It was brought out in the discussion that in this year's budget there was an appropriation of $60,000 for a secret service fund, half of which was to be used in connection with prohibition enforcement and the other half for other vice squad activities. Of each half there is, the police chief said, $7500 remaining, and it was Councilman Hall's suggestion that the doubling of the prohibition fund be accomplished by transfering to it the remaining $7500 from the other half of the secret service fund.

The police chief, however, wished to transfer money to the prohibition fund from the salary fund, in which, he said, there is at present a surplus, and the Council granted his wish.

One of the questions asked the Chief during the discussion was for what specific purposes the money in the special prohibition fund is used. He replied that nearly all of it is used to pay individuals who give information to the police concerning liquor law violations.

SHEEHAN ARRIVAL AWAITED

Word on M.-G.-M. Studio's Policy Expected When Fox Executive Gets Here Friday

The future policy of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studio in Culver City is expected to be revealed when Winfield Sheehan, vice-president and general manager of the Fox Film Corporation, arrives in Los Angeles on Friday from New York. Control of M.-G.-M. recently was acquired from the heirs of the Loew estate by William Fox, president of the corporation that bears his name.

Arrival of Sheehan in Hollywood from conferences in the East is expected to bring about many unusual announcements inasmuch as the Fox corporation has made known that all of its future product will be talking pictures; that no more silent screen dramas will be manufactured by the concern. Nothing has been said as to whether this policy is to be reflected in the future operation of M.-G.-M. Announcement already has been made by Irving Thalberg, production executive at M.-G.-M., that the studio will be operated as a separate unit and keep its identity.

The Fox announcement of the discontinuance of the making of silent films created a sensation in Hollywood yesterday, especially at the Fox studio, among the help retained for the making of pictures without dialogue. Keen interest was displayed by employees, inasmuch as the announcement from New York indicated that players as well as writers, directors and other employees who do not fit in with the new program will have to look elsewhere for work.

Sheehan is bringing back to Hollywood new faces and new authors for the spoken screen.

TWO DEAD FROM AUTO ACCIDENTS

Another Suffers Broken Neck in Crash and May Die from Injuries

One woman was killed, a man died of injuries received Saturday night, and another woman is believed fatally hurt, as the result of traffic accidents yesterday, according to police reports.

Henry M. Snyder, 53 years of age, of 4014 Garden avenue, died yesterday in General Hospital of injuries received Saturday night when his automobile was in collision with a car driven by Miss Alice Stanton of 2041 Holly Drive. The cars crashed at Pacoima avenue and Vanowen Road, San Fernando Valley. Five passengers in Miss Stanton's car were slightly injured. Snyder suffered a fracture of the skull. An inquest is set for 1:30 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Ida Carter, 57 years of age, colored, of 1358½ East Washington street, died in Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, less than an hour after being struck by an automobile while she was crossing at Washington street and Naomi avenue. The car was driven by Paul Silver, 29, of 1416½ East Twenty-fifth street. Newton police reported that there was no negligence on his part. Mrs. Carter's chest was crushed, her skull fractured, and her right leg fractured.

Suffering from a broken neck, Mrs. Sarah Chostner, 56, of 136 West Ninety-sixth street, was in the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital last night as the result of an automobile collision at the intersection of Eighty-seventh Place and Wall street. Police surgeons said that the woman has little chance to recover.

The car in which Mrs. Chostner was a passenger was driven by her son, Golden Chostner, while Ray Jolly, 24, of 323 East Ninety-third street, was at the wheel of the other car, police reported. Neither driver was held.

C. E. Smith, 40 years of age, president of the Coast Heaters Company, of 515 Marguerita street, Santa Monica, was injured yesterday when an automobile in which he was riding was struck by another car at Union street and Venice Boulevard. Smith was riding with W. L. Bell of 6412 Eighth avenue. The latter said he stopped at Venice Boulevard and then started across when he was struck by a car driven by Raymond M. Pollard of 214 North Avenue 51. Pollard was tagged for reckless driving. Smith suffered concussion of the brain and a laceration on the head.

Girl's Screams Brings Rescue From Assailant

Battling with a man who was dragging her into an unfinished building last night, Miss Helen Clauser, 21 years of age, of 3919 LaSalle avenue, summoned a prompt rescuer. The young woman was walking along Figueroa street near Pico when she was struck a dazing blow. She fell and her attacker started to drag her into the building when Miss Clauser screamed.

HELEN CLAUSER

William P. Cobb, an automobile salesman at 1321 South Figueroa street, rushed to the building where he found the girl struggling with her assailant. He knocked the man unconscious and summoned help.

Detective Lieutenants Gorman and Ryan arrested the man. At Georgia-street station the prisoner said he was Herman E. Rutherford, 28, of 542 South Fremont avenue. He asserted that the blow brought him out of a trance in which he had been for hours, adding that his last recollection was of going to sleep in his home.

WEBSTER RITES TODAY

Funeral services for Charles Adelbert Webster, retired hardware merchant, and a resident of Los Angeles since 1903, will be conducted by the Eastern Star Lodge in Cresse's Highland Park chapel, 5860 Pasadena avenue, today at 2 p.m. A Masonic service will be conducted at the grave in Inglewood Park Cemetery at 3:30 o'clock under the auspices of the East Gate Lodge No. 290.

MAN'S FAITH IN "FIXERS" GIVEN JOLT

Judge Turney Deals Out Severe Sentence in Case and Warns Others

Law offenders who rely on so-called "fixers" will find themselves in trouble when they land in court in the future, according to Presiding Justice Turney, who yesterday sentenced Henry Abbott, asserted bootlegger, to two years in prison and also ordered that he serve a fourteen months' sentence on a previous conviction. Abbott, it is asserted, had paid "considerable sums" to "fixers" to escape his first sentence.

Court records show he did avoid going to jail on the fourteen months' sentence when, because of a misunderstanding, he was allowed an appeal plea by Judge Sheldon, who was asked to review the case by Abbott's counsel. Judge Sheldon relied on the counsel's statement that a previous appeal had not been acted on.

Abbott's liberty did not last long as he was picked up recently on another bootleg charge. Judge Sheldon heard of it and promptly acted to have his action set aside. Judge Turney, in dealing out the double sentences, asserted severe action will be taken against fixers.

"I dealt out the punishment to this man, who is a fourth offender, as a demonstration that fixers will jeopardize a defendant's case instead of helping him," Judge Turney said. "Fixers and members of law-defying rings cannot aid a man in this court. To enlist the asserted help of a fixer will go far toward demonstrating a man's guilt.

"Fixers cannot fix anything in court and all they do is to bleed the offender."

Change Favored in Mattoon Act

Three amendments to the Mattoon Act tending to clarify the issuance and sale of bonds for public improvements and to provide the property owner with information as to the amount of old assessments coupled with the new cost, were indorsed by the San Gabriel Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce yesterday.

According to George Dake, president of the organization, the present law does not provide the property owner with a proper knowledge of what he is required to pay on old assessments when a new one is voted. The amendments were introduced by Senator Wheeler.

Shriner Salute Plans Helped

In response to a request from the executive committee of the Shriners' convention for permission to fire a forty-eight-gun salute at Exposition Park June 4 to open the proceedings, the Police Commission yesterday held that it has no power to grant the permit because the park is State territory, but that it has no objections to the salute being fired over the sunken gardens, as desired.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery, at 10 a.m. tomorrow. Interment will follow in Forest Lawn.

Mrs. Tuttle also leaves her son, Harold W. Tuttle, assistant general manager of the Howard Automobile Company of Los Angeles. Mrs. Tuttle came to Southern California from St. Louis ten years ago.

PAIR END DIVORCE SUIT

Action Filed Year Ago All Off Since Couple Kissed and Made Up

Not all divorce actions begun in the Superior Court go through to the finish. Often cases are filed and then the petitioner relents, there is a reconciliation between the warring parties, they kiss and make up and the suit is dropped.

Such was the outcome of the case filed January 21, 1928, by Attorney Ben Lewis for Mrs. Fannie Arkin against Morris Arkin on the grounds of cruelty. Yesterday the wife's attorney dismissed the action when it was learned there had been a reconciliation between the couple and they are going to try all over again.
